RACE WAR

Wilmington in Hands of a Mob.

The Reign of Terror Still Exists.

Order Has Finally Been Restored By Citizens.

By Associated Press to the Journal.

WILMINGTON, N. C. Nov. 11.—After much bloodshed and turbulence, Wilmington has at last subsided into comparative peacefulness. Eight negroes were killed and three white men wounded during yesterday. Last night the city was in the hands of a new municipal government, and law and order is now established. The board of aldermen resigned one by one. As each alderman vacated the remainder elected a successor named by the citizens' committee until the entire board was changed legally. They resigned in response to public sentiment. The new board is composed of conservative Democratic citizens. The mayor and chief of police then resigned and the new board elected their successors, according to law. Ex-Representative Waddell was elected mayor, and E. G. Parmelee chief of police.

The first act of the new government was to swear in 250 special policemen, chosen from the ranks of reputable white citizens. They are vested with all the authority of law and have taken charge of the city. The citizens' committee will remain on guard throughout the town to prevent attempts at incendiarism. The new government will devote its attention to restraining recklessness among the whites as well as keeping down lawlessness among the negroes. Further trouble of a general or serious nature is not expected.

Soon after the meeting, George Rountree received a telegram from Governor Russell, saying that he would use all his efforts to influence the mayor and city council to resign. If that would restore peace, Mr. Rountree sent the following reply:

"Mayor and aldermen resigned. Two hundred and fifty special policemen sworn to. Law will be maintained and peace restored."

The trouble in Wilmington commenced Thursday morning, when an armed body of citizen, numbering about 400, and led by ex-Representative Waddell, chairman of the committee of 25, appointed for the purpose, proceeded to the publishing-house of a negro newspaper, the Record, to wreck it. The editor of this newspaper had published an article defamatory of white women and a mass meeting of citizens demanded his expulsion from the city within 24 hours, and the removal of his press. Fifteen leading negroes were called in by the committee of 25, and directed to notify the chairman this morning whether they would agree to the removal of the press. They were informed that if no answer was returned the press would be demolished.

No answer was received by the chairman and after waiting an hour, the citizens proceeded in a body and demolished the fixtures of the printing office. The building was also fired and gutted. The leaders say that this action was work of irresponsible persons, and as soon as the fire was discovered the fire department was called to extinguish it.

The burning of the printing office created a great commotion among the negroes of the town.

WILMINGTON, Nov. 11.—Change in municipal government effected last night has placed white men in control, representing the best element of the city. The first act of the new government was to swear in 250 special policemen who were instructed to prevent further disorder and to frustrate all future attempts to terrorize the negroes.

TRAIN ROBBERY.

Bold Hold-up of the Great Northern Train in Minnesota.

FERGUS FALLS, Minn. Nov. 11.—The Great Northern through train, which passes through this city at 7:30 p. m., last night was held up and robbed about five miles west of here. There were eight robbers in the gang, all well armed. Two of them evidently boarded the blind baggage in this city. The train was scarcely out of town when these two climbed over the tender, and, presenting revolvers, told Engineer Brace and his fireman to stop at a lonely spot near Pelican river bridge. Arriving at this place, the train was stopped, and the engineer and fireman were ordered to leave the cab. The other members of the gang rushed from the woods and boarded the express car. All wore handkerchiefs over their faces. The gang was regularly organized, and went by numbers.

When the train stopped, the conductor and brakeman started forward to find out what the trouble was, but the bandits fired a number of shots and warned them to go back. They then compelled the express messenger to leave the car, and while three or four stood guard the others proceeded

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—"We have received confirmatory information from every district in the United States," said chairman Babcock, of the Republican congressional committee today. "This shows that the Republicans certainly have 13 majority and possibly more, over the combination in the next house of representatives. The straight-out Republican strength will be of 185."

PROBABLY NOT ASHORE

Views of the Captain of the Saginaw—About the Maria Teresa Going Ashore.

NASSAU, N. P. Nov. 11.—Wreckers brought stores from a stranded vessel off Cat Island, which establishes beyond a doubt that she is the Teresa. The vessel lies beyond two reefs, on a smooth bottom.

The British admiralty is going to take possession of the Teresa as a derelict. The American consul has protested against this course, claiming everything less the salvage. The steamer Antilla is leaving here for Cat Island with customs officers and police on board.

BOSTON, Nov. 11.—If the Spanish cruiser Maria Teresa is on Cat Island, Bahamas, there was little indication of it when Captain Garvin, of the steamer Saginaw, passed there on November 4, three days after she was abandoned.

The Saginaw sailed from Port de Paris, Hayti, on November 3, and passed within 30 miles of Cat Island the next day. Captain Garvin said that when off the island he encountered a fleet of wreckers, or sponge fishermen, who are constantly on the lookout for wrecks, especially after such a gale as swept over the Bahamas during the first of the week.

If the Teresa was ashore on the island at that time, every one of those daring fishermen would have flocked around her within a few hours after she grounded, and would not have gone hunting about the ocean with such a prize so close at hand.

Is it the Teresa?

The Big Mitchellite Boss and Mr. McBride's Man, Davis, Back of the Injunction Suit for Political Purposes—Salem Newspaper Men Testify as to the Editorial Ability and General Conduct of the Paper by Hofer Bros.

The great climax in the suit of Bingham & Davis, by their attorney John A. Carson against THE JOURNAL CO. was to be sprung this Friday morning. Word had been passed around that great sensations were to be sprung and all the failures so far, of Binghamet, all were to be recouped, the county rock-crusher was to be set to work on the publishers, and they were to be disciplined and tried out of possession of THE JOURNAL office and a receiver appointed to conduct the business.

At 9 o'clock Holmes and Sherman and Carson and Bingham were in the court room. Judge Boise appeared, and Mr. Davis took a seat in the body of the house. Quite a number of prominent citizens were present, including Salem newspaper men, who had been posted to hear the fun which Mr. Bingham had promised them. Great frauds, misappropriations of funds, receiving large sums of money from politicians and candidates for United States senator.

Mr. Carson recited all the pleadings in the case with which whole pages of Salem papers have been calculated for months past, all of which are not new or to any great extent burdened with truth fact.

A COARSE LIE was injected into the statement of Mr. Carson, when he interpolated into his long-winded interminable charge that defendants admitted getting over $50,000, from candidates for office. There is not a word in this effect in the pleadings. But Mr. Carson had to do his duty for which he is employed by Bingham and ought to be excused by the public. THE JOURNAL will engage in no misrepresentation even of these plaintiffs. Mr. Carson may serve Mr. Bingham and Mr. Bingham may serve Mr. Carson, but their mutual satisfaction in civil or criminal actions but they shall not boldly falsify the records.

Mr. Carson now discussed the law of the case and stated what they would rely on. The alleged accounting was not blinding. He cited a great many corporation cases to show that directors had no right to make an alleged accounting in their own interest.

They were railroading their own claims through without regard other stockholders and they would see whether this court and the supreme court, of this state, would sanction such proceedings or not. He gave notice in advance that they would appeal the case, showing not a very strong faith in his case after all the heralding of annihilation that was to overtake the defendants, like a cyclone on a summer evening. Mr. Carson further plead that the defendants had a very easy case to make, while their case was very difficult.

to blow open the safes. The local safe was destroyed, and it is thought they succeeded in securing considerable money, but the exact amount cannot be learned. The through safe was drilled and dismantled, four charges being used. The jacket was blown off but it was impossible to reach the inner part and get at the cash. They worked over it nearly two hours, holding the train for that length of time, but finally gave up, and, joining their companions on the outside, started south.

NEW CABINET.

Composition of the Ministry Formed by Yamagata.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Following is the composition of the new cabinet of Japan, completed on the 8th inst: Marquis Yamagata, prime minister; Count Matsugata, finance; Marquis Saigo, interior; Admiral Katsura, army; Viscount Yoshikawa, communication; Vice-Admiral Yamamoto, navy; Mr. Kiyonoie, justice; Mr. Sone, commerce and agriculture.

Field Marshal Marquis Yamagata refused to recognize this ministry to succeed Count Okuma Stagaki, the first party cabinet in the history of Japan, which took office on June 28, and resigned on October 31, owing to differences over the question of filling the portfolio of public instruction. The Yamagata cabinet contains no member who is connected with any of the political parties.
