Hoyt's "A Bunch of Keys" at the Opera House Tonight.

Hoyt's "A Bunch of Keys," Polished Up to Date, Will Be Presented at the Opera House.

The piece is well known to the theater-going public, and nearly every one has either seen or heard of "A Bunch of Keys," the funniest of all comedies, which abounds in the most ridiculous situations, witty sayings and music of the kind that receives four or five encores. The company consists of mostly new talent this season, and headed by Ada Bothner, as Teddy. There is an abundance of bright music and songs, pretty costumes and appropriate stage setting, etc.

There is hardly a city in America that has a theater where there is a theater-going public but what the name of Chas. H. Hoyt is almost a household word. This well-known author is to a degree the father of the farce comedy. The first time his name was brought prominently before the public was when "A Bunch of Keys" was first produced. The "Keys" was a success, and it has made more people happy than any production in farce comedy. Its annual visit is always looked forward to with pleasant anticipations in the cities where it has been before, because those who have witnessed the performance know that a good, long laugh is in store for them. Tomater goes never grow tired of the comedy. "A Bunch of Keys" will this season be produced on a grand scale by Gus Bother, who has engaged an excellent company to produce this excellent comedy. The piece has been polished up to date, and special attention has been given to the special ties, which will embrace several novel features, among which a burlesque will be given by the Acme Quartette. The musical numbers will also be a feature. The company is headed by Ada Bothner, who will appear as "Teddy."

WOULD-BE CADETS.

A Dozen Young Men Struggling With West Point Examinations.

Twelve young men from different parts of the state are working on the preliminary examinations for West Point, today at the university.

They either have already been or soon will be examined as to their physical qualifications by Dr. J. A. Richardson and are now turned over to the care of Mr. Hawley, of the university, who will examine them as to their mental capacities. Upon the completion of their examinations the papers will be sent to Washington where the best will be selected to try for the honors of appointment.

The young men who have entered the race are: Clifton Morgan Butler, Albany; Edgar Francis Averill, Brownsville; Emerson Baker, Greenville; Jacob Nelson, Nye Kern, Kernville; James Walton, Salem; Henry Oliver Padlock, Clackamas; Frank Oliver Bort, Canby; Archie Clifton Fries, Central Point; William Dawson Johnson, McMinville; Rudie Adolph Schraun, Salem; Rufus Lee Martin, Hopewell; Thomas West Hammond, Ashland.

CAPITAL EMERGENCY CORPS.

To Give a Benefit Entertainment During the Coming Month.

The capital emergency corps held a meeting Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Z. F. Moody, which was largely attended by the members.

After transacting routine business the corps discussed as to the best plan of carrying on their work of relieving the poor. Fourteen families are now being helped by the ladies and it is taking their resources to the utmost, in fact, they have been compelled to contract some debt in prosecuting their work.

It was decided to give a benefit entertainment on the 18 of the present month, at the opera house the proceeds to go to the relief of the destitute families of the city. The best local talent in the city will be secured and tickets will be placed on sale at different places throughout the city sometime next week. The nominal price of 25c will be charged thus enabling every one to attend. The entire proceeds will go to the relief of the needy poor of the city of whom there is quite a number reported, which is increasing, several very destitute cases have been discussed and the public should all help the ladies in this work of mercy by attending the entertainment and by using their every effort to insure its complete success.

New World's Record.

CARLEIGH, Jan. 7.—The highest score at tennis ever recorded on the style with the American bowling congress alleys has been made by Louis Ulrich, of the Fellowship Club, in a contest with John A. Bender, of the Oakland Club. Ulrich scored exactly 300 pins, the maximum in a ten-frame game. The eight previous he made an average of 253 in three games during a contest between his club and the Oakland Club in the Chicago League tournament.

The latter score is said to be the world's record for the highest average in three games.

JOURNAL "X-RAYS."

Tax the Illiberal Club.

Remember your poorer neighbor.

We cannot make everybody happy in this world.

The people will get new state officers. But will they get a new deal? Will they get a new administration of state affairs?

The jury list should be made up with such fairness that there can be no possible impression of unfairness on the public.

THE JOURNAL is not for sale on the installment plan and it only regrets to render a number of persons unhappy by being so conducted that they cannot contribute to its support.

One thing the legislature, or Gov. Geer, or some one should do; knock out the old state fair graft. That is all that ails the state fair—its self-perpetuating plundering combine.

Albany editors and lawyers are engaging in an apparently endless argument about the ending of the century. The important matter for those gentlemen would seem to be not to end with it.

A man like "Badger" Moore, who will prostitute a beautiful wife, whose social ambitions made her easy game for his designs, is not fit to be at large, if he does bear one of Mark Hanna's commissions.

Albany Democrat—A remodeled court house will not be a luxury, but a necessity in Linn county. We need it in our business for a fact, as a walk through the present structure will convince any one, and the county is eminently in the best condition of any in the state to improve its court house.

The political genius selected to edit the "push" organ (and a few months later selected for receiver of the JOURNAL by the "push" lawyers), says the editor of this paper is a member of the Illiberal club and drinks there. On top of this comes the "push" organ with this highly original utterance:

HE WANTS TO GRAFT SOME MORE.

Whether the despicable "commercial" junk after being fired from the Illiberal club, is now seeking to blackmail its members, I understand his price in this instance is $250. He may as well understand, first as last, that he will not get one cent from that organization to help sustain his bankrupt and blackmailing sheet.

Salem, Or., Jan. 6, 1899.

The above treatment of the question, whether the Illiberal club shall pay a city license or not correctly illustrates the character and ability of some of our so-called local journalists. The above will at least inform the public of the attitude of these alleged members of public opinion on this question. Does the Illiberal club advertise itself correctly in the above publication? The best men in the Illiberal club agree with THE JOURNAL that it should pay a city license.

What bearing has the above on the question? Are not the business people of this city who are working earnestly to put our city affairs in businesslike shape tired of supporting such publications?

Robbed.

PORTLAND, Jan. 7.—At 7:15 o'clock last evening Dr. Plummer's drug store, corner of Third and Madison streets, was held up by a lone thug and robbed of about $58. Ira L. McCommon, the druggist in charge, had just waited on a man who bought a box of pills, and stepping toward the prescription case, the man who was waiting near there, also stepped around and said he wanted to speak to him a second later he was punching McCommon in the stomach with a long-barreled revolver, and ordering him to throw up his hands. O'complying with this urgent order, McCommon was ordered to lie on his stomach on the floor behind the prescription case, which he was forced to do.

The robber went through the safe, which was open, and secured $49.30 in cash and $4 in 2 cent stamps, and then tried the cash drawer, but could not open it. He made McCommon get up and open it and then again "lie on the floor." He took $5 from the drawer and left 25 cents, saying he would leave that for the druggist's breakfast. Then the robber disappeared through the front door, and McCommon arose and gave the alarm by telephoning to the police headquarters.

A Woman's Suffrage.
By Associated Press to the Journal.
ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 7.—Albany is the center of suffrage agitation. The female advocates and opponents of woman suffrage are wrought up over Governor Roosevelt's message, in which he advocates the gradual extension of the suffrage to women. There was great perplexity among the ladies interested as to what the governor really meant.

Town Association Press representative, Governor Roosevelt tonight said that what he meant in the message was a gradual extension of suffrage to women. How far to extend it he is not certain. He believes that the condition of a large number of women could be bettered. He is not sure that legislation can accomplish much, but if it can do a little, he is willing to try it. Women suffrage has worked well in the school district in which Oyster bay is situated, and the governor thinks it might work well elsewhere.

England at Peace Congress.
By Associated Press to the Journal.

257 Commercial Street.

AT MARION COURT HOUSE.

In the matter of the objections filed to the final account in the Wm. Chambers estate, by Mrs. Dorcas Chambers, widow of the deceased, the court sustained the objections against the item of $14 for costs on appeal in circuit court and also for $715.40 charged deceased by Robert Chambers, his son. These items were accordingly stricken from the final account and it was then allowed as amended.

An attachment was served by Deputy F. N. Derby on five acres of land owned by Warren B. White in order to recover the sum of $20.65 adjudged by the circuit court in case of E. C. Shellerberg vs Warren B. White, an action for money, which said judgment has not been satisfied.

Another attachment suit was begun in Justice Johnson's court against Peter Reader, by J. D. Meyers, of Portland, a cigar dealer, in order to secure the payment of $32.50 due on a cigar bill contracted by the defendant and not paid for.

The following deeds were filed in the recorder's office:
Eli Trutchell to Robert Gier, block 4, in Thomas' addition to Salem, bond $300.

The Northwest Real Estate & Investment Co. to Josiah West and Carrie Peterson, 240 acres in T. 8 S., R. 3 W., $3,000.

The American Mortgage Company, of Scotland, to Arthur N. Smith, 320 acres in T. 8 S., R. 3 W., $2,000.

John Newsome and wife to J. W. Ebner and B. Koedel 774 acres in T. 6 S., R. 4 W., $1,500.

Jacob S. Moyer to Leah Moyer, his wife, lot 8 and part of lot 7, block 64, Salem, $1.
