LEGISLATIVE ROUTINE.

Both Houses Working on Regular Routine Order of Business.
HOUSE—MONDAY P. M.

Before any business was done, Whalley made a plea for adherence to the regular order of business. He urged with reason, that one third of the time of the house had been taken up, heretofore, in roll call on suspension of the rules and in passing from one order of business to another. Business would be facilitated by taking it up in its regular order as it appears on the calendar; and this would enable the members to get some idea when certain bills might be expected to come up.

In accordance with this suggestion, the afternoon was devoted to the regular order, third reading of house bills and final consideration thereof.

At four o'clock, H. B. No. 263, the district attorney bill, came up under special order. The bill was then reported from the judiciary committee, with amendments cutting down the salaries named for the second, third fifth and seventh districts $500 in each case. The bill was then passed.

Flagg's bill, relating to appeals and stay of execution in case of judgment inflicting the death penalty, provided that executions shall take place at the state penitentiary instead of being carried out by the several county sheriffs. The bill was opposed by Stillman on the ground that it reduced the time allowed for appeal. The bill was defeated, but later was reconsidered. Flagg and Stillman again got tangled up on the time allowed for appeal, but the point was elucidated in by Moody in a word, showing Stillman to be laboring under a misapprehension of the law. Dr. Jones made his first speech of the session, explaining why he changed his vote. The bill then passed.

BILLS PASSED.

H. B. 3, Flagg, relating to appeals and stay of execution in case of judgment inflicting the death penalty.

H. B. 20, Blackaby, authorizing county judges and school clerks of school districts to bid on property sold for taxes. Read first time Jan. 11.

H. B. 155, Moody, to amend section 536, code, relating to appeals.

H. B. 117, Whalley, to amend section 254, Hill's code, defining the term, "a new trial."

H. B. 57, Beach, to prohibit the adulteration of candy.

H. B. 9, McRiton, to require the fencing of the trunk line railroad between Portland and Huntington.

H. B. 99, Whitney, to prevent persons from running push cars, velocipedes, hand cars, or other wheeled contrivances upon any railroad track, and to provide for the punishment of the same.

H. B. 157, Moody, to amend section 3230 of title II, chapter XXXII, code, concerning right of way for roads, canals, etc.

H. B. 73, Whalley, requiring street railway companies to provide weather guards on street cars and providing a penalty for the violation thereof.

H. B. 263, Curtis, to fix salaries of district attorneys.

H. B. 82, Maxwell, to appropriate moneys to bridge the south fork of the Nehalem river in Tillamook county. Reconsidered and passed.

FAILED TO PASS.

H. B. 83, Grace, To amend section 3673 of Hill's laws of Oregon, relating to the filing of liens by contractors, material men, artisans and others.

H. B. 115, Kruse, To compel street railway companies in cities of 10,000 population or over to construct and maintain vestibules on cars for protection of motormen and drivers.

HOUSE—MONDAY EVENING.

The session was short and without special interest, adjournment being taken at 9 o'clock. The time was devoted to the third reading and final consideration of house bills, except a few moments devoted to senate concurrent resolutions.

The House concurred in the three senate resolutions, congratulating the president on the ratification of the peace treaty; commending McBride and Simou for voting for said treaty; and expressing gratitude and admiration for our soldiers in the Philippines.

THIRD READING.

S. B. 192, Dallas city charter. Passed.

S. B. 225, Dufur, charter of Dufur. Passed.

The Blood Hound Bill.

Lincoln County Leader: Representative Topping has introduced a bill authorizing county courts to keep blood hounds for the tracking and hunting down of criminals. Talk about the great enlightenment of our modern 20th century, but this is Topping the climax. Mr. Topping had much better devise some means of properly punishing the criminals that our sheriffs already run down. It is just such nonsense as this that makes Oregon legislators objects of ridicule all over the state. Legislators should take their "horse sense" with them when they go to Salem and let a large amount of such nonsense alone.

[Mr. Topping must have some local conditions that impel him to secure relief by such a measure. He will no doubt state them when his bill comes up for action. But such local causes do not justify a state law on the subject.]—Ed. J.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Is the One True Blood Purifier. All druggists, $1.

Three bills were passed having reference to the liquor traffic. BILLS PASSED.

H. B. Topping, to protect bridges and regulate travel over same.

H. B. 129, Roberts, to prevent and punish the driving or herding livestock along or near public highways (not toll roads) and causing the same to be obstructed.

H. B. 95, Maxwell, to amend an act to fix the salaries of the county treasurers of this state.

H. B. 241, Davis, to fix the salaries of sheriff and clerk of Lincoln county.

H. B. 177, Flagg, to amend section 4 of chapter LIV of title I of the laws of Oregon. Read first time January 13.

H. B. 208, Hill, to regulate the sale of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors in the state.
