MORTGAGE TAX.

Roberts struggled with one of the strongest arguments against the bill that the rate of interest is fixed, like all prices, by the laws of supply and demand. Any restrictions on the lender will cause a rise in the rate of interest.

McQueen stated that he would vote for the bill under mental protest, because he knew that his constituents favored it.
After the subject had been well thrashed out, Moody's motion to refer was voted down, and the bill then passed by the following vote:
Ayes—Blackaby, Brattain, Butt, Cummings, Curtis, Donnelly, Flagg, Fordney, Freeland, Grace, Gray, Hawson, Jones, Knight, Kruse, Lamson, Lewis, Marsh, Massingill, Maxwell, McAllister, McCourt, McQueen, Nichols, Palmer, Piatts, Sherwin, Stewart, Stillman, Stump, Thompson of Clarkamas, Topping, Virtue, Whitton, Wilson, Wonacott, Young, and Mr. Speaker; 39. 22 Republicans, 17 Union.

Nays—Bayer, Briggs, Davis, Farrell, Hill, Hokirk, Moody, Murton, Reader, Roberts, Ross, Smith, Stanley, Thompson of Washington, Whalley, Williamson; 16 all Republicans, 5 absentees.

HOUSE BILLS PASSED.
H. B. 75, Whitney, to tax mortgages.
H. B. 106, Williamson, to amend section 3653 of chapter LI V, title IV of the laws of Oregon, relating to license for peddling merchandise.
H. B. 23, Curtis, to amend section 2826 title VI chapter XVII, relative to sale of real estate for delinquent taxes.
H. B. 265, Flagg, for the relief of J. W. Magues.
H. B. 222, Butt, to regulate the business of mutual fire insurance companies.
H. B. 154, Maxwell, to establish a fiscal agency in New York, to act without compensation.

SENATE—TUESDAY FORENOON.
THIRD READING.
S. B. 31, Probstel, prohibiting use of slot machines. Passed 15 to 7, those voting no being Bates, Cameron, Dufur, Harman, Mackay, Michell, Patterson.
S. B. 102, Kuykendall, to amend law pertaining to Shulaw & Eastern Railroad Co., referred to judiciary.
S. B. 147, Probstel, to fix the per diem of county commissioners. Passed.

S. B. 177, Kelly, Brownsville charter. Passed.
S. B. 114, Dufur, to better provide for and regulate proceedings in justice courts. Passed.

Senator Muirky introduced a large petition of Marion Co. tax payers praying for the passage of H. B. 163, and moved that said bill be brought before the senate. The committee composed of the Marion Co. Senators was requested to return said bill and it was placed upon its final passage. This is the bill increasing the Marion county sheriff's salary from $1500 to $2,000. Mr. Muirky made a neat statement of the situation and asked as a matter of justice that this bill should pass.

Senator Adams made a spread eagle partisan speech against the bill. Senator Hains also spoke against it. Senator Reed in the light of horse sense spoke for the bill. He was followed by Senator Brownell who made a succinct statement of the situation.

FOR COLD HANDS—
We will sell the men those heavy lined mittens, good common fellows, at 25c. Those heavy wool lined buck horn mittens for 50c. Hog skin gloves, with fleece wool lining, at 75c to close them out. Our ladies' wool mittens are all out, but we still have a good line of cashmere and fleece gloves from 25c upward.

FOR COLD BODIES—
We are selling all of our wool and fleece underwear for men, women and children, 20 per cent less than regular. The men's heavy fleece (formerly 48c and 49c, now 38c and 39c). Ladies' union suits 30c upward.

FOR COLD FEET—
Wool hose and socks 20 per cent out to close the lines. We also have excellent heavy fleece hose and socks for men, women, and children. Ladies' heavy fleece, 18c up. Children's ribbed fleece 17c. Children's ribbed fleece 17c. 10 button length overgaiter for 25c.

and supported the bill. He also read parts of the petition brought in, and took the positions that while some politicians might want public officers to work for nothing, the Republican party never stood in that position.

Senator Adams then demanded a roll call, which showed Morrow, Kuykendall and Howe to be absent. Adjourned to 2 o'clock.

Sheriff Durbin's salary bill, as it passed the House, giving him $2000 a year and $2000 for deputies, passed the Senate this afternoon with but two dissenting votes, Adams and Looney.

President Taylor has invited the members of the Senate to a banquet Thursday evening at Hotel Willamette at 7:30. There will be music and the finest dinner that Landlord Conner can set up for the occasion.

Governor Geer today signed senate bills relating to preparation of assessment rolls; to provide clerical aid for justices of the supreme court; charter of Monmouth; charter of Lakeview; charter of Hillsboro; charter of Grants Pass. House bills: Salary assessor Jackson county; charter of Gold Hill; charter of Marshfield.

Gov. Geer this afternoon filed the apportionment bill with the Secretary of State without his signature. The bill now becomes a law.

DAILY TEXT-BOOK BILL
Being Delayed By Representatives of the Trust in the House.

The book trust isn't doing a thing but getting in its silent secret work on members of the House wherever it can against the Daily textbook bill. The House has an overwhelming majority for this measure to break the American Book Co. monopoly held so long on Oregon. But the trust will work to delay consideration, to prevent action. In the great glut of legislation, some 600 bills—only heroic action will save this people's measure.

The plan of the text-book trust is evidently to kill the Daily bill by delay and misrepresentation.

"Wait until all the bills on textbooks are in from the senate before you pass the Daily bill." This is the plea of the text-book trust now in the saddle.

"It will be simply taking Oregon out of the hands of one monopoly and putting it in the hands of another," said a member today who has not yet made up his mind to vote for the Daily textbook bill. He charged that a Boston book firm was for the Daily bill.

Dr. Bernard Daly of the Senate, an Union member is staunchly supporting Daly, of Benton, the author of the bill who is a Republican. Representative Grace who was undecided at first, has declared in favor of the Daily bill as the only textbook reform possible at this session. It will receive the solid support of the Union members.

Cold Spell Broken.
The weather forecast for Wednesday is: Rain or snow and temperature warmer. Wind in the south.

By Tuesday night snow in the valley will all be gone and sleighing a thing of the past.

All operations at the Salem flouring mill are suspended owing to the ice in the race.

It is thought that much damage has been done to the lower end of it owing to the large amount of ice accumulating and it will be several days yet before the extent can be ascertained.

The ice detained the boats about half an hour yesterday at the Oregon City locks. But the locks are now cleared of ice.

All ice is now gone from the small bays and coves along the river and steamboating will henceforth not be interfered with by floating ice.

Skating is spoiled on the big slough and all coasting is about at an end caused by the rain.

The cold snap resulted in freezing thousands of bushels of apples and potatoes will be a scarce article. Good seed potatoes will command a high price. Potatoes that have been severely chilled are not fit for seed and a large per cent of the seed thus exposed, even though not frozen enough to injure them for consumption as food, will be unfit for seed.

Four inches of snow fell at Portland last night.

Oysters are a great delicacy when served fresh from the shell—this is how you get them and cooked to order at Strong's restaurant.

WHOSE MONEY BUYS IT?
Never too cold for us to talk bicycle. We've had a regiment of folks in to see our lines, and have made several sales in spite of mud and snow. When it comes to bicycles, genuine bicycles, wheels that have a standing and the right kind of stuff in them, we have them.

ANOTHER THING—
We haven't a wheel in the house even our $25 one, that hasn't solid steel hubs turned from the bar. That's an important matter, too. You don't want a cheap hub made of sawed off tubing with spoke flanges pressed on. They'll "do you" the critical.

Examining all hubs, even on wheels at $35 or $40. You'll sometimes find cheap hubs. When you pay even $25 now you want good goods. Come and see our "special" at that price. It has solid turned steel bearings throughout. Excelsior spokes, 40 rear, 22 front, Shelby tubing, Indianapolis chain, etc., etc. All fully warranted from top to bottom.

Death On the Ice.
While out skating with a number of other boys at Independence George W. Phillips fell on the ice. His head struck forcibly, and he received injuries from which he died in the evening.
