MANILA DEATH

The City of Paris Is Quiet.

Oregon Troops Fighting in the Philippines.

The Rebels Still Restless but Helpless.

By Associated Press to the Journal.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Otis cabled today from Manila: "Chaplain John R. Thompson, of the First Washington, died on February 19 of acute enterocolitis."

PARIS, Feb. 20.—The city is calm today and stringent precautions are taken to maintain order.

MANILA, Feb. 20.—10:30 a. m.—The enemy have apparently realized the hopelessness of attacking the American position, and are occupied chiefly by occasional sharp-shooting from the jungle, whenever feasible. Fortunately, their ignorance of the use of sights minimizes the effect of their guerrilla tactics.

The retirement of General King's advance posts upon San Pedro Macati has evidently been construed by the rebels as a sign of weakness, as they pressed forward along both sides of the river, persistently harassing the occupants of the town.

Last night the rebels poured volley after volley into San Pedro Macati from the brush on the adjacent ridge, but fortunately without effect. General King's headquarters in the center of the town was the target for scores of Remington and Mauser bullets.

The rebels are using smokeless powder, and it is difficult to locate individual marksmen.

General Owenshire's line, consisting originally of the North Dakota volunteers, the Fourteenth infantry, and two troops of the Fourth cavalry, stretching from the beach at camp Dewey to General King's right, was reinforced by two battalions of Oregon volunteers and three troops of the Fourth cavalry, as infantry.

(The two battalions of the Second Oregon are near the old camping ground to the southeast of Manila that was occupied by our troops before the capture of the city. They are, however, facing the other way, and General King's right and General Owenshire's left are farther out in the country than our soldiers were at any time last summer. The ground occupied by General Owenshire's brigade is low, and during the rainy season marshy. The part that is not paddy fields is covered with thick jungles. As this is the dry season, campaigning out there should not be so rough an experience as was work in the field last July and August.)

The two brigades constitute that part of the circle around Manila between Pasig river to the eastward and the beach to the south.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—The Paris correspondent of the Daily Mail describes the scenes at the Versailles election as a "Donnybrook fair, with a touch of tragedy therein—the tragedy of a newly chosen ruler attempting to ignore his unpopularity and smilingly returning thanks for congratulations."

"I believe," said the correspondent, "that the riotous scenes in Paris are only a foretaste of what is coming. Last night the boulevards were battlefields and nowhere was a voice to glorify the new president. Today the press is uncommonly rancorous. Here are some of the titles of honor conferred upon Duboué; 'Imbecile,' 'Panamist,' 'wretch,' 'perjuror,' 'liar,' and 'avowed protector of the Dreyfusards.'"

The New York Bucket has reduced prices very much on ladies', gents', and children's rubber boots and shoes in all lines. Don't buy until you see our line and prices.

Epworth League Convention.
Saturday afternoon session at the Epworth League Convention at Woodburn, opened with devotional exercises and music. Junior league reports were given by Mrs. Pederson, of Brooks; Miss Aitken, of Silverton; and Mrs. Singleton of Salem, gave a short address upon Junior League work and Humane education.

Misses Atwood and Rakestraw sang an appropriate duet entitled "Feed my Lambs."

The Twenty-third Psalm was recited by Leola Cornwall of Woodburn. Little Jennie Exon of Dayton, gave a recitation.

Ethel Tooze of Woodburn, recited, "We Carried a Pie to the Preacher." Ethel Johnson of Woodburn, gave "Don't be in a hurry to say Yes or No."

Marie Cathey of Woodburn, also gave a pretty little recitation. Prof. Noon of Willamette University, gave the children a short talk and Pres. W. C. Hawley told a story of Life in India.

Miss Simpson of Lebanon, read from Junior Herald.

Mrs. D. A. Watters of Salem, then read a paper on "The Literary Beauties of the Bible," which was very choice production.

Saturday at 7:30 p. m. the first half hour was devoted to a song service.

The Woodburn choir sang an anthem. President Hawley, of Willamette University, delivered an eloquent lecture entitled "Stepping Stones to the Orient."

Sunday at 6:30 a. m. sunrise prayer meeting led by Geo. Bunyan, of Hillsboro.

10 a. m.—Love Feast.

11 a. m.—Sermon by Presiding Elder D. A. Watters, of Salem. Rev. Harold Oberg, of M. E. church Oregon City, preached at the Presbyterian church at the same hour.

At 3 p. m. occurred the memorial service for the League members of Salem district, who have gone to their "long home" during the year, and also the soldier boys of Oregon who have died at Manila. "Old Glory" was placed upon the platform at half mast. President Hawley presided. McMinnville chapter had lost by death Harvey Bennett. A tribute to his memory was read by H. T. Fleaser. Miss Anna Atwood sang "Never Again."

Salem League has lost "Father" Hatch, Miss Claire Smith and Miss Mildred Watters. Miss Frances Cornelius, of Salem, read a beautiful tribute to these.

President Hawley read the Scripture lesson.

"Rest Soldier, Rest" was touchingly sung by a quartet composed of Misses Atwood and Rakestraw, of Salem, and Messrs. Cathey and Cornett, of Woodburn.

Pres. Hawley then gave an eloquent tribute to the brave soldier boys who have answered to the "last roll call" especially Harry Glenn Hibbard, of Salem.

Sunday, 7:30—Singing led by Mr. Cornutt, of Woodburn.

Ten minutes of volunteer scripture quotations.

Prayer, by Rev. Smith, pastor of the Presbyterian church, of Woodburn.

Quartet, Messrs. Cathey, Cornutt and Lively, of Woodburn, and D. J. Maple, of Oregon City.

T. S. McDaniel, fraternal delegate from Portland, gave a short but witty address.

Miss Atwood, of Salem, sang "Heavenward."

Rev. Harold Oberg, pastor M. E. church, at Oregon City, delivered a splendid address upon "The Inventive Genius of Love."

Miss Durfee, the newly elected secretary then read resolutions of thanks in behalf of the convention to the people and pastor at Woodburn who have made this occasion, so pleasant and to the local press for publishing reports; to the retiring officers for faithful work;

To Pres. Hawley, Mr. McDaniel, Rev. Abbott and Mrs. Watters for their assistance and valuable papers and addresses. Which resolutions were unanimously adopted. Delegates gathered at the front and a consecration prayer was offered by Rev. Watters. Convention hymn was sung, then with joined hands all sang "When the Roll is Called up Yonder"; League benediction by all.

The convention will meet next year at Newberg.
The new officers are:

President, Miss Anna Atwood of Salem.
Secretary, Miss Durfee of Shaw.
Cor. Secretary, D. J. Maple of Oregon City.
Treasurer, Miss Nellie Jones of Forest Grove.

Salem Public Building Bill.
Washington Special: Representatives Tongue finally got his bill appropriating $100,000 for a public building at Salem out of the committee on public buildings and grounds, and even though the committee of the whole house, but it is hung up awaiting favorable action of the speaker and the powers that be in the house to grant a day for the consideration of such bills in the house proper. Mr. Tongue is quite elated over his success and deservingly so, as efforts were made to prevent giving bills to states where buildings have already been erected. In order to get the public building bills through it was necessary to provide for a large number of places to get sufficient votes to pass them. There was logrolling in this the same as in the river and harbor bill. It must be that Speaker Reed is sneaking in his sleeve because the members of the house when they once get a taste of the public building pork pushed the bills along with such vigor that they overreached themselves and did not get time to consider but two or three in the house after spending two days putting them through the committee of the whole. It would be a mistake to allow the public building bills to fall now, for reports have gone all over the country that they have received the endorsement of congress. It is claimed that one cannot explain to people the intricacies of the rules of the house which allow a large number of buildings to pass through the committee of the whole house, and yet will not allow them to go any farther. Every town where a building has been passed thus far will be sore. It is said a better policy would have been to have passed no bills at all, and then each member could explain to his constituents that a policy of economy prevented him getting the building. Now he will be enmeshed in a discussion of parliamentary practice in the house which the average mind will not grasp, but will charge bad faith on the part of the house leaders.
