ABOUT MR. STILLMAN.

The Pendleton Republican has this about an Eastern Oregon man who was not a "hundred dollar member." In justice to Mr. Stillman it must be said that the lively interest he has taken in support of the Daly bill and his open and manly opposition to the book trust has won for him at least the admiration of the Republicans. The Daly text-book bill may not be absolutely perfect, may not give the relief desired, but it must be confessed that it is a move in the right direction.

The same paper gives Stillman a little left-handed tore-tape:

Some years ago Mr. Stillman wrote Republican editorials for the Pendleton Tribune and during his uneventful career as a newspaperman he learned the value of advertising and it is for this reason that he loves publicity. In fact he would rather have every newspaper in the state "trust" him once a week than to be treated with silent contempt.

OREGON PAYS FOR PERSONAL POLITICS.

The Republic journals of the First congressional district which labored so hard to defeat Hon. Binger Hermann for a nomination for congress, will note the amount Oregon has received for the improvement of her rivers and harbors in the present appropriation bill. Where, oh, where, are your appropriations for the improvement of the Willamette river, which you boasted so lustily you would get, if Hermann did not stand in the way? As predicted by us, the people of the Willamette valley are paying dear for their whistle, and are fast finding out that Oregon has no member on the rivers and harbors committee. It will take forty years to bring Oregon back to the position she occupied in receiving government aid for improving her excellent harbors on the Pacific coast, which was gained by Hon. Binger Hermann.

A mere bagatelles, merely pittance for the Columbia river, is all that is left of the grand work done by Mr. Hermann for our water highways of this state. Mr. Hermann's enemies should be proud of their work! - Baker Republican.

(If Mr. Hermann is sent back to Oregon can hardly recover for lost ground. But Oregon will rapidly regain prestige with two such workers as Senators Simon and McRellie to assist the two congressmen.)

HOW THE SENATE IS DEGENERATING.

The new senator from West Virginia has an income of $40,000 per month. Depew, just elected senator from New York, has been for many years manager of the Vanderbilt millions. Foster, the newly elected senator from Washington is reported to be worth about ten million dollars. These are all Republicans, and by way of variety, Montana sends along a Democrat whose income last year is declared to have been $8,000,000. So many other millionaires are in this year's crop of new senators that the Hanover school of statesmanship seems wedded to public favor, says the Corvallis Times.

It is a sweeping change from a few decades ago when Thad Stevens, Wendell Phillips, Stephen A. Douglas, Alexander Stevens, James G. Blaine and other eminent statesmen were the true type of an American senator. Where Chas. Sumner sat, there sits Hanna. Genius and broad, pure conception has given place to craft and money bags. Loft intellect and the love of countrymen has been crowded out by mental mediocrity and even imbecility, save in the power to acquire. For the brilliant glance of the statesman there is substituted the blinking eyes of the schemer. In the chamber sanctified by the memory of Benton, Webster, Clay and Calhoun, in which the desire to better fellow countrymen and to glorify a common country was the ruling ambition, there sits a score of antique old patriots, who figure mostly on the price of stocks and how to turn an honest pence. The condition is not portentous, for the house will continue to be, as it has always been, a representative body and the nation's safety valve. The coming senate is not to be feared so much as to be regretted.

A communication was read from C. D. Gabrielson protesting against allowing the McMinnville Insurance company to solicit insurance here without paying a license, when other companies pay a license of $18.

C. D. Gabrielson being present was called upon to explain the matter.

He explained the difference between a purely mutual insurance company and a company run for the profit of the stockholders, claiming that the McMinnville company is properly a regular and not a mutual company

Gesner moved that the matter be referred to the ordinance committee which was done.

The application of M. L. Hamilton

for a saloon license was referred.

The position of driver in the fire department was declared vacant.

The bond of the street commissioner, J. P. Frizzell, was received.

A petition was received from Asabel Bush, asking that bicycles be excluded from the sidewalk on Church street between State and Mission.

McFrew moved to refer to the committee on ordinances. Gesner moved to amend, to make it committee on streets and public property. Amendment and motion carried.

The resignation of Policeman Johnson was received. On motion of Buren,

the election of a policeman to succeed

Johnson was postponed until the next meeting.

Gesner moved that hereafter there be no rebate given back on any license fees paid in the city. Carried.

The receipts of the Irish fair in Salem were $5,000 and the expenses were $6,400, which indicates considerable of a loss. - Exchange.

Does the above refer to the state fair, the only fair held in Salem?

An Albany man talked to a woman in Portland and it cost him 85 cents before he could stop the telephone. Afterwards he talked with a Portland man, and it cost only 25 cents. The moral is plain.

there are weeds in everybody's garden, and no garden is safe in which weeds did not immediately possess themselves. They come some without invitation and without welcome. If you recognize them as weeds, weeding is easy, but if you have no knowledge to know that weeds choke flowers, trees, bushes, and shrubs, cost a branch, you will save the health gardens of many a man and woman. The doctors call them disease germs. If you have no knowledge to know that weeds from the floors of health and root them out, you will be subject healthy and happy, those germs, to death in all the words in that deadly consumption.

There has never been but one medicine which cures all these, root, rock and all. That doctor is Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure. It acts directly on the heart, driving away disease, purifying the liver, purifying the blood and life it with the life-giving elements of the food and tones and strengthens the heart. It tones the action of the heart and drives the life giving oxygen, supplying the blood with life giving oxygen. Medicine dealers sell it.
