NO PRISONERS

Of War Held By the Insurgents.

Admiral Dewey Directs Both Army and Navy.

Twenty Thousand Stand of Arms Captured by Japs.

By Associated Press to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The following was received from Manila in answer to the inquiry respecting the number of American prisoners held by the insurgents:

"Insurgents have not taken, nor do they hold a single prisoner of war. They have three soldiers in Malolos, picked up in January, who without permission went among them near Cavite and Caloocan. We have captured over 1,500 insurgent soldiers since February 4 and hold a majority as prisoners of war. The troops are in splendid condition. OTIS."

NEW YORK, March 3.—A dispatch to the Herald from Manila says: It is rumored that a steamer with 20,000 stands of arms and ammunition bound for the Philippines has been seized in Japanese waters by Japanese authorities. Aguinaldo's army is disheartened as the result of recent actions. Many companies of insurgents have disbanded because officers skulk and won't lead their men.

NEW YORK, March 3.—A dispatch to the Herald from Washington says: Admiral Dewey will rank Major General Otis and in the army and navy combined operations in the Philippines his orders as ranking officers will have to be obeyed.

It is believed, however, that there is no danger of friction between Dewey and Otis as the former understands the rights of the military and will, when the two services act together, consult the military commander as to the course to be pursued.

MANILA, March 3.—The gunboat Concord arrived from a cruise along the west coast of Luzon. The only incident of the trip was burning a schooner loaded with supplies for the rebels at Dagupan. The natives fled when the gunboat anchored in the bay.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The president has sent to the senate the nomination of George Dewey, to be admiral of the navy and brigadier general Elwell S. Otis to be major-general by brevet for military skill and most distinguished services in the Philippines.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The war department has received the following from the transport Sheridan: "Gibraltar—one death, twenty eight sick, three serious."

GIBRALTA, March 3.—The transport Sheridan, bound for Manila, owing to sickness on board, has been quarantined.

FRENCH PAPER KICKS

At the Way Germany Is Favored by the United States.

A dispatch to the New York Herald from Paris says: The Temps says that Lord Charles Beresford's idea of a quadruple alliance appeals to the imagination of many in the United States and then goes on:

"Nothing is farther from our thoughts than to pretend that when such a conception has terminated in the public mind, it has at the same time entered into international politics.

"What, however, must be noted on one hand is that in spite of apparent provocations, the United States, so unjustly susceptible with regard to other powers, displays great patience towards Germany, and, on the other hand, that in spite of certain actions in the bay of Manila and Samoa, Germany has no idea of entering into a struggle with the powerful trans-Atlantic Democracy."

The Temps then concludes that for France to direct her policy with the idea of an European coalition against the two Anglo-Saxon powers would be to enter heedlessly into a most dangerous undertaking, and says France has not yet arrived at the point when she can write down voluntarily Alsace-Lorraine in her profit and loss column by consenting to play the game of her enemies against liberal nations, which, put in plain language, seems to mean that the Temps counsels a rapprochement with the United States through England, rather than fruitless coquetting with Germany.

YAQUINA BAY

Once More Asked to Wait.

For a Report of a Board of Engineers.

More Testimony About That Stinking Canned Beef.

By Associated Press to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Today the house entered upon the last legislative day of the session. The public galleries were crowded in anticipation of spectacular scenes.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The conference on the river and harbor bill reached a compromise on the two items from Oregon which were in dispute. The Yaquina bay item has been modified to have the project again examined by a board of engineers. The house yields on the boat railway provision so far as not to repeal the law for the project, but strikes out the appropriation by the senate.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The nomination of Samuel B. Barrows to be librarian of congress was reported on unfavorably by the senate committee on library.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Captain Groom, of the Philadelphia city troop, was the first witness before the board of war inquiry today. About two weeks out of the four while in Porto Rico the command lived on canned roast beef. "It was our food and we ate it," said the witness, "that was about all there was to it.

We ever get cold, but had made into stews with such vegetables as we could get." Of the refrigerated beef, Groom said it was occasionally tainted on the edges and had to be trimmed. Otherwise it was excellent meat.

Colonel Cask, of the Fourth Pennsylvania, had six days experience with canned roast beef. At first the men tried to keep the meat after the cans were opened, but it spoiled between meals. The company's cook made stews of a whole can at a time, and it proved very satisfactory.

CHICAGO, March 2.—The United States district attorney, representing the inter-state commerce commission has filed a bill in the United States circuit court asking an injunction restraining nine leading railroads entering Chicago from imposing the $2 terminal charge at stock yards.

Orchards Hurt by Freeze.

A Salem special says: Reports as to the damage done to fruit trees in this section have not been exaggerated, as is shown by information received at the office of the state board of horticulture, and by men in this city who have farms. R. D. Allen, who has a 40-acre fruit farm near Silverton, in a letter to Henry E. Doeh, of the board of horticulture, says the cherry, and the petite and silver prune trees on about 15 acres of his farm were killed, while the Italian and Dutch prunes were not injured. He has not decided yet whether he will grub out the dead trees, as others in his section are doing, or not. Of the orchardists residing between Salem and Silverton, three are reported to be digging up and destroying their injured trees. Wilbur Jones, it is said, lost 15 acres, John Jefferson 36, and Henry Fletcher 20. The full extent of the damage done will probably not be known for some time. It is known, however, that it is greater than was first thought.

That Government Building. The bill for a public building at Salem recently reported on favorably by the committee on buildings and grounds, provides as follows:

"That the secretary of the treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to purchase a site for and cause to be erected thereon a suitable building for the accommodation of the post-office and other government offices at the city of Salem, in the state of Oregon; and plans, specifications, and full estimates for said building shall be previously made and approved according to law, and shall not exceed for the site and building complete the sum of $100,000; provided, that the site shall leave the building unexposed to danger from fire in adjacent buildings by an open space of not less than 40 feet, including streets and alleys."

The committee made the following report on the bill, recommending that it be passed as above:

"This bill has been favorably reported by the supervising architect of the treasury department. Like bills have several times passed the senate and several times this committee has recommended in former congresses the construction of a public building at Salem, Or.

"In the fifty first congress the committee reported in favor of $100,000, as follows:

"The city of Salem is the capital of Oregon, a state larger than New York and Pennsylvania combined. Salem has within its immediate postoffice delivery 20,000 people. The city enumeration shows an increase of population within the past two years of 50 per cent. All the state buildings are here, and required to be for the future by the terms of the state constitution.

Large and costly state buildings are provided for all departments of state. The supreme court holds its sessions in Salem. It is in the second city of the state in population and wealth. It has miles of street railways, numerous banking, educational, business and manufacturing institutions. It has a letter carrier system. Its commerce from its steamboats and railway traffic is large. It is the great Willamette valley. Efforts will be made for the establishment of United States courts here.

"In the fifty-second congress the committee again favorably reported a bill for said building, and also in the fifty-third congress.

"Your committee further represents that since those reports the Capital City of Oregon has increased largely in population, and there is a greater demand for such building, inasmuch as the postal business has greatly increased.

"There never has been a public building constructed in this Capital City by the general government."
