A GOOD PLATFORM.

EQUAL and exact justice to all men, of whatever persuasion, religious or political; peace, commerce, and friendship with all nations; maintaining alliances with none; the support of the state government in all its rights, as the most competent administrator for our domestic concerns; and the surest bulwark against anti-republican tendencies; the preservation of the general government in its whole constitutional vigor, as the sheet anchor of our peace at home and safety abroad; freedom of religion; freedom of the press;—these principles form the bright constellation which has gone before us, and guided our steps through an age of revolution and reformation.

THOMAS JEFFERSON.

JOURNAL "X-RAYS."

A sound-money college professor who fails to pay the hired girl her wages needs to learn an elementary lesson in finance.

Rev. Copeland is to preach on "The man with the hoe." That man is very much misunderstood, although there is no misunderstanding the poem.

Gov. Geer does not believe in opening a state normal school with a mortgage on its back as an object lesson in finance.

There are a number of talented women writers in Salem. This Journal proposes to give a prize for the best edited editorial page—one woman writer to prepare the entire page of original and selected matter.

W. W. Skinner when in Portland saw the first production on the Pacific coast of the greatest play produced in a century, "Cyrano de Bergerac." A few of our Salem people went to Portland this week who did not know that such a play had ever been written.

Every man or woman who has a postoffice site to offer at Salem should have a fair chance. The public utility of the matter would point to the west end of Wilson avenue; a government building there would look well. And besides the government would not permit frogs, it would keep the premises in first-class shape.

Closing up taxicabs is a proper caper. For years the laws have not been enforced in Marion, Portland and other big counties. Large taxicab drivers have been favored. Penalties for delinquents have not been enforced. Large bodies of warrants have been carried on interest. Collection has been turned over to men like Bling-ham to put more power in the hands of the political push. Close up the lists by publication and enforce the laws on all alike, is the right thing.

Twitted on the fact that he wore no ruffles, lace, ribbons, decorations or jewels, Cyrano de Bergerac, the hero of the middle ages cries out:

"True all my elegances are within. I do not speak myself out, my pipe like I would not say forth—a half washed-out affront upon my cheek—a conscience yellow-eyed, bilious from its sudden sleep. A ruffled collar—serape and duff—shawl no bravery of shining gems. TRUTH, INDEPENDENCE, are my fluttering plumes!"

"The not my form I lack to make me slim, but brace my soul with efforts as with stars, covered with exploits, not with ribbon knots, my spirit shining high like your moonbeams, I traversing the crowds and clattering groups make TRUTH ring bravely out like a class of spurs."

During one little piece of a session in the senate, Simon was able to knock out the last vestige of any appropriation for Yaquina. Then he goes over to the lay and tells the people how sorry he is that no appropriation could be secured. Mr. Tongue believes with Simon that another big appropriation could be secured. Mr. Tongue believes with Simon that another big appropriation could be secured. Mr. Tongue believes with Simon that another big appropriation could be secured.

Hop Market.

The hop market is very quiet in Salem and about all hops in the country are now in the hands of speculators, and brewers are not buying. Good hops which ought to bring from 14 to 15 cents are worth but from 10 to 11 cents and if the present year there should be a general good crop everywhere, it is thought by experienced hop merchants that hops would go to a very low figure.

The late cold wet spring is causing many hop growers in low lands to become somewhat discouraged.

The Mania Heroes.

The memorial day celebration at Portland, will be participated in by the fraternal orders of the city, and steps are being taken to have excursion trains from all parts of the state, and make it a memorial service in honor of the heroes of Mania. A large bodies of warrants have been carried on interest. Collection has been turned over to men like Bling-

CANCER IS DEADLY!

Results Fatally in Nine Cases Out of Ten—A Cure Found at Last.

This fearful disease often first appears as a mere scratch, a pimple, or lump in the breast too small to attract any notice, until, in many cases, the deadly disease is fully developed.

Cancer can not be cured by a surgical operation, because the disease is a virulent poison in the blood, circulating throughout the system, and although the sore or ulcer—known as the Cancer—may be cut away, the poison remains in the blood, and promptly breaks out afresh, with renewed violence.

The wonderful success of S. S. S. in curing obstinate, deep-seated blood diseases which were considered incurable, induced a few despairing sufferers to try it for Cancer, after exhausting the skill of the physicians without a cure. Much to their delight S. S. S. proved equal to the disease and promptly effected a cure. The glad news spread rapidly, and it was soon demonstrated beyond doubt that a cure had at last been found for deadly Cancer. Evidence has accumulated which is incontrovertible, of which the following is a specimen:

"Cancer is hereditary in our family, my father, a sister and so many having died from this dreadful disease. My feelings may be imagined when the horrible disease made its appearance on my side. It was a malignant Cancer, eating inwardly in such a way as to cause great alarm. The disease seemed beyond the skill of the doctors, for their treatment did no good, whatever, the Cancer growing worse all the while. Numerous remedies were used for it, but the Cancer grew steadily worse, until it seemed that I was doomed to follow the others of the family, for I knew how deadly Cancer is, especially if it is not cured. I was advised to try Swift's Specific (S. S. S.), which, from the first day, forced out the poison. I continued its use until I had taken eighteen bottles, when I was cured sound and well, and have had no symptoms of the dreadful affliction, though many years have elapsed. S. S. S. is the only cure for the Cancer."—Miss E. M. Ince, Wisconsin, N. C.

Our book on Cancer, containing other testimonials and valuable information, will be sent free to any address by the Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

BEST WOMAN EDITOR.

The Journal Offers a $50 Prize for a Page of Matter.

There are a number of women among the readers of the THE JOURNAL, who are very good writers and who have very good ideas on newspaper management. To encourage them as writers, THE JOURNAL will offer a prize of two large volumes in half Morocco, "America's Successful Men," 1661 quarto pages with steel engravings, to the successful woman who hands in the best copy for an editorial page for next Saturday's JOURNAL.

Copy must be in the hands of the editor for examination by Friday at ten o'clock a. m.

Originality, timeliness, variety and suitability for this paper, as well as literary quality will be considered by the editor and the writer whose page of not less than four columns appears on call and receive the books.

Competitors will not be made known to the public unless the winner of the prize is willing to have her name become known. THE JOURNAL reserves right to publish or not publish any of the matter offered. Here is a chance for Oregon's women journalists.

To the Public.

Within a few days I will issue a pamphlet giving a digest of the Inter-State University system of musical instruction. It has been my plan heretofore to offer to the public an opportunity to become acquainted with my method of instruction at special rates during the summer months and this pamphlet will be the medium through which I choose to let this be known. I am justly proud of the fact that the people of Salem have helped me to establish a PERMANENT STUDIO, where I can be found month after month. My business has been established by hard work and good methods, without which no profession can be a success. I will henceforth use three NEW PLANOS especially selected for my work.

EUGENE TRAEDY.

Mrs. A. F. Lamb Terribly Beaten by Mrs. Barker.

Eugene Guard, April 25.

Residents of Fairmount feel disgraced by an encounter in which some of the participants should be arrested and severely dealt with. It appears that the Lamb and Barkers are close neighbors. That bad feeling has existed between the two women and that Lamb, the husband, has sided with the enemy of his wife. Some time yesterday the Barker woman broke into the Lamb house and beat Mrs. Lamb up in a fearful condition. Her eyes are badly discolored, and one ear is mashed into a jelly, while bruises abound all over her head. Dr. Cheshire was called and says the lady is badly injured.

The neighbors all say that Mrs. Lamb is a reformed lady and that she has the sympathy of all.

Since writing the above we learn that the Barkers have left the village. A notice from Mr. Lamb that his wife has left his "bed and board," etc. appears in another column, and forms another link in the incident.

Children deprived of fats and mineral foods have weak bones, flabby flesh and thin watery blood.

The milk of nursing mothers, enfeebled by chronic diseases, or long continued nursing, produces the same results.

Scott's Emulsion is cod-liver oil partly digested and with the hypophosphites, forms a fat food which acts on the infant through the mother's milk, giving rich blood, strong nerves and sound flesh and bones to both.

Death Sometimes Spares.

A pathetic story of fact is told by an ex-Confederate soldier of one dark night on the skirmish line the latter, suddenly inspired with a sense of his own defenseless condition, began to sing those beautiful words, "Cover me by your death, O God, for the shadow of thy wing." He could not fire. The picket's life was saved.

Death sometimes spares the one who seems marked to be his victim. Let no one despair, even in the darkest hour. Many a man who seemed picked out for death by consumption has found respite and safety through the use of that wonderful "Golden Medical Discovery," which Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., invented thirty years ago, and which has brought new life and hope to almost countless thousands of men and women.

Every day brings a multitude of letters to Dr. Pierce, telling gratefully what his medicines and his advice have done to restore health and happiness to homes where hitherto sickness and misery had reigned supreme.

A gentleman living in Stillwater, Washington County, Minnesota, Mr. C. J. McConary writes: "In the spring of '98, I was taken ill with consumption, and after trying everything I could find, and doctoring all summer by a cold and hot steam, and nothing doing, I felt long was nearly gone, and that I could live no longer. About twelve bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery brought me out all right, and I cured myself of two more the 'Golden Medical Discovery' will cure consumption if taken in time. I consider it the best medicine in the world for the disease for which it is recommended."
