WAR DEPT.

Securing the Couer d' Alenes Miners.

Several Names Reported in the List of Wounded.

Lawton's Column Meets With Slight Resistance.

By Associated Press to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The war department has received following from General Merriam: "Wardner, Idaho.—Three hundred and fifty arrests made so far. Seattle officers investigating. Understand governor of Montana will surrender fugitives escapeing over the mountain trails. I will furnish a force to the Idaho sheriff to secure them."

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The cruiser Detroit, with Minister Merry on board, arrived at Port Linon, Costa Rica. The fact that Merry has left Bluefields indicates that no crisis exists there.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, May 6.—The Bluefield's correspondent telegraphs that Merry, the United States minister to Nicaragua, has agreed to a settlement of the claims of United States citizens against the Nicaraguan government. The settlement, according to the correspondent, is favorable to Nicaragua.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—As result of the president's consideration of the report of the Wade court of inquiry, following instructions were today cabled to military commanders in the Philippines, Cuba and Porto Rico.

"To better enable the president to determine what alterations, if any, in the established ration would be conductive to the better health of the troops serving in tropical climates, the acting secretary of war directs that you institute a board of three officers to fully examine into the subject of desired changes in the rations for troops and you submit the substance of the report by cable. Particularly should the experience of officers and enlisted men of long service in the tropics receive full consideration."

WARDNER, Idaho, May 6.—James D. Young, sheriff of Shoshone county, was arrested this morning upon the order of State Auditor Sinclair, who was acting as the personal representative of Governor Steunenberg.

The arrest was made by United States troops and the sheriff is now confined with three hundred other prisoners. The sheriff is charged with aiding and abetting the riot, and proceedings will be commenced immediately to remove him from office. In the meantime Coroner France will act as sheriff.

NORRIS BROS' SHOW.

A Laughing Dog With the Company, So Says the Agent.

"That's funny enought to make a dog laugh," is a common expression" said J. H. Fitzpatrick, the advance representative of Norris Bros' Big Trained animal Show, which is to exhibit in this city soon. "Do you know there is a dog with the Norris Bros' show that laughs as merrily as a school girl, and his laugh is infectious, at that. This laughing dog is named "Forepaugh," and is a genuine Portugese hunting dog,a very rare animal and the only one in this country. "Forepaugh" is a very dignified looking canine and would not accuse him of such a sunny disposition as he possesses, from his appearance. That dog appreciates a joke as keenly as any jester that ever lived. His laugh is not the common te-te-te sort of a kind, but a good hearty ha-ha-ha that would do credit to a man weighing two hundred and fifty pounds. I know you won't believe me when I tell you we own a laughing dog, but you will see him and be convinced."

The Norris Bros' show will exhibit in in this city Friday and Saturday, May 12 and 13th, giving two performances daily at 3 and 8 p. m. A grand free street parade will be given at 11 a. m., at which time Professor Norris will drive "Ajax" the only trained African zebra in the world. "Fargo," the smallest elephant in the world will also be seen.

Expansion Necessary.

THE JOURNAL must apologize for the crowded state of its columns. Salem is coming to be the great agricultural implement center of Western Oregon. And the dog and pony show. There may be necessity for expansion.

Hired a Rig.

On last Thursday a gentleman called at Fiddler's barn, on Ferry street, and hired a rig to drive to Canby and failed to return. He went from there to Portland and left the team at a barn there and telephoned for Fiddler to come and get his team. He went down today to drive the team back. Mr. Fiddler is in luck to have found his team, and will probably not lack long for the man. Mr. Fiddler will return this evening.

THE LAST LECTURE.

Dr. Koehne Drops the Last of the Nazarene Lectures and Discusses Social Problems.

The Methodist church was again filled Friday evening to hear the last of the course of lectures which has been given by Dr. Koehne.

Rev. H. A. Ketchum announced that the subject of this evenings lecture would be "The New Aristocracy, or the Rights of the Common People."

Dr. Koehne then explained that this lecture was not one of the series of Nazarene lectures but was complete in itself. He then analyzed the physical constitution of man, and cracked several rather labored jokes.

He thought that the world needed dreamers. It was too practical. He went back to the time when the world was 3000 years old and recited some very fine and epigrammic passages descriptive of conditions at time. The first aristocracy of the priest in India. The second was the aristocracy of king, in Egypt; the third was the aristocracy of classes in Athens. The people strive toward the ideal, but fail to reach it.

The spread of civilization over Europe dated from the fall of Constantinople, at the hands of Mahomet.

It was the Bible translated and made intelligible to the common people that lifted the shadow of the dark ages. Savanarola was cited as a champion of the common people burned at the stake. He with Columbus and Luther formed the big three of that age of the world. Napoleon was held up in a false light as the incarnation of reactionaryism, and the monarchical ideas, as a foe to all progress: and his downfall at the hands of the allied despotisms of Europe, and the re-establishment in France, at the point of the bayonet of one of the rottenest monarchies with which France was ever cursed, against the will of the French people, was called a triumph of the rights of man.

He then devoted some time to the politics of this country. He thought that foreigners should not be allowed to vote until twenty-one years in this country. The vote of the working-man with his dinner bucket in one hand counts as much as that of the president himself.

He touched upon the primaries very lightly, and the evil of letting the boss have too much influence there.

The life of the farmer contained all the elements for human happiness.

The lecturer devoted some time to the subject of art, and the very poor appreciation of most people for the beauties of nature spread out around them.

He told of the extreme felicity of the workingman who works cheerfully, and saves his money until he can buy ten cent magazines and attain enough culture so that he may appreciate the beauty of the outside of the millionaire's mansion, which does him as much good as though he were a millionaire himself and owned the house.

The lecturer said many fine things, some funny things and several things which were applauded; but those who expected to hear something new or unhackneyed, or which should really touch the problems suggested by the announced subject of the lecture, must have been disappointed.

At the conclusion of the lecture Rev. Mr. Ketchum spoke briefly in eulogy of the gifted speaker. He then explained that the lecture was not free, and that every one was expected to contribute something; that, in fact, honor demanded this. A collection was then taken. but, though the audience was undoubtedly long on honor, it seemed to be somewhat short on cash.

THE BROOKS' CASE.

Jas. Kirkwood Is Examined in Justice Johnson's Court.

The case of the state against Jas. Kirkwood, in which the latter is charged with the crime of rape, alleged to have been committed upon Lilly Alexander was exainmed before Justice Johnson this forenoon. Deputy District Attorney John McNary conducted the prosecution, and the defendant was represented by Jas. McCain.

The girl is rather attractive in appearance, petite and evidently less than 16 years old, as claimed. She seemed to feel the disgrace of her position keenly. She gave testimony clearly and without hesitation.

The defendant is a man of probably 35 or 40 years, and seems little affected by the proceedings.

First witness called was Lilly Alexander. Had known defendant over two years. He stopped at their house all last winter. The crime was committed the last of February or the first of March. The defendant came to the house in the forenoon when she was alone. No one else was about the house at the time.

On cross-examination McCain asked several questions as to witness' relations with her father and brother, which were objected to by the prosecution, and objection sustained by the court. Had never told anyone about the affair until about a week ago, when she told her father and sister.

Defendant had spread bad reports about her character, which was one reason why she told about his offense.

John Alexander, is father of Lilly Alexander. She was born September 8, 1883. Had known defendant over two years. Had seen defendant in the vicinity of his house three times since March 18. Defendant had boarded there until about the last of February. Had never ordered him to stay away. Daughter had told him about the rape three days before the warrant was sworn out. Had been to Salem some time ago to have defendant arrested for slander and went to John A. Carson. Two letters were introduced which witness identified as being in defendant's handwriting. One had been received by witness and one by his son.

Jack Stewart, had knowm defendant about four years. Had seen defendant along some time in February, sitting by a bush three or four hundred yards from Alexander's house. Defendant then said that he had caught old man Alexander cutting up with the girl, and intended to catch him again and then have him arrested. Saw defendant later the same day going in a direction away from Alexander's house.

Dr. C. H. Robertson, had made an examination of the person of Lilly Alexander. Gave a technical description of her condition.

A recess of 15 minutes was now taken, to allow consultation between Atty. McCain and the witnesses for the defense.

When court again came to order, Attorney McCain announced that he would introduce no witnesses, but was willing to submit the case to the court without argument, to which McNary agreed.

The court said that he thought the evidence established the fact that a crime had been committed, and that he would hold the defendant for the June term of circuit court, fixing bail at $500. This was deposited in cash and defendant was released.

BREAK DOWN

Of the Luzon Insurrection.

Now Positively Assured at an Early Day.

Independence or a Protectorate Not to Be Given.

By Associated Press to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Among a list of names of wounded at Manila sent by Otis today are Second Orogon, Company I, Private John T. Reeves, knee: K, Corporal Edgar G. Chamberlain, thigh, moderate.

MANILA, May 6.—General Lawton's column advanced to a position two and a half miles north of Balinag today. Before making a forward movement, General Lawton sent back to Manila two wounded men of the Minnesota regiment, one of the Oregon, who were hurt in yesterday's fighting, besides twenty sick men. Lawton's advance met with a slight opposition.

Outside of Mausin two thousand rebels were routed in short order. Many corpses of rebels were discovered in the river at San Tomas. Scores of rifles and other arms were recovered from the river into which they were thrown by retreating rebels. MacArthur's division is resting at San Fernando, making in the meantime extensive reconnoisance.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The officials of the state and war department are looking for a speedy collapse of the insurrection in the Philippines. Not only is the expectation based on private advices from the Philippine commission as to negotiations, but also on the successful development of MacArthur's and Lawton's campaign.

So far as the commissions reports are concerned they indicate that the insurgents have recognized the inevitable breakdown of their struggle and are simply striving by prolonging resistance, to secure the most liberal terms possible in creating a government in the Philippines.

They have not, in a diplomatic sense, acknowledged the sovereignty of the United States, but have recognized the physical domination of our military forces and while they talk more or less of independence, even at the last moment, without doubt they will accept any proposition looking to a protectorate.

The president's instructions, however, are clear on this point, and the commission understands that it is to tak no action in the way of promises that will deprive congress of a free hand in disposing of the future of the Philippines.

[THE JOURNAL believes it would be best for our government as well as the Filipinos if "peace with dignity" could be brought about.

Aguinaldo may be as treacherous and unreliable as the Spaniards represent him to be, as they bought him off once and he turned again upon them. But he knows that he is not dealing with the Spaniards now, and that the masses of the Fillipinos are as anxious for peace as all Americans are, who are not reckless advocates of bloodshed. "Peace with dignity" would mean that Aguinaldo's officers, his congress and army, and the leading men of the country who are now at war, could be restored to useful citizenship with honor. Those men are needed to establish a good government and a permanent peace. Let the prayer of all churches and all patriots ascend to the ruler of all nations that Peace with honor and dignity, an enduring peace for the greatest good of all concerned, may come speedily.] ED.
