By Associated Press to the Journal EUGENE, Ore., May 12.—Claude Bran-ton was hanged today for the murder of John Linn. He slept well, got up at the usual time this morning, but would not cat breakfast. At nine thirty his people were admitted to the jail door, and conversed with him a few moments. Branton left his cell at 10:45, walked upon the scaffold unassisted, and took his place on the trap.

Asked if he had anything to say he replied that he had but little. He told Everything passed off as smoothly as possible. The body dropped five feet. Branton left several letters to be mailed. He assisted the officers in tying his hands and did all he could to make a success of the execution.
