WEATHER REPORT.

Tonight and Sunday probably fair.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Mrs. D. L. Power returned to her today.

Prof. Reed, of Weston, one of the "great" educators of Oregon, is in town.

James Elliot, a prominent Polk county farmer near Dallas, was a Salem visitor today.

Dr. Byrd and Geo. Bingham left today for an extended fishing trip in the east range.

Mr. F. Draper left for Portland today having spent a few days at the home of Mr. T. H. Lloyd.

H. L. Fenton, treasurer of Polk county drove over from Dallas this forenoon and deposited with the state treasurer the necessary funds of state taxes.

W. T. Hignall left today for McMinnville where he delivers the address on the occasion of a Macabee memorial service in honor of one of the volunteers at Manila.

Mrs. E. A. Lynds and children returned to their home in Portland, after a three weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Sauvain of Twenty-second and Mill street.

General Compton and General Williams of Portland were in town today, the former on private business and the latter on business connected with the fence on the old Swarts farm east of town.

Norris Bros. don't hesitate to tell the people to go to the Pony show or THE FAIR for bargains.

A KLODKIKE WEDDING.

A Salem Family Celebrates Which is Nearly as Numerous as the Joneses and Smithses.

At the home corner of Sixteenth and C street, Englewood addition, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Welch on Thursday celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. Numerous relatives, including two great-grand-children, were present and the event was a most enjoyable one.

At the noon hour the guests were invited into the dining room where an elegant dinner was served, the reminder of the day being passed in social enjoyment. The venerable guests of honor received hearty congratulations and a number of valuable presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Welch were married near Knoxville, Iowa, May 11, 1849, and arrived in this city in October, 1882, and since then have resided here continuously. The union has been blessed with ten children—seven sons and three daughters—of whom four sons and one daughter were unable to be present yesterday. They were: C. R. Welch, who is in the Klondike gold fields; L. J.
Welch, of Covelo, California; L. L.
Welch, of Redding, California; and J.
S. Welch, of Southeastern Oregon; and Mrs. Flora Zinn, of Pomeroy, Washington.

Those present of the children were:
W. M. Welch and wife, T. P. Welch and wife, and Ray Welch.

Among the relatives present were John Allen Welch, banker of Barton, Kansas, and James Welch, of Delta, Colorado, brothers of Mr. Welch; Mrs.
Myra McMillan, of Knoxville, Iowa, a sister of Mr. Welch. These relatives, the one accompanied by his son Roy, came from their eastern homes to participate in the pleasures of the occasion.

Mrs. McMillan, being in poor health, expected to have returned ere this, but was so much benefited by the change of climate she thinks to remain here permanently. Other members of the family and guests were:

Mrs. C. R. Welch, of South Salem, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wheeler, Mrs.
Jacob Idlewine, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wattenpang, Mr. and Mrs. Warren White and family. The following grandchildren were present: Mrs.
Emma Beckett, Mrs. Ella Cooper, Miss Minnie Welch, of Portland; Miss Ada Welch, Miss Dollie Welch, Anna Welch, Master Alger Welch, Lottie Welch, Francis and Walter Welch, Miss Dora Idlewine, Hattie Idlewine, Mamie Idlewine, Master Chester Welch, M. dred Welch, of Salem. The two great-grand-children were: Miller Cooper and Marion Wattenpang. Others present were: Miss Della Edmanson, Mrs.
Wm. Barrett, Rev. Charles Percell, Rev. Ruby, recently from Oklahoma, Bessie Wheeler, Jessie Wheeler and Dottie Wheeler.

Certain of Enjoyment.

Those who smoke Little Champion cigars, made in Salem by A. H. Hec-kestein, have an enjoyable smoke.

Stearns... $35.

An Important Cut.

We have just received some rather cheerful news from the Stearns Co.
They are now putting up a '90 wheel brand new in every way, with all the new '90 parts, handle bars, pedals, rings, spokes, cranks, etc., etc., to sell at the extremely popular price of $35. It can't ever be called a "98 improved," for it is a brand new wheel from end to end, the only similarity being in the shape of the rear stays which are modeled after last season's handsome lines.

We will have these wheels in the house we think on Monday, next, in both ladies and gents black and yellow. These prices talk. Place your orders now.

In connection with this we have some very interesting prices on the regular '90 model now in stock: drop in. We'll surprise you.

SECOND HAND WHEELS.

Well Yes! Doing business too. Sold five the last two days. Maybe we can do you good.

F. A. WIGGINS,
No. 307 Commercial street.

Value...

We are selling just a little bit the nicest ladies' shoe you ever bought for anywhere near our price, at $2.75.

Its a hand turn vici, flexible as they're made, and good as gold. In all the dozens of them we've sold there's not been a nickle's worth of repair necessary. Come and try one.

The men's drossy vici at $2.50 $2.95 and $3.50 cost you not less than 20 per cent more regularly. Come and see if we're not right.

Men's new crash hats, soft crush bats, and bike caps. Come and see.

ODD FELLOWS

Meet Next Week for Transaction of Grand Lodge Business.

Delegates From all Over the State Will Be Here.—Business and Pleasure.

Next week will be Odd Fellows' week in the Capital City. Three grand bodies of that order will be in session, and delegates will be here from all parts of the state.

The probable number of the visiting members of the order is estimated all the way from 600 to 1000 and extensive preparations are being made for their reception and entertainment. Not all details have yet been completed, but the general plan is mapped out, and committees are hard at work.

Members of the reception committee of seventeen will meet all trains, wearing blue ribbon badges, and the arriving visitors will be taken care of. Geo. H.
Burnett is a committee to secure a list of available rooms, and anyone having good rooms to spare will confer a favor by communicating with him, and will be compensated for their use.

Business men are being visited by a committee to request the decoration of their places of business, for the occasion.
The decoration is customary in nearly all wide-awake places on the occasion of any such gatherings. Business men, restaurant keepers, cigar dealers and others vie with each other in displaying bunting, colors and insignia of the order, etc., as a means of drawing custom.

Visitors are already arriving and great numbers are expected tomorrow and Monday.

The grand encampment and grand lodge will meet at the capital in the senate chamber, which has been prepared for their reception by being thoroughly overhauled. Seats have been provided for over 400 people, and an ante-room has been constructed in the corridor, under the supervision of T. Orin Barker, who has the matter in charge.

The Rebekahs will meet in the Odd Fellows hall in the Holman building.
H. A. Johnson has had charge of preparing the hall for their use, and has fixed it up in fine shape. Seats are provided for over 300, the Y. M. C. A. having loaned 150 chairs.

Monday evening there will be a meeting of Salem Rebekah Lodge No. 1 to which all the visiting members will be cordially invited. Tuesday morning the grand encampment at the senate chamber at the capital and the Rebekah assembly at the Odd Fellows hall in the Holman building. Tuesday evening the Rebekah assembly give a reception to the president, Miss Pauline Klein, of Corvallis. There is a contest for a prize to be awarded to the Rebekah most proficient on the floor and unwritten work, and the team of the Salem Rebekah lodge will put on the degree work. They have made great preparations and will show some fine work.

On Wednesday morning the grand lodge meets at the capital and on Wednesday evening there will be a reunion of the old members and pioneers of the 30s with the mother lodge, Chemeketa No. 1.

During Thursday there will be business sessions of the grand lodge. On Thursday evening the past grand masters association gives an entertainment at the M. E. church. The first tickets will be given to visiting members, and, as the capacity of the building is limited, the local Odd Fellows will take pains to see that visitors have the first chance.

On the afternoon of Thursday, the visitors will have the freedom of the car lines, eight cars having been chartered for the afternoon.

The state institutions will be visited, and any place accessible to the "little" or "big" cars will be at the disposal of the visitors.

The regular meeting of Chemeketa lodge on Wednesday, evening will be open to visiting members, and the hall will be filled. The regular routine meeting will be held, after which a general reunion and love feast will be held.

It is expected that the business of the order will be cleared up Friday.

One question which is likely to be thoroughly discussed is, what to do about the Orphan Home, belonging to the order.

The property consists of about 60 acres of land on the Columbia 12 miles from Portland. It is said that the location is not a desirable one, for sanitary reasons. Although the order has spent about $20,000 on the project, it is likely that there will be some change of plan.

The JOURNAL will give all available news and information as to the proceedings of the week.

New Enterprise.

The Boston Shoe Company will open with a new stock of shoes and general footwear next Tuesday at 308 Commercial street near the post office. The company is interested in the Santa Rosa factory and in another at Lynn, Mass., and will offer a large stock, which the manager declares will be sold at figures that cannot be beaten and are seldom approached. The stock is being placed now. It will be opened to the public Tuesday May 16, at 10 a. m. when all can see the opportunities to get good footwear cheap.

The Wrong Letter.

Judge Burnett at the Dallas court dismissed a man indicted to the grand jury for defective indictment. No time was given the district attorney to correct a minute clerical error. It seemed one Byerly was indicted for assaulting U. G. Hyde, when it was U. H. Hyde who was assaulted.

Hide was before the grand jury and could identify himself, and the fist that bit him, and a piece of the hide that he had lost in the encounter.

Leonard Safely Landed.

Harry Leonard, the prisoner who assisted Magers, the murderer, who was sentenced to the penitentiary for seven years was brought to the state prison today by Sheriff Van Orsdel and Deputy N. Morris.

It is Incontrovertible!

The Editor of the "Christian Millon," under the heading of General Notes, on August 20, 1897, wrote—

"A good article will stand upon its own merits, and we may rely upon it that nothing will continue long which does not, in a more or less degree, harmonize with the statements which are published concerning it." Mr. Hall Caline,

Author of "The Deemster," "The Manner," "The Christian," etc., when speaking on "Criticism," recently said—

"When a thing that is advertised greatly is good it goes and goes permanently; when it is bad, it only goes for a while; the public finds it out."

The Proprietor of
BEECHAM'S PILLS
has said over and over again—

"It is a fallacy to imagine that anything will sell just because it is advertised. How many nostrums have been started with glare and snuffed out in gloom? The fact is, a good medicine is not advertised for a time, and every dissatisfied purchaser does ten times more harm than one satisfied does good.
Assuredly the sale of more than 5,000,000 boxes of BEECHAM'S PILLS per annum, after a public trial of half a century, is conclusive testimony of their popularity, superiority and proverbial worth."

Beecham's Pills have for many years been the popular family medicine wherever the English language is spoken, and they are now being sold in every part of the world, at all drug stores.
