SHAW IN COMEDY.

A Large Attendance, a Funny Play and a Good Character Sketch.

The opera house was filled last night by the largest audience of the week, to see the Shaw company in comedy.

The other members of the company had little chance to distinguish themselves; but Gilbert as the snoring man, "The Chicken," was exceptionally good.

The orchestra work was fine, and the xylophone man was obliged to respond to a double encore.

Tonight, the closing night of their engagement, this excellent company should be greeted by another crowd whoop and a little chuckle with the hand over the mouth were the only mannerisms brought over from the "Westerner" of Monday night.

The engagement closes this evening with the presentation of Milton Nobles' master piece "The Phoenix," a play too well known to need any description.

THE HAY CROP.

Outlook for Abundance of the Dried Products of the Meadows.

From present indications the Willamette valley hay crop will be one of the largest on record. The damp spring has been conducive to a heavy growth of all kinds of grass, and dry weather now cannot materially reduce the crop of hay.

the contrary, that the yield will be larger than usual. They also say that there is considerable of last year's crop still in the hands of the farmers. Others who have traveled over the country corroborate this, and reports from Linn and Lane counties indicate the same conditions there. With the exception of some very low ground where the grass has been drowned out, the weather has been ideal for a bountiful growth.

Good cheat and timothy hay is now worth in this market from $6.50 to $8 per ton. The new crop will probably open out at about those figures, and get cheaper as it comes in more freely.

Mrs. T. H. Hubbard says that the hay on her place is better than last year, while the wheat is particularly fine.

Mrs. Hubbard is among the successful and energetic farmers and managers, who from experience knows the advantages of a proper rotation of crops. She has 200 acres, divided into three fields, one of which is seeded to clover every third year.

Her farm is under lease to a tenant, who finds it profitable, and is able to pay a rental that is satisfactory to the owner.

KENTUCKY DEMOCRATS.

Adjourn After a Week of Wrangling in the State Convention.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE JOURNAL.

LOUISVILLE, June 24.--Torn with dissection, the Kentucky Democrats are having a hard time holding a state convention. After three days of waiting, the credentials committee report was read this morning.

The committee disposed of contests involving 350 seats. These were all decided in favor of Stone excepting three cases. A minority report was presented by the Hardin people.

Twenty minutes was allowed for each side for debate on the credentials report. The majority report was finally adopted and both sides cheered as the first rays of harmony broke upon the convention after a week of wrangling and bitter news.

Hardin then announced his withdrawal from the race for governor and appealed earnestly for the undivided support of the party in behalf of his nominee. The platform adopted says in part:

"We express continued confidence in Wm. J. Bryan and favor his nomination for the presidency by next Democratic national convention. We declare the conduct of the present administration as to the Philippines to be repugnant to every line of the bill of rights, of the constitution and Declaration of Independence."

When nominations for governor were called, John S. Shea, placed the name of Captain W. J. Stone before the convention.

Judge Tarvin, of Covington, nominated William Goebel. A vote was ordered and the roll call proceeded with considerable disorder. After taking one ballot without a choice, the convention adjourned until 6 o'clock.

A JOLLY PARTY.

Drawn To Silver Creek Falls to Picnic.

A jolly party of young ladies drove to Silver Creek Falls today to camp and picnic over Sunday. The party drove out in one of Mr. J. J. Misses Rose Moore, Allie Davis, Ella Hodson, Birdie Byrd, Fannie and Baum Mann, Julia McCulloch, Miss Smith, Mrs. Nichol and several others.

A. L. Fraser who has been in the employ of Steiner & Blosser as foreman for several years has resigned his position and today went to Dallas, where he will be associated with J. J. Wiseman at the hardware and farming business under the firm name of J. J. Wiseman & Co.

MATCH GAME ARRANGED.

The players in the contest are: W. of W. F. of A. Diague, Hodgin, Putman, King, Staley, 1st b., Mellon, Gieger, 2nd b., Hamilton, Kay, 3rd b., Anderson, Irvine, s. s., Hamilton, Boullard, c. f., Green, Baker, i. f., Kays, Reed, i. f., Buck.

The above teams are subject to change at any time, and by arrangement the clubs can substitute as many players as they please, but they must be members of their respective lodges.
