WILLIS BROS. & CO. FIRST DOOR SOUTH OF POSTOFFICE, SALEM, OREGON.

B. M. Lombard, who served on the Monterey as division officer when Manila was taken was in the city today. He says it will be more favorable to the men to have them mustered out at "Frisco. They need all the pay they can get. They have had an exhausting campaign and are not in good order for marching around. The principal thing a man wants when he gets back is good beefsteak, strawberries and cream and long night's rest.

Representative S. G. Hawson, of Arlington, Gilliam county, is in the city, and reports that without doubt the wheat crop of Eastern Oregon has suffered terribly from hot winds. The winter wheat froze out, and the spring wheat is in bad shape.

VOLUNTEERS.

San Francisco Harbor, S. S. Newport, July 12, 1899.—To Adjutant-General, U. S. A., Washington, D. C.—Oregon troops arrived unanimously object to being mustered out at Portland and lose the right of travel allowance, and request to be mustered out at San Francisco and get allowance. Can they be mustered out here and receive travel pay? Pay car to be attached to the train, and the men paid en route. Ordinance to be turned over at Vancouver, and final disbandment to be made in Portland.

"GO, SCREWS, COLONEL." "Commanding Second Oregon, U. S. V."

In deference to the unanimous wish of the Oregon regiment, I endorse Colonel Summer's request for mustering out in San Francisco, T. T. Green, "Governor of Oregon."

The answer as expected from Adjutant-General Corbin is printed above.

PORTLAND INDIGNANT. PORTLAND, July 13.—When it became known in this city that the Oregon volunteers would probably be mustered out in San Francisco, instead of being brought to Portland, the citizens were very indignant. Several telegrams of protest were sent to Washington and to the officers of the regiment at San Francisco against mustering the men out at San Francisco.

VISITED JAPAN. SAN FRANCISCO, July 13.—Less eventful by far was the return voyage of the Second Oregon than the trip to Manila. A pleasant three days at Nagasaki, Japan, was all that broke the monotony of the long days on the ocean. The regiment boarded the transports Newport and Ohio June 12 and 13, sailing at 10 o'clock June 14.

SALEM BOY HEARD FROM. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fones, who have two sons among the volunteers received a telegram this morning telling of the choice of soldiers in wanting to be mustered out at "Frisco and added this cheering news:

TRANSPORT OHIO.—"We are here; all well; all friends well. Had lovely trip. Co's G, C, K, M, E, I and F, are on the Ohio with us. LEX FONES."

Col. Smith's Runaway. About 9:15 Col. T. C. Smith's team got loose from in front of his office and ran down Commercial street at a terrible pace. They struck a single rig belonging to an old lady from the Haysville country, tied at Dr. Cusick's residence, and it was badly smashed in the collision. One of Col. Smith's horses jumped clear over the old lady's buggy and Smith's buggy had a tongue broke and was also demolished some. No one was hurt, and the horses escaped with slight injuries. The Smith horses turned and went on Center street, and when captured the vehicle had been left behind and had to be taken to the shops.

The lady's name could not be learned, but before she got around to know of the damage done, Col. Smith had it in the shop and was having it repaired at an outlay of some $10 at his own expense.

A Conductor Fumigated. A victim of smallpox is said to have gone through Salem on the morning overland Wednesday. He was from Junction and was well broken out by the time he got to Portland and was hustled to the hospital for all such unfortunate. The conductor was captured and vaccinated, fumigated, immersed in sheep-dip and sent back south on the evening overland.

Boulders and Bridges. The street commissioner would do well to remove all the stones from our principal street, and put all the principal bridges in repair. As the succession of crops continues to mature traffic will increase. By a little careful attention now, and preliminary repairing accidents may be forestalled and the streets of the city kept more passable.

Friedman's New Racket.

Celebrated the Fourth and so did all the rest of the people who purchased clothing at Friedman's New Racket, for they saved enough money in the bargains they got at Friedman's New Racket that they had money to blow in at the Fourth. And you could see by their faces where they bought the goods. All those who looked pleasant and smiling and patronized the restaurants, peanut and lemonade stands were the ones who purchased their wares at Friedman's New Racket. The few dejected looking people, who went without dinner and refreshments on the Fourth, bought their goods elsewhere. And now Friedman's New Racket is preparing for the Fall trade; and down goes prices still lower in order to make room, prices go down still lower, and those who are in need of clothing, hats, gents' and ladies' furnishing goods, staple and fancy Dry Goods, blankets, comforters, faces, ribbons and embroideries, handkerchiefs, towels and notions, trunks, valises, etc., will find that it will pay them, to make their purchases at Another Woman Speaks. SALEM, July 13, 1899.

ED. JOURNAL.—I am sickeningly surprised to hear of so many of the ladies resigning and refusing to serve on the committees to welcome home our returning heroes. More especially the mothers who have sons among them. They speak of being insulted by the Gatch movement, or as they term it, a political move. I wonder if they stop to consider the insults that were imposed on the mothers who have sons among the volunteers by the so-called G. A. R. committee at the first call, which I think is misquoted, for it was taken completely out of their hands? Mothers who were members of both Relief and Emergency corps, who were ready, willing and waiting to serve wherever put either at the head of a committee or elsewhere. They were perfectly ignored. At such a time as this all prejudice should be laid aside and all work as one in harmony and good will, and above all others, the mothers, whose sons God has so graciously watched over, and brought them back safely.
