STILL COLD

Oregon Volunteers Shivering.

Protest at Press Censorship an Earthquake.

Summers Attends a Cakewalk and Gives Geer Guff.

By Associated Press to the Journal. WASHINGTON, July 18.—It was stated at the war department today that no attention whatever will be paid to the "round robin" of the Manila press correspondents. The protest was not sent to Otis and it is said he will not be called upon for any explanation.

In addition it was intimated that very encouraging news had been received from the Philippines and that the situation was very much better than is generally believed. New York, July 18.—The Washington correspondent of the Herald quotes a member of the cabinet as follows: "Either General Otis or the newspaper correspondents must go."

To deport the correspondents would probably be accepted as a return to the old Spanish method of muzzling the press. To relieve Otis will mean an official acknowledgment of his fault and demoralization of military discipline."

New York, July 18.—The special to the Tribune from Washington says: "What every army officer in Washington has long feared and what civilians were beginning to believe is now precisely confirmed by the remarkable dispatch from Hong Kong, containing the protest of the newspaper men at Manila, which will take rank as a war paper with the celebrated Santiago round robin."

In the war department for more than a month the feeling existing among the higher officials, that Otis was misplaced in command at Manila, has been growing irremissible. WASHINGTON, July 18.—Following has been received from General Otis: Manila—Continual heavy rain and cyclonic storms. The Colorado regiment sailed on the transport Warren yesterday. In addition 130 discharged men took passage. The Californians on the Sherman have arrived from Negros. The vessel must await the subsidence of the typhoon now prevailing.

Shivering Volunteers. SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—An Oregon volunteer was found on guard duty last night at the Presidio, wearing four suits of clothes, with a piece of flannel shirt tied about his neck for a muffler. He had borrowed these things from the boys in his company. At two a. m. he was a Stanford senior weighing 170 pounds; now he is reduced to 120 and looks like a shadow.

Scores of men in the Oregon regiment are passing through this experience, while the war department is busy with the eternal red tape. Another effort was made by the Red Cross Society and General Summers to have the Oregonians provided with overcoats and blankets. It is thought that by tomorrow Adjutant Babcock, of this city, will receive orders to draw these articles from the quartermaster.

Meanwhile, the soldiers are borrowing from each other, while half of the boys are obliged to remain in their tents or take the consequences in the fog and wind outside. General Shafter is not in the city. If the government fails in its duty, it is safe to say that two months' back pay received by the troops Saturday will be expended for necessities, which the present health of the regiment cannot continue. General Summers and hundreds of his men were guests of honor at the international cakewalk carnival now in progress at the Mechanics pavilion.

Summers is Hedging Behind Geer. The following letter was circulated in the regiment: "SAN FRANCISCO, July 17.—To His Excellency, T. T. Geer, Governor of Oregon: Sir—The enlisted men of the regiment desire to express to you the deep sentiment of gratitude which your noble and appreciative conduct has inspired in each of us. Patriotism does not find expression in battle alone.

He who holds the reins of power with such toleration that personal pledges are sacrificed to his infernal convictions of right, commands a loyalty that contests in arms fail to maintain, and none can be more sensitive to respectful consideration than the enlisted men of the United States army. We feel most highly honored by the attentions received at the hands of yourself and staff. Very obediently, Enlisted Men of the second Oregon Volunteers."

President Orders Clothing. WASHINGTON, July 18.—President McKinley has received a telegram from San Francisco saying that the Oregon troops at the Presidio were without overcoats and were suffering from the weather and in danger of pneumonia. The dispatch stated that having just returned from a tropical climate they could not withstand the cold, and there were plenty of overcoats in the quartermaster's department. President McKinley directed that such clothing as was necessary for the comfort of the troops be issued to them.

It is stated at the war department that the matter of clothing for the troops is at their own disposal. Each man is allowed $100 annually for clothing, and if he does not use the whole amount he draws the residue. The Oregon men can draw upon this clothing credit if they want to and get overcoats or other things, but it will be charged to their clothing account and taken out of the money paid them when they are mustered out.

TRUTH CRUSHED

To Earth Will Rise Again.

Condemnation Abroad of the Press Censorship.

Cabinet Officers Serious and Have Nothing to Say.

By Associated Press to the Journal. LONDON, July 18.—The London afternoon newspapers generally, in commenting on the protest of the American correspondents in Manila against the press censorship, denounce the American-Philippine campaign as managed by Secretary Alger and General Otis.

The St. James Gazette says: The Great American people have been hoodwinked by its general and its administration, who have kept up a series of suppressions of the truth.

The Pall Mall Gazette says: "The correspondents have done their duty to the public as journalists and gentlemen should."

The Times in a leading editorial says: "Alger has run the war office as a political machine. Military posts have been bestowed on political friends without regard to fitness or the interests of the country. Dishonesty and corruption have been rampant whenever there was public money to be handled."

"McKinley is incapable of ridding himself of the incubus of his secretary, who, evidently regarding himself as having the President in his pocket, severely defies the public indignation aroused by his mismanagement."

WASHINGTON, July 18.—The Cabinet meeting today was longer than usual and the members, after it had adjourned, were more reticent than usual. It is admitted there was some discussion of the "round robin" sent by the American newspaper correspondents from Manila via Hong Kong, but all information regarding the character of the discussion, the nature of the decision, if one was reached, was refused.

A cable from Col. Deally, a member of the Philippine commission, was read. It showed a fairly satisfactory state of affairs. One of the cabinet officers said, but the cable did not say that peace negotiations with Aguinaldo were still in progress.

Secretary Hays also had a cable from Ambassador Choate relative to the boundary line negotiations but it was not encouraging.

MANILA, July 18.—The natives of the provinces of Albay, South Camarines, and North Camarines are endeavoring to throw off the denomination of the Tagals, and the people are willing to declare allegiance to the United States when troops are sent to protect them.

FIRE IN NAVY-YARD.

Consumes Cloth for the Making of Jack Tar's Clothes.

NEW YORK, July 18.—Fire at the Brooklyn navy-yard last evening threatened much valuable property in the building occupied by the provision and clothing department of the bureau of supplies and accounts. The fire was discovered on the third floor, in which white duck cloth was kept and cut up for the men in the navy. About $5,000 worth of cloth was on the floor and it is thought that it was entirely consumed by flames as the fire swept from one end of the building to the other.

On the second floor was stored, in bales covered with waterproof material, all the other cloth for the other suits worn in the navy and needed for other purposes. The cloth on this floor was estimated to be valued at about $500,000. How much of it was destroyed by water could not be learned but it was

HEAD-END COLLISION

NEW MAST.

Steel One Will Take Place of Present Wooden Mast.

BRISTOL, R. I., July 18.—Captain Rhodes, of the Columbia, received orders on Saturday to sail for Newport as soon as possible, and he will not delay his departure beyond Tuesday. The new mast of Washington pine, which was sent up last Thursday, is slightly taller than the old spar and the better fitting sails are expected to make their influence felt in the coming races off Newport.

The Columbia's new 107-foot steel mast cannot be completed before Tuesday, and may not be ready in time for the first Newport contest. It is taller, thicker and stronger than the defender's steel cylinder, which has withstood the most severe strains, and weighs 1,600 pounds less than the big pine spar it will supplant. When this mast is stepped the Columbia is not expected to heel so much in a stiff breeze, as the present weight above the deck line will be materially decreased.

FOOLED ONCE MORE

Allege Company Did Not Live Up to Recent Agreement.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 18.—Decision to declare another strike was reached after a meeting of the men, which lasted practically throughout the night. During the early hours of yesterday not a car was running on any of the big consolidated lines, 15 in number. The officials of the company have asked for police protection and say they will attempt to start cars on one or two lines very soon. Large crowds are congregating at all the barns of the company, but so far as known no violence has been committed.

Training Progressing.

The number of horses in training at the fair grounds race track is increasing almost daily, and a large number are already there with more to come. There are several fast ones both among the harness and running horses, and a great racing program will be among the features during the fair.
