MANILA, July 19.—The Spanish commission is negotiating for the release of the Spanish prisoners held by the Filipinos expect to return to Tarlac soon with full authority to secure the release of all the prisoners.

The commissioners hope to make arrangements under which the Filipinos are to pay for the ransom of the Spanish prisoners to be deposited in the bank to be drawn by the Filipinos at a future date so that the money can not be used against the United States.

The terrible rains here during the last two days in consequence of which it is necessary for the use of boats in moving about the streets, Manila and the whole country is flooded.

The Filipinos have refused to allow the civilian prisoners to embark on board a ship leaving Aparr, although they had passports signed by Aguinaldo.

HOSPITAL CHANGE.

Will Sell the Present Site and Take the Orphans' Home Property.

A Salem special says: Negotiations have been pending several days for the conveyance of the Orphan's Home property, situated near the state insane asylum, to the Salem hospital. The Orphan's Home was recently compelled to close its doors for lack of funds, and the property has been standing idle. The plan is to deed the property, consisting of the buildings and ten acres of land, to the hospital, with a provision that the property must revert to the grantors, should it ever be conveyed or used for any other purpose than a hospital. The negotiations were to have been concluded last evening, but owing to a slight question regarding the reversionary clause the deed was not signed. If the conveyance is perfected the plan is to sell the present hospital property and use the proceeds in making improvements on the new hospital. The sale of the present hospital property lies largely with John H. Albert, the donor, but it is understood that he will make no objections to a sale for the purpose contemplated.

STEEL CONTRACT.

Carnegie to Supply Material for Ten Years.

PITTSBURGH, July 19.—The Pressed Steel Car Company has contracted with the Carnegie Steel Company for 30,000 tons of steel plates monthly for a period of 10 years. A Valuable Dog. wouldn't sell for ten cents to a man who doesn't want a dog. And that is true with most anything else.

The only expeditious way to find a man who wants to buy a dog is to speak to everybody in Salem through THE JOURNAL WORD COLUMNS.

Those who are interested will respond. And it would be a very uninteresting dog indeed that wouldn't suit anybody.

Most anything you don't want can be sold at some price if properly advertised.

R. A. ALLEN, Secretary of War. "On the morning of the 10th of May, 1858, Major Edward Steptoe, Tenth United States Infantry, with a small command of 149 men, who had been sent into the Spokane country to seize some marauders of the Palouse tribe, found himself, while in the vicinity of the Snake river, unexpectedly in the face of a force estimated at from 1000 to 1500 Spokanes, Palouses, Couer d'Alenes, Yakimas and others, and after a most gallant resistance lasting throughout the whole day, was enabled to retreat during the night with small loss.

A general outbreak took place; small parties of whites were cut off in every part of the country; the safety of Fort Walla Walla was threatened, the Indians becoming everywhere bold, defiant and insulting. A force of troops was hurriedly assembled under the command of Colonel George Wright composed of troops C, E, H and I, First dragoons; batteries A, B, C, K, and M, Third artillery; companies B and E, Ninth infantry, and met these combined tribes, numbering from 500 to 700 warriors, near Spokane plains, and after a continuous fight which lasted over seven hours and ranged over a distance of 14 miles, the Indians were completely routed.

"The effect of this fight was the unqualified submission of Couer d'Alenes, the disposition of the other tribes, and ultimately the subjection of the whole alliance.

"By command of Major-General Miles, "H. C. CORBIN, Adjutant General."
