Tom Tongue's organ in this city is strikingly original and appeals to a high standard of Push Republicanism when it prints this:

"I am reminded of the fact, and I take hope on account of the fact, that the rain makes the corn grow; and the corn makes whiskey; and the whiskey makes Democrats!"

Albany Democrat: The Salem JOURNAL is after the state insane asylum with a red hot iron, and declares that the whole business is an abuse from the time the party is arrested and committed by men who want to make some fees out of the matter. It is particularly after the superintendent and shows many things to indicate that he is an Alger kind of a man.

* * *

Afraid to strike a man of so much pull with the administration, the Salem Tom Tongue organ prints this slap at Land Commissioner Hermann:

Binger Hermann is home in time to see that the returning volunteers get the proper reception! in fact, that the double handshake of hearty welcome be fully extended to them.

Over four thousand feet of matter written by the editors about Oregon has been received at the editorial headquarters in Portland, practically all of a flattering character. Entertaining those editors will prove seed well sown, and well worth a million and more pamphlets mailed East. It was the kind that tells.

"When we take the census of Salem we enumerate the penitentiary, the reform school and the blind asylum. Then we roll in about 9,000 people."

This was the answer volunteered by Mayor Bishop, of that city, when he was quizzed by an Astoria reporter as to the relative size of the two rival points.—Astorian.

SCALP BOUNTIES.

Warrants Amounting To $12,384 Issued Under the New Law.

Tax on Sheep and on Personal Property Will Make Fund of over $50,000.

A Salem special to a Portland paper says:

One thousand and sixty-six warrants, aggreeing $12, 384, in payment of claims originating under the scalp bounty law passed by the legislature last winter, had been issued by the secretary of state up to the close of business today. These warrants will draw 6 per cent interest until next year, when a tax of 1 cent per head on sheep and ¼ of a mill on personal property will be levied to pay them. Estimating the value of personal property in 1898 at $131,773,-637, a tax of ¼ of a mill, after deducing the value of sheep, will yield $32,943,-42. The tax on sheep will yield about $17,452.56, taking the number of sheep in the state in 1897 as a basis. This, added to the tax on personal property, gives a total tax of about $50,-395 97. It is probale that the amount paid in bounties will not exceed the amount of the tax, but at present no estimate in that respect can be made, as claims are coming in rapidly. The first warrant on the bounty fund was issued May 6. Claims have been received from only 24 counties. The following table shows the number of scalps taken in each county, and of claims allowed.

	Scalps	Am't allow'd
Baker	136	$ 272
Clackamas	18	36
Crook	653	1,306

Total	6,192	$12,384

The operation of a new bounty law is to build up a new system of claims against the treasury, and to pile up a new fund of unused money in the state treasury. This tax was invented by the last legislature and will probably run ten years and cost the people of Oregon half a million dollars before it is repealed. In the meantime running large flocks on the public lands enriches a class of monopolists, destroys grazing lands, destroys forests, and sends men to the insane asylum who go crazy from the isolation attending a herder's life

Lieut. G. W. Jones, who resigned the office of county superintendent of schools to go to Manila with the Second Oregon, returned this morning.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful It acts directly on the blood end mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure.
