THE JOURNAL prints a letter from W. H. Mills, chief of the Central Pacific loaned by Queen Victoria. Railroad Co., land department.

It is in reply to a letter to Mr. C. H. Markham, general freight and passen ger agent of the Southern Pacific lines in Oregon, Mr. Markham is interesting himself on behalf of the company he represents as well as on behalf of the producers of this state, to secure some beneficial results from a display at the Paris exposition. In our letter to Mr. Markham we made a suggestion that as France had originated and brought to a high degree of perfection the prune industry, if the Oregon exhibit would include a complete showing of our products on that line, green, dried and preserved, with the facts as to the rapid growth of trees, case of cultivation and large yield per acre, Oregon might get an immigration of the prune growing population of France that would be valuable.
