Miners at Cape Nome Must Be Succeeded—The Richest Find Yet Discovered.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—General Shafter has sent to the war department a copy of the dispatch which he has received from Major P. H. Bay, dated at St. Michael, Aug 31st, as follows:

"I find at Avill and along the beach between 3000 and 2500 people who will be compelled to leave there before the close of navigation, owing to a lack of fuel and shelter. Unless people can get away there will be great suffering and probably some loss of life.

The Cape Nome district is proving to be one of the richest ever discovered and there are from 600 to 1000 men along the beach and they are taking out from $10 to $200 per day per man with hand rockers.

A dispatch from Victoria says that Li Hung Chang is in power and the empress of China is seriously ill. Her severe temporary illness, at first reported as due to poison, is later interpreted as a political expedient to checkmate the schemes of the rival factions at court, and to pave the way for the help of the Japanese government, in the person of Marquis Ito, under whom needed reforms are to be made.

Probably Suicide. Yesterday afternoon a man was found in the hayloft of a barn belonging to Mrs. H. Cooper. Mrs. Cooper and children had been in the hay fields picking hops and upon returning sent the children to hunt the eggs when they discovered the man. It was reported to the city marshal and was found that the man was dead instead of drunk as was reported. The remains had not been identified and are now in the hands of the undertaker, but it is known his name is Brown and the coroner will hold an inquest. An empty lantern bottle was found by his side and it is thought that he committed suicide.

ENGLAND MUST

Back Down or Fight the Boers. Oom Paul is Not to Be Bluffed.

Johnnie Bull Must Take Another Course.

By Associated Press to the Journal. LONDON, Sept. 20.—England's relations with the Transvaal remain unchanged and as far as the former is concerned the situation is not likely to take on a new phase until after the meeting of the cabinet on Friday. Whether the Boers will be content to wait that long, ending without their suspense with hostilities, depends upon circumstances. The morning Post contained a dispatch from Pietermaritzburg, Natal, dated September 19, saying:

"I never knew a situation to be graver. The Boers only await two days rain on the Veldt, before beginning hostilities. They are determined on war and consistency can expect nothing else after the last dispatch and are prepared to face the consequences."

Fell From the Hayloft. An accident happened to W. K. Winslow, of Astoria, last Monday at J. P. Hunt near Whiteaker. He was feeding the stock, when he fell through a manhole in the barn striking on the manger below. His face was badly bruised and his collar bone was broken. He was in an unconscious condition for an hour or more and when he came to his senses he went to a neighbor's who drove him to stayton and had his collar bone set and was made as comfortable as possible. Mr. Winslow was alone at the place, Mr. Hunt and family having gone to the fair. He was taken to his brother-in-law's house near Astoria where he will remain until he is able to go to work.

SALEM DAY. The Best Day of the State Fair is Today.

Salem Business Houses Closed and the People of the City Crowding to Grounds.

Salem day is, without a doubt the best day of this year's fair, both in point of attractions and of attendance.

The two-year-old trot, left over from Saturday, was the first on the afternoon's program and was started about 2 o'clock.

Time—2:48, 2:45, 2:41. About the middle of the afternoon the 2:24 pace was started. Eight horses started, Roy S. and Madaline G having been withdrawn.

A collision occurred between Alta Norte and Starkey, in the second heat but fortunately no great damage was done beyond a sprained ankle and some bruises sustained by Starkey's driver, Erwin, who was spilled out on the track.
