Salem is in the hands of the dissenters—the religious Populists in England.

Chaplain Gilbert opened the Oregon synod with a very fetching expansionist prayer.

Grover Cleveland has joined the national anti-expansion party. That makes 28 of those mugwumps.

There will hardly be a Pro-British party in this country unless it be the American anti-expansion league. And they ought to fight with the Boers on this issue.

Here's hoping Harvey Scott may never seriously encounter what he terms the most despicable of all influences—"the indignation of the common people."

When the city can put $3500 in the treasury and cause $100,000 to be spent here, it would be a mighty mean man who would block giving title to a block of Wilson avenue for a postoffice site.

President Kruger's nephew once asked him for a government job. Oom Paul told him kindly: "I can do nothing for you. For a subordinate position you are lacking in intelligence, and all the higher offices are filled." This has no application to Oregon officials who employ relatives.

The financial report of Linn county is at hand for the six months ending October 1. It shows: unpaid warrants none; interest accrued none; interest paid none; warrants drawn and unpaid none; total liabilities none; resources $63,986.25. So much for Populists, Democrats and Deborned Republicans.

The supreme court is agitated by a very ticklish question. There is a case before it of a man arrested for having in his possession and selling seven trout. He caught them in the state of Washington where it was lawful but sold them in Oregon where it was unlawful. Is he a criminal? As the trout were in original packages, not manufactured goods, they come under the interstate commerce act and Oregon has no jurisdiction without an act of congress conferring it. So says the supreme court. As the Oregon judges all love to catch and eat trout, they would prefer to discuss the front.

Lord Roseberry, the English Liberal leader, is a patriot before being a partisan. Although in support of a doubtful cause, he comes to the support of an administration to which he is politically opposed. He says:

"An ultimatum has been addressed to Great Britain by the South African republic which is itself a declaration of war. In the face of this attack upon the nation, the people will undoubtedly close their ranks and relegate party controversies to a more convenient sphere."

The Oregonian publishes the unlawful methods of raising Republican campaign funds in Ohio. But do they raise any such funds in a lawful manner? How do Mitchellism, McBrideism, Mark Hannaism, and Tom Tongueism flourish in Oregon but by such methods of corruption and bribery? Isn't the Oregonian waxing war on the whole works?

The New York state Democratic meeting was controlled by Richard Croker, and ex-Senator David B. Hill was turned down. A Bryan resolution was adopted, seconded by Croker and opposed by Hill. It was quite natural that New York Democrats should turn down a man of brains and elevate a boss.

The Illinois German Lutheran Conference resolves against life insurance because the money obtained is not the result of work, gift or inheritance. The money that is sent away from Oregon for insurance keeps one half of the community scratching to get it.

BRYAN ON NEW ISSUES.

He Does Not Favor the Withdrawal of Troops in the Philippines.

Hon. W. J. Bryan was interviewed at Des Moines, Iowa, on the political issues especially the Philippine question, saying:

"We are planning to make things lively in the campaign next year, and I think we will succeed better than in 1896. Former issues have changed somewhat, and new ones have come in which strengthen our position, and we will add many votes to our column. I do not deem it advisable or possible to state so far ahead, what issue will be chief in importance. Conditions and circumstances may change between then and now. Our issues of 1896, are just as important now as then; others have arisen since then, and may still command more attention."

As to the withdrawal of troops from the Philippines, Mr. Bryan dictated this statement:

"No, I don't favor the withdrawal of our troops. What I do believe and have repeatedly announced, is that we should at once declare our purpose in unequivocal terms, so positive that the Filipinos cannot doubt it, to grant them full and complete independence the moment they have established a stable government. I believe, if we should make such an announcement right now, the war would cease in very short time, and our troops could withdraw without laying down their arms in the face of an enemy. Furthermore, I believe if we had come out with such an announcement in the beginning, the war would never have occurred. I am not unaware that a few half-hearted efforts have been made in that direction from time to time, but they were made in such a way as to raise strong questions of their sincerity."

Mr. Bryan said that after a few more days in Iowa, he will go to Kentucky and thence to Ohio to close his campaign.

SALEMITES BILKED.

How the Advertising Fakir Continues to Get in His Work.

THE JOURNAL has many times warned the Salem business men against the wiles of the stranger in town who sucks them in for dollars on some flim-flam advertising dodge, but the sharper from abroad is bound to get in his work on them just about so often, but it's in a new form every time.

Yesterday a prominent merchant exhibited to a JOURNAL reporter a bunch of so-called "Souvenirs," and remarked with a smile of disgust, "Sucked in again!" What a sucker I am." He referred to a neat pamphlet gotton out, as the smooth solicitor claimed, "under authority of the Chamber of Commerce." (the Chamber of Commerce of course didn't prevent its publication. and the net result is the man who invests must pay for his ad, and then pay for circulating them. They are finally shoved under the counter, and very little good is accomplished. The true rule for busines people to adopt in reference to the advertising is to do it with home people, and in such a way as to get direct returns. The daily newspaper, which guards the city's interests all the year around and reaches the homes of the people who trade here, is the cheapest investment.

Our Salem merchant yesterday remarked with sense, "I'll never again be taken in by a foreign advertising solicitor." The newspaper works for your town and your trade while you sleep, and deserves your advertising business.

A splendid program is being carefully prepared, helpful speakers will be provided, and every worker benefited.

Primary, normal, home department and house to house visitation work will be thoroughly presented and practical help obtained.

The importance of this meeting, the low railroad fares, the warm welcome assured the delegates, should insure a large attendance, and Sunday school workers bearing proper credentials will receive free entertainment.

Delegates paying full fare over the Southern Pacific to Albany will be returned at one-third fare. But note carefully that in every case a receipt must be taken and countersigned at the convention. Tickets will be sold October 25 and 26, good to return on or before October 31.

The O. R. & N. Co. (rail lines) will sell tickets to Portland at one fare for the round trip, and tickets will be sold October 24 to 26, good to return on or before October 31.

It is expected that special cars will leave Portland for Albany at 8:30 a. m., October 26, and return from Albany at noon on October 28. Send names of all delegates to A. A. Morse, 334 Weider street, Portland, Or.

"A Breach of Promise,"

announced as the attraction at the opera house next Monday evening, is an entirely new creation and said to be one of the brightest musical farce comedies presented for some time. It was written solely to amuse and judging from the box office receipts, it is a most pronounced success. The plot of the piece centers around one Owen Gilligan, a wealthy real estate speculator, who, of matrimonial tendencies, makes the acquaintance of beautiful Daisy Fynes. It is a love at first sight, at least, on the part of Mr. Gilligan, and he immediately proposes marriage and is accepted. To his surprise and horror he later learns that the object of his affections is no other than the former wife of the late Mr. Grafton, and having a strong dislike to widows, attempts to repudiate the engagement. This is met with a strong protest on the part of the lady, and threatens to sue for A Breach of Promise. Gilligan consults a lawyer, the outcome of which is a conference between the widow and the attorney, who employs every effort to stop the suit, but to no avail. In the meantime Gilligan marries beautiful Rosie Murphy, and things get into a terrible tangle, but after innumerable laughable situations and bright specialties everything is straightened out satisfactorily and the curtain drops on one of the brightest of musical farce comedies.

Another Theatrical Attraction.

A new musical farce comedy, entitled "A Breach of Promise" has been added to this season's threatrical attractions, and will receive its initial local presentation at the opera house.

From advance reports, the production has scored a genuine success from both an artistic and financial standpoint, and will no doubt be well received here. It possesses many novel and pleasing features, with bright sparkling comedy and catchy music reigning supreme. The greatest attention has been given to even the smallest details in respect to an elaborate staging of the play, which is founded on a remarkably funny plot. The various roles are numerous specialities are rendered by an excellent company, prominent among whom are Joseph Harrington, Burt Haverly, Fred Seville, Nellie Sennett, Rosa Crouch and many other favorites. OLINGER and RIGDON

Undertakers and Embalmers.

We wish to announce to the general public that we have purchased the most elegant and magnificant funeral car, of latest design, and are therefore in a position to handle funerals in a much better manner than heretofore, and with less expense. We have long felt that Salem, being the capital city of a great state, should be up to date in the manner of handling funerals, and we have therefore spared no expense in purchasing the car. It was built by the James Cunningham Co., Rochester, New York, who build the finest vehicles in the United States. While this is not the most expensive funeral car ever built, still it is the finest ever shipped to Oregon.

We cordially invite all to inspect our facilities, and when necessity requires, to give us liberal patronage. OLINGER & RIGDON.

Passengers Going East

Generally desire to travel in comfortable cars and on a first-class road bed. This they can do by going east via that first-class and popular road, the Northern Pacific which runs daily vestibuled trains with first-class Pullman sleeping cars, tourist sleepers, through dining cars and day coaches and all of the highest grade. Passengers should not forget that they can save money by buying their tickets in Salem before they start instead of going to Portland to buy.

Anyone desiring to furnish west bound tickets to persons in the east can have the tickets telegraphed to passengers together with any money they may wish to furnish also, and in case the passengers do not desire to come the money will be refunded. This new train is in addition to the present Shasta Overland which leaves Portland at 7 p. m. and will give passengers the desired opportunity to see enroute the great Willamette, Umpqua and Sacramento valleys, without loss of time, and still arrive in Oakland and San Francisco at a seasonable hour. 10 11 3t d & w

PIANOS, ORGAN AND SEWING MACHINES.

As now is the time when many are thinking of buying pianos, organs and sewing machines, I take this method to remind you that you have with you an old dealer in these lines, who makes it a study to buy his goods so he can meet all advertised prices on the same goods. In the sewing machine line persons that come to my store and see what prices machines can be bought for, buy here. Others, I find, send, but not near so many as used to do, because so many salesmen they talk to charge so much more than they can get them by sending for them. I have in stock high arm, self-threading shuttle, all attachments, 4-drawer, oak table, sewing machines for $15 to $18.50. You do not take any risk sending or depositing your cash. You can see the machine and sew on it before you pay for it. Figure your prices advertised and freight and you will see I am from $1 to $2.50 cheaper than those prices. One example: My gain on shipping a single piano—I have now on the road a car of pianos, unboxed packed in a car, at the rate of $1.50 a hundred; price of box, $2 at the factory; weight of box averages 250 pounds, at $4 a hundred is $10; weight of piano in box 600 pounds, at $4, makes $24. At the rate of $1.60 makes $9.60 -a difference on the piano in box of $14.40 making a total difference of $2 plus $10 plus $14.40 or $26.40 I save no each piano. A very fair profit on each piano and a large saving on a carload.

I could fill this entire paper full of names of parties that have bought either a piano, organ or sewing machine from me. I will give you the names of six only viz: Prof. W. C. Hawley, Geo. H. Myer, Dr. W. H. Byrd, Father P. Placitus, of Mt. Angel, Sol Durbin and Mrs. C. H. Hinges. From these professional men and ladies who are good judges, you have evidence that they found my stock as good and as cheap or cheaper than any other place.

As these people have found it to their advantage to buy from me, will not you also?

In short, I buy and sell my goods as cheap and cheaper than any outside manufacturer or dealer can possibly lay down a single shipment of a piano, organ or sewing machine.

Crossing the Rockies.

The most delightful ride across the continent is through Utah and Colorado, over what is known as "The Scenic Route of the World." It matters not at what season of the year the trip is made, at no time does the scenery grow monotonous. It is an ever changing panorama of the beauties of nature. One moment you are passing through gorges walled in by rocks thousands of feet high, and the next you are above the snow line, skirting peaks that tower above you until they seem almost to reach the sky. One of the characteristics of the Colorado climate is that the extremes of temperature are never met with. It is neither so cold in winter nor warm in summer, as upon the lines of railway which cross the deserts and plains. The traveler over the Rio Grande Western also has the privilege of a stopover, if he so elects at Salt Lake City, or anywhere beween Ogden and Denver, on all classes of tickets.

The same rates prevailed whether the trip is made via Huntington or San Francisco The passenger has his choice of two routes out of Portland, three through Colorado, and four east thereof. No other line out of Portland can offer such a variety of routes. In addition, a day's stopover is given all passengers at any point in Utah or Colorado. Through pullman and tourist sleeping cars are run on all trains, as well as free reclining chair cars. The service and accommodations offered are equal, if not superior to those of any trans-continental road, and rates are always as low as the lowest.

Burlington Route

You Can Get a Lower Berth.

With one exception the through trains of the Burlington Route are almost invariably well-filled. The exception is our St. Paul-Chicago Limited. On the limited there is usually room and to spare.

Don't infer that it is neither so fine, nor so fast, as ANY train of ANY other line between St. Paul and Chicago. On the contrary, there is no more beautiful train in America. It has electric light, steam heat, wide vestibules the most satisfactory dining-car service on the continent—and lower berth for everybody.

Scrofula, a Vile Inheritance.

Scrofula is the most obstinate of blood troubles, and is often the result of an inherited taint in the blood. S. S. S. is the only remedy which goes deep enough to reach Scrofula; it forces out every trace of the disease, and cures the worst cases.

My son, Charlie, was afflicted from infancy with Scrofula, and he suffered so that it was impossible to dress him for three years. His head and body were a mass of sores, and his eyesight also became affected. No treatment was spared that we thought would relieve him, but he grew worse until his condition was indeed pitiable. I had almost despaired of his ever being cured, when by the advice of a friend we gave him S. S. S. (Swift's Specific). A decided improvement was the result, and after he had taken a dozen bottles, no one who knew of his former dreadful condition would have recognized him. All the sores on his body have healed, his skin is perfectly clear and smooth, and he has been restored to perfect health.

For real blood troubles it is a waste of time to expect a cure from the doctors. Blood diseases are beyond their skill. Swift's Specific, reaches all deep-seated cases which other remedies have no effect upon. It is the only blood remedy guaranteed purely vegetable, and contains no potash, mercury, or other mineral.
