WHO THEY ARE.

Who Hold Some of the Fat Places on the Asylum Payroll.

Inside Information About Top Heavy Officialism in Oregon.

In this issue will be found a list of the 100 persons employed by the present state administration at the asylum for insane.

It is safe to say no such number of persons are employed to care for an equal number of patients in any other institution in the world.

Asylums in other states are made more nearly self-sustaining by employment of patients in industrial occupations. In Oregon the principal industry seems to be to employ as many tax-payers as possible at the expense of the tax-payers.

The Oregon asylum management has become an immense political machine. The payrolls are filled with political workers, and appointees who hold their places through the political pull and who are constantly advanced over the heads of the most competent and meritorious employees and accorded privileges because they are a favored class.

Twenty farmer employes are on the payroll to handle in all 600 acres of land, with almost unlimited assistance from patients. No such number of salaried people can be kept by any Oregon farmer.

Supt. Paine is the man placed at the head of the institution by the Lord administration. He is said to have sold out his benefactors politically in several ways before his term expired.

Drs. W. T. Williamson, L. F. Griffith and W. D. McNary are the three assistant physicians, and have all served many years. They are gentlemen of standing, and are not known to have relatives on the pay-rolls of the institution.

G. W. Handsaker, the steward, is Paine's confidential operator on the outside. He is a Eugene gentleman of good business ability, and has the reputation of being able to drive a close bargain, which it is presumed he uses constantly in the interest of the dear people. During the two years following the "holding-up" session one of his important occupations consisted in buying and shaving state warrants. But for whom, is not known.

W. H. Smith, the commissary, is also a Lane county man, who is said to hold a heavy political club over the superintendent.

W. T. Eakin, the supervisor, is a Eugene man who is well known and connected with one of the most honorable families in Oregon. He never fully enjoyed being a party to the $3,000 campaign graft.

Arthur, Estler and Myrtle Williams are three of the old time attendants, who have served under several administrations. They are relatives of George and Dick Williams, of Portland.

R. R. Goodin, "deputy supervisor and assistant book keeper," is the first man to hold down that job. It is the office was created for his benefit because he is a brother-in-law of Tom Tongue, the Mitchell push congressman. He is so valuable a man to the gang that he draws down 25 per cent. more salary as deputy supervisor than the supervisor himself who does all the work. This extortionate salary for the fifth wheel on a wagon is paying off old debts of the push in Washington county, running back several years.

Robt. Garrison is a competent Eugene man who holds down the job of hackman, more properly man-servant and coachman under this administration, by virtue of his pull in the A. P. A.

Miss Carrie Paine is the accomplished daughter of the superintendent, and was appointed "temporarily" early in her father's term of office.

C. D. Idleman is a brother of the late Attorney-General Cicero Marcus Idleman, and is said to be very efficient in the handling of inmates.

R. M. Gilbert is a nephew of ex-Prison Superintendent A. N. Gilbert.

Jimmy Hammond is a step-son of A. Rankin, of Eugene. He is an amateur actor, and is said to play well his part in the serious farce of consuming the mammoth asylum appropriation.

G. W. Staley of Roseburg, is the man who was appointed to R. F. Giltner's place in Secretary Dunbar's office. But when it was found that no one but a member of the McBride family can copy articles into a book, he was dropped from that $75 job to a $27.50 one.

E. C. Judd is a son of "Farmer Judd" of Amusville. He is physically one of the ablest men, and is especially useful in capturing escaped patients.

Rex Davis is a son of G. W. Davis, late clerk of the state school land board, late chairman of the Marion county Republican committee, and late candidate for school director.

J. H. McCourt is a son of Jas. McCourt, Lincoln school janitor, a brother of Representative John McCourt, who is assistant attorney-general. He has held his position since the ascendancy of "Baby" McCourt in Marion county politics.

Chas. Henderson is a member of the noted Henderson family of Lane county, a brother of E. K. Henderson and late Verne Henderson, who was a candidate for book keeper of the Asylum.

G. A. Fletcher is a son of Editor Fletcher of the Independent.

W. M. Bieson and Wallis J. Bieson are near relatives of the late Phil Metcalan.

Mrs. M. A. Porter is from Linn county and all her people are rank Democrats, but the fact could not be recognized in raising a Republican campaign fund. She is one of the best nurses in the hospital.

Miss Lena Biers is the daughter of Nick Biers of this city and is one of Salem's social leaders who has worked her way to the top on her wad.

Alice Hemenway is a member of the numerous family of that name in Lane county. Her father, Volney Hemenway, is prominent in local politics, and she is a sister-in-law of Young Kuykendall, the assistant druggist at the asylum.

Sarah Gerows is a sister of ex-Senator Gesner, and is known in Salem as a popular boarding house keeper.

Phil Miller is the Eugene butcher who is supposed to have bought the bull beef out of which Supt. Paine is said to have made a fine "steak."

M. Putman is from Polk county, a brother of Wilson and James B. Putman.

Wm. G. White was a corporal in Co. C, appointed soon after his return from Manila.

Arthur and Leon Girod are two hard working young men from French Prairie.

Mrs. M. B. Cook, matron at the cottage farm, is a daughter of Gov. Geer, and her husband, W. H. Cook, is supervisor, they having superseded Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Abrams, of Eugene.

T. C. Hogan, the veteran tailor, has served under several administrations, and is a Salem man.

W. A. Kuykendall is a son of Senator Kuykendall, who is Dr. Paine's business partner in Eugene.

Mrs. Frankie Cornell is a sister of the Looney Brothers, of Jefferson, and received credit for great skill in the business-like manner in which she collected the famous 1898 campaign fund from the lady employes of the lunghouse.

H. A. S. Magnan, is a brother of the late rector of the Episcopal church at Salem. It is said he was promised his place before he left his native country, and served a long time before he was naturalized.

L. F. E. Morelock is a young man who recently came from Illinois.

L. L. Shaw, is a son of W. A. Shaw, the former real estate man, who now resides at Portland.

The position of assistant engineer is said to have been created under Dr. Paine's regime, and is now occupied by Joseph Neagle, a friend of his from the State of Washington at $75 a month.

Carl Poppa, the expert German clarinetist, is a former employe at the Napa, Cal., asylum.

Thos. Potts and G. V. Boggs are also California asylum employes.

M. Quinn is an Indian war veteran, and is the man many supposed they were voting for when they cast their ballots for the Portland laundry driver when that gentleman was a candidate for congress.

J. F. Graham is a graduate from the New York Board of Lunacy, and is a competent man. Certificates from similar boards, however, are seldom recognized at our asylum. Their holders probably know too much.

J. H. Daniels, farmer at the cottage, and Mrs. Daniels are from Scio, and the latter is a sister of Ex-Senator Johnson, of Linn county.

He Succeeds Who Has Success.

To have success one must plan and meet conditions. Hobson the dry goods dealer anticipated present conditions. He believed the people would have more earnings to spend, consequently he bought and has on view a greater variety and a large stock of staple and fancy dry goods. Mr. Hobson has been successful in making sales to all who have patronized him. His past success encourages him to believe that if you and others who want a nice garment to make you comfortable this cool weather will come in and examine the stock which, include ladies' suits, ladies' capes and jackets, boys' and youths' clothing, he will be able to supply you with the article that will give you satisfaction.

SYNOD

Third Day's Proceedings at the Presbyterian Church.

Routine Business and Announcement of Standing Committees for Ensuing Term—Sunday's Assignments.

The members of the synod are a very pleasant and intelligent lot of men, and they seem to greatly enjoy this season of meeting and communion. They have a little fun with each other as they go along, and Friday evening they were quite playful, especially when the temperance question was under discussion.

FRIDAY'S ROUTINE.

The committee on temperance submitted a report, dealing at length with the liquor traffic and its influences. The committee recommended: "First—That churches observe temperance day with appropriate exercises in compliance with the recommendation of the general assembly. Second—That this synod hereby asserts and declares its confidence in the maxim laid down by the supreme court of the United States that the saloon has no natural or moral right to exist, and that therefore, it becomes the duty of every Christian to strive to secure such legal enactments as shall effectually suppress the saloon and all such traffic in liquors as lead to the establishing of such vile places of resort."

The matter of the "Occident" was referred to a special committee consisting of Revs. Robert McLean, H. A. Ketchum, R. M. Hayes, W. S. Gilbert, and F. G. Strange.

Rev. W. S. Holt, synodical missionary for the state, submitted his annual report which was a record of his work for the past year. The following is a summary of the year's work: Ministers introduced 9 churches organized 3, members received 98, children baptized 15, Sabbath schools organized 11, meetings held 187, money raised $2,064.25, miles traveled 25,672. Rev. Holt was re-elected synodical missionary for the ensuing year and the synod commended him for his zeal and fidelity in the work.

Rev. E. J. Thompson, Rev. G. A. McKinley and Elder O. P. S. Plummer, were constituted a committee to draft a set of resolutions upon the death of Rev. John Morrison, the deceased moderator of the synod.

The evening session was devoted to Home Missions. The meeting was largely attended, presided over by Rev. Thomas Boyd, of Portland, and two very able addresses were delivered by Rev. Charles H. Little, of Tacoma, Washington, and Rev. W. S. Holt, of Portland, Synodical Missionary of Oregon.

Rev. A. S. Foster, of Myrtle Point, the moderator, announced his standing committees, as follows:

Bills and Overcharges.—Rev. R. M. Hayes, Rev. W. B. Lee, Elder E. A. Adams.

Judicial Business.—Rev. Robert Ennis, Rev. D. M. Davenport, Elder A. E. Donaldson.

Minutes of General Assembly.—Rev. J. C. Templeton, Rev. W. T. Scott, Elder Hellwell.

On Finance.—Elders John Moir, R. P. Nell, J. G. Stevenson.

On Resolutions.—Rev. W. A. Smick, Rev. Wm. Clyde, Elder P. D. Flint.

On Records of Presbyteries, 1. Eastern Oregon—Rev. J. E. Blair, Rev. E. M. St. Pierre, Elder S. Condit. 2. Portland Presbytery—Rev. F. Forbes, Rev. W. S. Gilbert, Elder J. W. Hall. 3. Southern Oregon—Rev. H. L. Reed, Rev. Henry Marcotte, Elder O. W. Axtell. 4. Willamette—Rev. J. E. Snyder, Rev. Wm. Steele, Elder P. Eneadick.

The program for this morning's meeting was carried out as published except that the nomination of committees, which was set for 10 o'clock was crowded out and took place in the afternoon.

At 12 o'clock was taken until 2 o'clock, and the members adjourned to the parlors of the church where tables were spread for lunch. Before they were allowed to attack the tempting display, however, they were instructed to look pleasant, and were photographed.

The committees to serve three years are made up as follows:

Home Missions: E. P. Hill, D. D., R. M. Hayes, F. G. Strange, E. J. Thompson, D. D.

Foreign Missions: H. A. Ketchum D. D., Robt. McLean, Geo. Gillespie, W. H. Blockley.

Education: D. M. Davenport D. D., Alex. Foster, Wm. B. Lee, D. D., F. L. Forbes.

Church Extension: J. E. Snyder, Jno.
