Boys' Heavy Ribbed Underwear

Good quality, fleece lined, finished like a 75c garment. 35c each

Men's Underwear

This department is growing in popularity every day. It's the un-estimated values that does it. Our wool garments at $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50 are hummers. Our fine French ribbed unders at $2.50 per garment and Stutzinger Sanitary wear at $3.50 each are extra fine. We are leaders in fine goods, having men's silk wear up to $10.00 per garment. Also cotton ones from 38c up. Visit this department.

BUILDING AND LOAN ASSN.

Will Sell All Its Real Estate Saturday Dec. 9.

The best opportunity ever offered for the purchase of homes in Salem is the sale of all the real estate of the Salem Building & Loan Association which will be held on Sat. Dec. 9. The association has, during the hard times, acquired some dozen or more good homes of medium size and all of them are to be sold to the highest bidder, with terms of one-fourth down, balance at 6 per cent int. In the list are houses and lots in choice locations in Salem and in the several suburbs of the city and without doubt any piece bought at this sale will double its value in short time. 11 24 & 25

The Hop Problem.

The board of directors of the Oregon Hopgrowers' Association concluded their special meeting at the Willamette hotel Thursday afternoon. It is understood that as a result of the meeting, which was held behind closed doors, negotiations have been opened by which the association can dispose of 25,000 bales. The firm with which negotiations are in progress, it is reported, says by the deal it can stimulate the market price of hops at least 2 cents. The association realizes that they have to cope with a powerful syndicate of brewers and hopbuyers.

"Brown's in Town."

The first performance in this city of the latest farce, "Brown's in Town" will occur at the opera house tomorrow night. "Brown's in Town" is said to be one of the clearest farces on the boards. It involves no shady characters and its personnel includes no invasions into questionable flats or off-colored hotels which of late years have furnished the reason for being in most farces.

Interest Growing.

Much interest is now being taken in the mask ball at the Boss, Thursday evening, which is given under the management of the Modern Woodmen of America. Spectators will scramble for seats, but there will be plenty of room for all.

Native Daughters.

Preliminary arrangements for forming a cabin of the Native Daughters of Oregon in Salem were taken last night at the city recorder's office, where a meeting of those interested was held. The cabin, it was agreed, would be fully instituted today.

Elk's Memorial.

The memorial exercises of the lodge of Elks, which will be held Sunday, December 3, promises to be the most interesting ever held in Salem. John M. Gearin, of Portland, will make the principal address. F. D'Arcy, of the local lodge, will conduct the ritual work and make a few introductory remarks. The program also includes musical selections by local musicians, and the Elks orchestra.

Salem Manufacture.

Gardner & White, the Liberty street bicycle firm have built a $100 chair tricycle for W. G. Stanton of North Salem that is a great improvement on locomotion for crippled people. It weighs little more than a common roadwheel, has a 20 inch wheel in front, and 28 inch wheels behind, fitted with pneumatic tires. The power is applied by a crank turned by hand and Mr. Stanton enjoys his increased liberty very much.

BATTLE OF BELMONT.

Concluded from First Page.

charge, after its defenders had been shaken with shrapnel.

Nothing is said as to whether the positions so gained were held, and the destruction of ammunition seems to indicate that the contrary was the case. While General Methuen can be congratulated upon his brilliant victory it is again at the cost of a heavy loss of officers and men.

The situation in Natal remains obscure. Fighting is reported at both Ectourt and Ladysmith. What is quite certain is that Ladysmith, Ectourt and the Mooi River station are all isolated, and the Boers seem able, after detaching enough troops to hold the British forces, aggregating 17,000, to push on toward Pietermaritzburg with some 7,000 men.

The disquieting feature of the whole campaign is the fact that all the advancing general staff meeting Boers in force. General Gatacre's report, that the Dutch are rising, increases the public anxiety.

Late last evening it was asserted at Aldershot, that the sixth division, now in the process of mobilization, will actually be required for active service.
