lection; and one night policeman in probably all the ward heeleders want on election day.

A dozen of Salem's best Republicans have been asked to run for councilman on the push ticket, but so far no one has been found who will have anything to do with it.

The Push organ says our present council is all right, -- but. It says our fire department is all right. It also says we have plenty of police protection, -- but, it has altogether too much.

Dan Tarpley and "J. W. Smith & 47" are still rounding up candidates in the name of the Push, but for some unknown reason nobody wants a nomination from that source this year.

The Push objects to another policeman. Next they will object to an engine driver for the fire department. Their piety, virtue and economy has been made to order too quickly altogether.

LODGE DOINGS

Last Evening a Cabin of Native Daughters Was Instituted.

Various Other Lodges Elected Officers and Had Good Times in General.

Last evening a Cabin of Native Daughters was instituted in Salem. The initiative took place in the Turner block, in the hall occupied by the Native Sons. A charter list of about 100 members will start this order off in fine shape.

The hall was beautifully decorated and festooned with evergreens, which helped make a cheerful evening for those initiated. The ceremonies were beautifully and impressively conducted by Mrs. Edyth Weathered, of Portland, the Secretary of the Grand Cabin, being assisted by Mrs. Olive S. England and Mrs. Judge C. E. Wolverton, officers of the Grand Cabin.

The name chosen for the cabin was Elizabeth Thurston-Odell, a woman well known here. The following officers were chosen: Past president, Mrs. Olive Stanton England. President, Miss Margaret J. Cooper. First vice president, Mrs. Nellie Riely Pearce. Second vice president, Mrs. Ella Chadwick Gray. Third vice president, Mrs. Abbie Hatch Farrar.

Recording secretary, Mrs. Mary Woodruff Pearson. Financial secretary, Mrs. Emilie Giesey Hendricks. Treasurer, Mrs. Esther Hall McNary. Marshal, Miss Edna Price.

Inside sentinel, Miss Evelyn Royal. Outside sentinel, Mrs. Amanda Richardson Judson. Priestess, Miss Maud Geer. Trustees: Mrs. Nellie Hall Gray.

fall upon each other in unexpected spots. The Boers have repeatedly struck the British with large numbers who were small forces thought to be, and the ease with which the British troops evacuate towns surrounded by the Boer armies indicates that the latter are a s'pey and unguarded.

Roseburg Review: The evening is coming to be more and more the paper of the family and the main reliance, on the one hand, of busy men and busy women, and on the other hand the best device for means of bringing to the attention of the buying public the wares and the prices which the men of trade have to offer.

The state Journal, which is edited by ex-secretary of state, H. R. Kincaid, one of the old-fashioned Lincoln Republicans, says that the professed friends of Senator McBride "prefer Mitchell, or Hermann, or almost anybody other than the present incumbent. At present they are actively hounding Hermann." Hermann was Senator Alley's dummy candidate to down Dolph and let in McBride.

The howl about an inefficient fire department comes with poor grace from a crowd who were at the helm when the big wooden mill burned, when the Oregon House burned, when the State street ice works burned, when the Salomon Iron works were gutted, when Gilbert & Patterson's and Branson's stores were gutted. Just take a look at your own record and then howl.

Native Songs of Oregon. Dan Waldo Cabin No. 3. N. S. O. will meet on Monday evening, Nov. 27, 1899, at 7:30 o'clock, in the Foresters hall in the Turner block, at which time all who have been elected to membership in the Cabin will please be present for initiation. Members are requested to be present at this meeting as business of importance will occupy the attention of the Cabin.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS. Salem Camp No. 118 P. J. W. met last night in regular session. The following were elected for the term beginning January 1, 1900. Consul commander, F. X. Bouillard; adviser lieutenant, P. D. Prunty; banker, T. W. Achosso; clerk, W. A. Moores, re-elected; escort, O. L. Darling; watchman, Benjamin Morris; s'entry, W. W. Zinn; manager 18 months, A. J. Basy. All the officers were chosen by unanimous vote of the camp.

FORESTERS. The Foresters of America had a pleasant social meeting last evening. They have issued invitations for a social dancing party to occur on Friday evening, December 1, at their hall in Turner block.

MACABREES ENTERTAIN. At their hall in the Turner block Friday evening the Macabrees entertained themselves and a large number of invited friends. There was a fine program of recitations and vocal and instrumental music. J. W. Sherwood, deputy supreme commander for Oregon, gave an address, setting forth the advantages of fraternal orders, and the Macabrees in particular.

C. M. Lockwood furnished a very unique and pleasing feature of the program in his new Edison Concert Grand Phonograph. This is the first time a Salem audience has been enabled to listen to this new machine, which is immeasurably superior to the common phonograph, and all were enthusiastic over its performance.
