MAGNIFICENT ATTACK GREAT NEWS FROM OTIS

Of General Methuen at Modder River Was Repulsed By the Dutch Aginaldo's Body Guard Has Been Destroyed or Captured

With Terrible Loss to the British // He Had to Face 12,000 His Generals Are Dead or Prisoners // Large Numbers of Spanish Prisoner Let Loose and Immense Captures of Arms and Supplies // Whole Provinces Surrender to the Americans // The Insurrection Being Rapidly Broken Down By Our Forces

A Second Battle.
By Associated Press to the Journal. LONDON, Dec. 13.—The war office has received the following from General Methuen:
"My artillery shelled a strong position held by the enemy from four until dusk Sunday. The Highland brigade attacked at day break on Monday at the south end of a kopje.
The attack was properly timed but failed. Guards were ordered to protect the highlanders' right and rear. With cavalry and mounted infantry, with a howitzer battery, we attacked them on left, and with the Guards on the right, supported by field artillery and a howitzer.
At 1:15 I sent the Gordons to the entrenchments until dusk, the position extending for six miles to the Modder river. Today I am holding the position and intrenching. I had to face 12,000 men. Our loss was great."

Disaffection in Cape Colony.

There are renewed reports of a cabinet crisis at Cape Town, where it is said that Governor Milner is about to act in consequence of disclosures involving the ministry's loyalty.

Great News From Otis.
By Associated Press to the Journal. WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—General Otis had some stirring news to report today. His cablegrams are as follows: "Manila—Fifty men of the navy and fifty men of the army took Laoga on the 10th instant. Young's extreme northern force has passed over the mountains, driving the insurgents under General Tino, who was badly wounded, killing 30 and wounding many.
He made large captures of rifles and property, with all the insurgent transportation and released all Spanish prisoners in that section to the number of 2,000. Our casualties are two wounded, our troops pursuing the remnant of Tino's command.
Marsh's battalion destroyed Aginaldo's body guard, killed General Gregorio Pilar, received the surrender of General Concepcion and his staff, and killed and wounded 82 insurgents, and released 577 Spanish prisoners, including 180 friars and captured considerable property. His loss was two killed and nine wounded. My information is that Aginaldo has abandoned his troops in the province of Benguet.
A second dispatch is as follows: "Manila—Admiral Watson informs me that the province of Cayan has surrendered unconditionally to Captain Mac Calla on the 11th inst. Mac Arthur at Bayambang reports that he holds as prisoner Mabini, the ablest of the insurgents and founder of the late government."

Forecasted As the National Republican Ticket for 1900.
By Associated Press to the Journal. CLEVELAND, Dec. 13.—A Washington dispatch to the Leader says: In the light of the information gathered from contact with leaders in politics, it may be stated almost without qualification that the Republican ticket next year will be McKinley and Root.
The sentiment in favor of Elhu Root has assumed proportions which practically insure him being given the second place on the ticket.

A Supposed Jones.
Mysterious Partner of an Indian Saved From a Watery Grave.
Was Too Full of Bug Juice and the Willamette Was Robbed of Another Victim.
Early this morning parties living near the river bank, in the vicinity of Bentley & Co's, woodpile near the steel bridge, were disturbed by cries for help from the direction of the river, but seeming to come from the other side.
Ed Crossan, living across the river, also heard them before he left home to come over to his work. As he crossed the bridge he discovered that the cries came from the river bank above the bridge.
By this time Jake Mitchell, of the flouring mill, had also commenced an investigation and with a lantern the two men located the individual who so urgently desired assistance. He was standing in the water where the bank was about 16 feet high, unable to get out.
A rope was lowered and he was hoisted to level ground.
Close by, at the foot of a tree a campfire was burning, and an Indian was peacefully sleeping. The water-soaked party immediately went for the Indian demanding to know why he hadn't helped him; but the Indian replied that he didn't have no rope.
It seems that the pair were "partners" and has been camping out, and probably indulging in strong waters, and the white man had inadvertently walked over the bluff.
He was left drying himself by the campfire. Later the Indian was seen looking for his partner who, he said, had robbed him of all his money, $5.

Big Lot Wounded.
ORANGE RIVER, Dec. 13.—Three hundred and twenty British wounded, including 27 officers, have arrived from Modder river.
Was a Big Battle.
LONDON, Dec. 13.—General Methuen, as expected, followed up his artillery attack with a general assault on the Boer position Monday, and his report shows that the anxiety of the public regarding the result is amply justified.
The engagement was evidently of considerable magnitude, and the list of killed and wounded will be proportionate, without the compensation of a victory and perhaps a more serious defeat than Methuen admits.
Result Disheartening.
The only compensation the British will be able to discover in the disheartening story, is in Methuen's statement that he maintains his position, arousing the hope that he will retrieve the situation.
Considerable significance attaches to Methuen's statement that he is entreaching himself, indicating the fear that the Boers may adopt the offensive and attack him. The gravity of the situation.
