CATHOLICS IN THE TRANSVAAL

The charge has been made that Catholics are barred from office in the Transvaal. The Star, a Catholic paper published in San Francisco, says:

"A sample of the persistent lying of the jingo press of both continents is the repeated statement that the Boers are very bigoted and intolerant, especially toward the Catholics. The lie derives plausibility from the circumstance that the Boers are largely descended from the French Huguenots, and that their Dutch ancestry also were zealous Protestants. The Monitor has well answered this charge of intolerance by giving the following list of Transvaal officials who are Catholics: Dr. Leyds, European agent of the Republic; Dr. Farrelly government adviser on international law; Mr. Hogan, secretary of the commandant general; Chevalier O'Donoghue, vice chairman of the Johannesburg corporation. One-fourth of the members of the Transvaal civil service are Catholics, and the Catholic church and the convent in Pretoria are built on ground presented by the Transvaal government. The fact is, that the Boers have established and maintained absolute religious liberty and equality."

POSTAL SAVINGS BANKS.

Congressman Lorimer of Illinois has again introduced a bill providing for the establishment of postal savings banks. Mr. Lorimer offered a similar bill at the last session and it was supported by a half million of petitioners.

The arguments in favor of postal savings banks have been well put and have not been successfully answered. Every civilized country, has the system in some form. It was established in Hawaii when we acquired the island and was abolished because the system did not prevail in this country.

JOURNAL X-RAYS.

Probably Mrs. Lawton will know enough to keep the home—Oregonian.

Why are teacher's meetings like horse races? Because they never begin on time.

Oregon volunteers are good fellows, but somehow there aren't many jobs for them.

That was a hot Christmas in South Africa—102 in the shade, to say nothing of the burning powder.

It seems that football, the great intellectual game and modern civilization, is being entirely overlooked by the state teachers' meetings.

A humble little cow that can produce her weight in golden butter every year outranks even a member of the Oregon legislature as a producer of good.

Senator Mitchell says "Senator McBride wishes to succeed himself, I am informed." That is very unexpected news!

The antiquated school books, of the Oregon public schools, are a hot subject, but they seem to give the state aggregation of pedagogs cold feet.

Salem merchants and their stocks rank with the best in Oregon or the Pacific coast, and are entitled to the liberal patronage of Salem people.

The Oregonian is still telling about the great prosperity, but the Portland Y. M. C. A. officers say there are more idle young men in that city than in four years past.

Salem people who use glasses should beware of transient "medicine men," medics, fakirs. We have responsible opticians who are entitled to your respect and patronage.

And now it turns out that the great "industrial property" requires so much money that it's breaking banks galore, and may cause a panic. It's funny how unexpectedly prosperity works.

The Sacramento Bee says California teachers favor taking the public schools out of politics. Here in Oregon many teachers and others would like to see the politicians taken out of our schools.

Yaquina Bay News: We wonder if the wage-raising epidemic prevalent throughout New England had anything to do with the postponement of Mr. Bryan's contemplated trip to that section.

And thousands wonder if Mr. Bryan's contemplated trip to that section had anything to do with the alleged wage-raising epidemic.

If the gold flow to Europe goes on at its present rate for a few months, Republican leaders now wrangling over the question, who wrote the gold plank in the platform, may become more modest in their claims. They may be willing to let the other fellow have the honor.

There is considerable excitement among Republican politicians as to who will be nominated for vice president with McKinley next year. Since the Republicans have abandoned their own platform, and are seeking to carry out the platform of the Clevelandites, we would suggest that it would be only fair to give the position to either Governor Cleveland or John M. Palmer—National Watchman.

In view of the presence of the teachers' association, the following from the Sacramento Bee in regard to the meeting of the California association may be of interest.

At these meetings larger questions than those of general pedagogy will be taken up. One of the most interesting of these will deal with personal and political interference with school methods. The members of the Association are of the opinion that the schools should be taken out of politics, and that this question may be fully discussed, many who are not teachers have accepted invitations to be present and talk on the question. Among these are Frank H. Sloop, of Fresno; George C. Pardee, of Oakland, and R. M. Shackelford, of Paso Robles. Others who will take part are David Starr Jordan, president of the Leland Stanford University, and Benjamin De Wheeler, president of the University of California.

Put off, put off your mail, O kings,
And bear your hands to dust!
Linger, linger, hands must learn a surer grasp,
Or hoarse a better trust.

by the spirit and back the lance's point,
And break the helmet's crest,
For, these are days in the morning wind,
And the note of war.

They come! They come! How fair their
They come who publish peace.
And victory, fair victory,
Our enemies are ours!
For all the clouds are clasped in light
And all the earth with flowers.
Aye, still depressed and dim with dew,
Sold by Druggists, etc.
And ever tender, living thing
Nor lamb shall from the flock be lost,
Nor nursing from the nest.
