FUR AND PLUSH CAPES AND COLLARETTES,
reduced from $1.00 to $6.00 on each garment. These goods were made for us by America's leading manufacturers. Special quality linings and workmanship mark each garment. All furs were carefully selected and matched and made of as few pieces as possible. These points distinguish the "made to order" garments from the cheaply made, poorly lined, many pieced kinds with which the country is flooded. You know the reputation of this store for fine furs, so take advantage of this sale.

VALLEY TOWNS INVITED

To Join Salem in Sending an Immigration Agent East.

Secretary Thielson of the Salem Chamber of Commerce was busy yesterday preparing letters to the boards of trade or representative commercial bodies of the valley towns asking their co-operation in an effort to send out some competent man to travel through the middle western states and lay before the people there the advantages of this section.

It is proposed to provide for a four months engagement at first, and it is estimated that the expense will be about $200 per month, exclusive of R. R. fares, which latter will be provided for by the Salem Chamber.

It is suggested that each town contribute in proportion to its population, and when the requisite sum of $800 has been raised, a meeting may be held, a man selected to go, and all details arranged.

The secretary's letter says: "We propose that every city and town subscribing, shall be requested to prepare a statement as to its needs in the way of manufacturers, etc., and any inducements or advantages it may have to offer to secure the same, and that the agent shall endeavor to procure what ever may be thus desired; we propose further, that every land owner in Marion and Polk counties who has any land to sell, shall be invited to send a full description of the same, together with prices and terms, upon suitable blanks which we will provide for that purpose, so that our agent may be able to show the intending settler just what he can find when he arrives here.

It is self evident that if this part of Oregon wishes to get its share of immigration, it must make some effort in that direction. Probably worked out, the plan of traveling through the state from which our immigration comes, and spreading information about this state and the opportunities offered here is a good one.

It is hoped that the appeal to our sister towns to join us in a movement in which we are all interested will meet a hearty response.

The Boers bunched Buller.

Let Salem strive for one more good manufacturing concern this year.

Trade in Salem is keeping up remarkably well for January, say the leading merchants.

Just at present the Boers seem to be doing the fighting, while the British are sending out the news.

The chances for official promotion in the British army seem to be on the increase over there in "Boerdom."

Somebody has suggested that Rudyard Kipling raise a regiment of Rough Writers for the South African campaign.

The cabinet has decided that at White House receptions Gen. Miles is to precede Admiral Dewey. Now, on with the dance!

There seems to be at least one college president in Oregon who can open his mouth without putting his foot in it. He lives at Eugene.

When each of the fourteen hundred Philippine Islands is supplied with a governor it is hoped there will be enough offices to go 'round.

Corvallis Union-Gazette: General Buller has demolished the footbridge at Coleno. Isn't this a new wrinkle for a general to destroy the bridges in front of him?

Two new cabinet positions are demanded by the McKinley administration—Secretary of Commerce and secretary of mining. That would add acres of salaries to the circulating medium, anyway.

Very much is said about some corporations having raised the wages of their employees 10 per cent, but little is said about the greater increase in the price of everything the employee is forced to buy. A ten per cent increase in wages and an increase of from 20 to 100 per cent is what one is forced to buy with his wages, but it is a big increase in the receipts of his employer.—Times Mountaineer.

SOME HOT SHOT

Recently Originated or Stolen by the Bright Albany Democrat.

Wall street thinks that it has a good thing in Secretary Gage.

The house will be lucky if it can recognize the gold standard bill when the senate gets through with it.

The Republicans say that the Democrats have no issue for next year. Wrong! If they had nothing else, Mark Hanna alone would be sufficient.

How much better off has this prosperity made the laboring man with his wages raised 10 per cent and the price of everything he buys raised from 30 to 40 per cent by the trusts?

Our great and good friend, the Sultan of Sulu, is said to object to having his salary paid in Mexican dollars, while his sovereign, William McKinley, stipulates for gold or its equivalent.

From recent experience, it would seem to be in order to move the treasury department of the government to New York city, and place it in charge of the National City bank.

From the fact that the British have seized our four ships destined for Delagoa bay, would seem to indicate that they believe it might be easier to starve the Boers than to whip them.

If Hanna is not careful he may find that McKinley's personal popularity, on which he has been trading, may fall before the next election. Imperialism, even in party politics, has before now been resented by the members of the dominant party.

How does the number of factory operatives, whose wages have been raised by "prosperity," compare with the number who have been discharged altogether by the closing down by the trusts of the factories wherein they worked?

MARK HANNA

IS MODEST

Says He Doesn't Want to Be Chairman Nor Delegate at Large.

By Associated Press to the Journal. CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 5.—Senator Hanna declares that, although he had been urged to stand for the permanent chairmanship of the next Republican national convention, he would not do so.

"There are other men," he said, "who are more ambitious than I, and who value that honor more than I do. I will give way to them."

He also declared that he will not be one of the delegation-at-large from Ohio. "I greatly desire that General Dick shall have an uncontested place in the Ohio delegation-at-large," he explained, "and I am glad to step out in his favor. If I was to be considered as one of the delegates-at-large, precedent giving the place to me as a senator, there would be a contest between General Grover and General Dick. I bring out of it, there will be room for both of them as there should be, and friction will be avoided."

It is evident from the foregoing that the plan to make Senator Hanna a delegate-at-large and permanent chairman of the Republican national convention was formed without his consent.

THE HOP SITUATION.

Reports From Eastern and English Markets.

Lupulin in Mark Lane Express. Can we yet feel the "turning of the tide" in Borough hop affairs? I am inclined to think so, and although I did not anticipate any such movement till we had passed through the Christmas holidays, there are slight indications that it has already commenced. It is quite certain that a large amount of business has been done during the past fortnight, and that buyers have not found their offers so readily accepted this week. Perhaps they have not yet consented to move upwards, to any appreciable extent, as there are still rumors of transactions at rates far below actual values. But merchants are apparently preparing the minds of their customers, for higher prices, as they are in some cases reporting that usual samples are being sought after at a few shillings advance, while holders of such qualities are not now anxious or even willing to sell at prices recently current.

The market is gradually hardening under the combined influence of the reticence of planters, the conviction that it cannot be depressed by any excessive imports, and the increased demand for beer created by the continuance of mild weather. There is doubtless a considerable quantity of hops still unsold; but we may be certain that brewers have not yet nearly stocked up, and that large purchases must be made before their full supplies are provided for. At the first intimation of a stronger market inquiries will be pushed forward without delay, and these will furnish the opportunity for growers to maintain their position, and to realize much better money than they have heard of for some time. I must confess I cannot understand the policy of some factors, whose reports are much more pessimistic than the situation justifies. As reputed friends of growers, it appears to me that they manifest their friendship in a peculiar manner by "crying stinken fish," and it is frequently suggested to my thoughts that planters have no friends but themselves, but that their own self assertion is the only means whereby they can free themselves from the fetters in which their industry is bound.

Foreign Markets.

NUMBERS.

The trade in this market is comparatively quiet, except for the few parcels of good hops that are now obtainable. Inferior qualities are at present more or less neglected, but as the sales, even with the moderate demand, considerably exceed the arrivals, prices are well maintained and the tone of the market is very firm.

Belgian Hop Report.

The quiet trade which has prevailed during the past three weeks still continues. Alost 8 marks are quoted on the Brussels Bourse at 41 to 42 francs, the former being the buyers' and the latter the sellers' estimate of value. In the country the growers are demanding 43 to 45 francs and dealers, who are endeavoring to get in at lower rates find some difficulty in accomplishing their business. The prices current at the breweries are 53 to 55 for town hops, and 50 to 53 for country.

Canterbury.

A fair amount of business has been doing during the week in copper hops for the best of which 5s per cwt more money has occasionally been paid. There is a rather more cheerful tone about the market, and several low bids have been refused.

Worcester.

Business keeps quiet for Worcester, but a few parcels of useful medium copper hops go into consumption each week, and prices for this class appear to have touched bottom. Prices for fine quality parcels keep firm at last rates, but for brown and low lots there is little demand and prices are very irregular.

Borough.

Messrs. W. H. and H. LeMay, hop factors, London, S.E., report: The very low prices now ruling for English hops is causing consumers to stock up, and considerable quantities have been sold during the past week.

Notes.

Chehalis, Washington, Dec. The hop crop of Washington has been estimated at 33,983 bales. This is Klaber's estimate we understand. The estimate of 4,000 bales in Lewis county is more than 500 bales too high. If the estimates of other counties are proportionately high it would reduce the total number of bales raised in the state to less than 30,000.

Yakima, Wash., Republic The movement of hops is decided slow this week with offerings running 6, 7 and 8c. Up to date there have been shipped from this place in the neighborhood of 6,500 bales leaving something like the same number yet unsold or in the warehouses.

Cooperstown Farmer, The local market has seen another quiet week, not over 250 bales having been purchased since our last issue, exclusive of the James F. Clark growth. This crop of 517 bales, about 120,000 lbs was taken by T. W. Thayer at 7c. The run of prices on purchases this week has been from 9 to 13c, with the bulk of the business below 10c.

Scholarie Republican, Brewers are disposed to defer purchases until after the New Year opens, hence there is little buying. Jos. Taylor has purchased the 17 bale lot of Harvey Loucks at 10c and one-half of John Mattie's crop at 11c.
