CALLS IT AN ACT OF TREASON

Sacramento Bee.

In the first place, the present bill is a daylight robbery and an open steal. For the purposes of this article, we will not aver that there is anything wrong in placing the nation on a gold basis, in dedicating it to a gold standard. We will be silent upon the proposition of forcing future bonds to be paid only in gold. But no honest man can deny that it is a bold and barefaced swindle against the people to declare that old bonds, contracted to be paid, principal and interest, in silver or in gold at the option of the government, must be paid only in gold, at the same time that the laws of the government are framed so that gold will inevitably become dear and silver cheap. A business man who would so reconstruct a contract to his own enormous injury would not only be voted a fool, but as well a traitor to the best interest of his family. And what else but a traitor, not only to his own nation but to all mankind, is the American citizen who alters a contract, or votes for its alteration, so that his own people may be robbed?

JOURNAL "X RAY"

Evidences of prosperity—prices of everything are going up except produce and labor.

Already the sidewalk farmer is pushing for agricultural experiment stations in the Philippine islands. Better get the islands first, eh?

The increased car service on State street and the North Salem and Morning side lines are greatly appreciated by the traveling public.

Myrtle Point Enterprise: One of the queer things about all the returning Klondikers is that they leave rich claims and come home broke.

We need and we desire no Kinglet in Washington or elsewhere. The People are king, and the will of The People is the law.—Sacramento Bee.

Ladd & Bush's big flag was flying yesterday. It is not known whether it was in honor of Jackson day or the big victory in South Africa, perhaps both.

The Eugene Register squeals because the Guard publishes a Republican committee call. Perhaps they expected to keep the matter a secret, and hence the objection to publicity.

Bad cross-walks, like the poor, are always with us. Street Commissioner Frizzell has put down about a hundred new ones this winter, and still there's room for a few improvements.

Jasper Minto is a candidate for night watch at the asylum. The Minto are born policemen, and it is a rare day that one is not after some police office which by the way they generally fill well.—Albany Dem.

H. R. Kincaid's paper, the Oregon

State Journal, has just celebrated its 37th birthday, having been all that time owned, controlled and managed by the same person, who was its original founder. No other paper in Oregon and but few in the United States have such a record. Many changes have taken place in Oregon in population, wealth, methods of travel and transportation, customs and habits, during that time, and most of those who resided here 36 years ago have passed away and their places are filled by new people. Many of the winters have been like the present—no freezing and as mild as April in the Eastern States.

Hon. Peter Fordney, of Wallawa county, has a scheme for starting an elk ranch and raising these animals for the market. This ought to give Mr. McBride an opportunity to secure a job on going out of the office of U. S. senator. Herding elk is nearer his size.—Albany Dem.

Tallow Candles as Medicine. In France the peasantry still stick to medicines calculated to turn the average doctor's hair gray with horror. Wine is an ingredient of every prescription. In fever cases it is always the predominant one. The French peasant's faith in fermented grape juice is truly beautiful.

If his children are stricken with the measles, he gives them wine well sweetened with honey and highly spiced with pepper. For a severe cold he administers a quart of red wine and a melted tallow candle mixed. For scarlet or brain fever he gives eggs, white wine and soot well beaten together. Not all their superstitions are curious. Some are pathetic. A mother, for instance, often buries her dead child with its favorite toy or a lock of her own hair in the coffin, "that it may not feel quite alone."

The Wrong Day. The heartless landlord has come to evict the widow with 18 children, many of whom are teething.

But at the threshold the woman waves him back imperiously. "Not today!" she cries.

"Why not?" asks the landlord, with pardonable curiosity.

"Because," the woman replied, "no pitiless storm of rain mingled with icy sleet rages without!"

The landlord grinds his teeth in impatient rage. He may trample under foot the promptings of his better nature, but not the conventionalities established by long usage.—Detroit Journal.

Not His Destination. A steamer was stopped in the mouth of the river owing to a dense sea fog. An old lady inquired of the captain the cause of the delay.

"Can't see up the river," replied the captain.

"But I can see the stars overhead," continued the old lady.

"Yes, but until the boilers bust we ain't a-going that way."—World's Comic.

Happiness. Human happiness, according to the most received notions, seems to consist of three ingredients: action, pleasure and indolence. And though these ingredients ought to be mixed in different proportions, according to the particular disposition of the person, yet no one ingredient can be entirely wanting without destroying in some measure the relish of the whole composition.

Habit. Habit bath so vast a prevalence over the human mind that there is scarcely anything too strange or too strong to be asserted of it. The story of the miser who, from being long accustomed to cheat others, came at last to cheat himself, and with great delight and triumph picked his own pocket of a guinea to convey to his hoard is not impossible or improbable.

Russian families, when moving to a new home, kindle the fire on the hearth with coal brought from the old residence.

It is strange, but true, that today will be yesterday tomorrow.—Chicago News.

Growing Time

Children must have just the right kind of food if they are to become strong men and women. A deficiency of fat makes children thin and white, puny and nervous, and greatly retards full growth and development. They need

A LIFE SAVED.

Dr. J. F. Cook, the Botanical Specialist, Succeeds Where Other Fail.

To whom it may concern: This is to certify that Bertha P. Conner, of Mt. Angel precinct, Marion county, Oregon, has suffered from a cancerous growth in the left ear for about three years. The growth was cut out twice and burned out once by Albany Physicians, but the growth came back as bad as ever, and pained her so badly that she had to be taken from school. After three weeks' treatment by Dr. J. F. Cook, of Salem, Oregon, the Botanical Specialist, the growth entirely disappeared, and at this date, four months since treatment was begun, the growth has not reappeared, and the ear has entirely healed leaving only the scars indicated by the Albany doctors.

I hereby certify that the above statement is absolutely true, and that Bertha P. Conner, the person mentioned in the affidavit, has resided in my family since early childhood, bearing the relationship to me of niece.

Subscribed and sworn before me this eighth day of June, 1899. W. C. Hall, county clerk of Marion county Oregon.
