An Insult Well Handled.

You can always trust the American woman to take care of herself. The friends of a girl who lives in Eightcenth street are telling these days of an adventure which befell her one afternoon within the fortnight. She was standing, this Eighteenth street girl, at the corner of F and Eleventh streets waiting for a girl friend. A very dapper young man, a stranger doubtless in the town-for most Washingtonians are too well aware of the girl's social eminence to venture on any impertinence to her-stepped up, bowed and said airily:

THE WILDER CONCERT. A District Success and the Audience Gets its Money's Worth,

When a Salem audience pays two bits a head to hear a concert, it proposes to get its money's worth. This was illustrated at the concert last night at the Baptist church, of the Wilder Harp and String Quartette, There were 8 numbers on the program. That would have been 31g cents apiece; but by a systematic use of persistent handclapping, the number of pieces was raised to 14, making them come at only I 11-14 cents apiece. It would have been reduced still lower, but toward the quartette pieces came together at the Leather-Breyman Leather Company, end. Then, when the first was encored the performers simply kept their seats, played the last piece and quit.

The entertainment, however, was a distinct success. The Wilder Harp and String Quartette pleased the music Wade & Co., $59.55.
