IS LADYSMITH CAPITULATING?

Boers Reported to Have Stormed the Fortified City

ENGLISH FORCES ADVANCED TO STINGARSFONTEIN

Driving the Boers Back to Colesburg in Their Attempts to Prevent the Movement -- Great Demonstration Over the Departure of London Volunteers.

By Associated Press to the Journal. VIENNA, Jan. 13. The Neue Freie Presse this morning published a dispatch from Bressels, saying the news was received there from Pretoria that the Boers had stormed the heights around Ladysmith, and that capitulation is hourly expected. It is possible that the news may refer to the fighting of Saturday last.

RUSSIANS, Jan. 13.—A strong force of British advanced this morning under cover of a brisk artillery fire and are encamped at Stingarsfontein, on the Boer's eastern flank. The Boers attempted to seize the position, threatening communication between the British encampment and Rensberg, but the New Zealanders with a brilliant dash frustrated the attempt. The enemy retired in the direction of Colesburg.

LONDON, Jan. 13.—(Saturday, 4 p. m.)—General Buller's twenty-eight words announcing his forward movement on Thursday, is interpreted that he has passed around the western end of the Boer lines at Colesburg, and is now several miles behind them and within four miles of Ladysmith. The Boer forces a few days ago had forces with guns at Springfield, where General Buller dates his dispatch. These commands have been obviously disclosed, either by fighting or by maneuvering, the Boers retiring across the Tugela as General Buller advances. From General Buller's dispatch, coupled with the fact that official intelligence from the seat of war has virtually ceased since Monday, the deduction is drawn out that important operations are in progress, as he cannot move far without going against the Boer entrenchments.

AN AUSTRALIAN SPEAKS. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 13.—According to J. F. Archibald, editor and proprietor of the Sydney Bulletin, there is a growing feeling in Australia that the British colonies are making a serious mistake in aiding England to wage war against the Transvaal. "It was a grave error for Australia to send troops to South Africa," he said. "It amounts to the abandonment of our independence."

AN ENGLISHMAN'S VIEWS.

Thanks the Wonderful Boer Success Due to German and French Officers. INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 8.—J. G. Thurtell, a prominent resident of this city, an Englishman and first cousin of Lord Roberts, who is at the head of the English army, in South Africa, formerly served in the English army; and for several years held a commission under General Methuen in South Africa. He became thoroughly acquainted with the Boers and their country during his service on the English police guard, and gives the following reasons for the defeat of the English: "The English are not fighting the Boers," said he, "for if they were and had been Lord Methuen would never have been trapped as he was. They are fighting the army officers of the French and Germans. This aid is given secretly of course, but it is nevertheless effectual. The Boers are not capable of waging such a campaign as the one now ported seizure by the British of the Italian bark laden with sulphur, in the opinion of the state department authorities, is another case which Salisbury will have to disavow as explicitly as the American floor seizure question. It is said beyond reason that Great Britain would consent to regard sulphur as a contraband any more than it would be willing to include footstuffs in that category.

MORE MONEY WANTED. By Associated Press to the Journal. LONDON, Jan. 13.—The Sun today reports that on the reassembling of parliament the government will immediately ask for a further war credit of 20 million pounds.

FRENCH OBJECT. By Associated Press to the Journal. LONDON, Jan. 13.—The movement of French troops in the vicinity of Colesburg this morning is taken to indicate that Lord Roberts' recognized the importance of French's objective to obtain command of both brigades across the Orange river. About 4,000 troops sailed for South Africa this afternoon.

HEAVY FLOODS IN EASTERN OREGON

Rains and Warm Weather Raise the Umatilla River Disastrously.

By Associated Press to the Journal. PENDLETON, Jan. 13.—Last night the rains and warm weather during the two days past have melted the snow in the mountains. Last night the Umatilla river rose six feet and continues to rise. At Thorn Hollow, eighteen miles east, a culvert was washed out, and the river is a quarter to a half-mile wide, having spread all over the bottoms.

Payne, of Wisconsin, and United States Senator Scott, of West Virginia, who constitute the subcommittee of the National Republican committee having in charge the arrangements for holding the national convention here in June, arrived in this city last night. The visitors will inspect the auditorium of the national export exposition in West Philadelphia, where the convention will be held.

Byran's Itinerary.

By Associated Press to the Journal. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 14.—W. J. Bryan was in the city a few hours last evening on his way from Minneapolis to Columbia, Mo., where he speaks tonight. His tour includes speeches in St. Louis, Frankfort, Ky., Cincinnati and the Atlantic and New England states, and will not be finished until February 23. Mr. Bryan left for the South at 6 o'clock. Political intimates, when asked concerning his reported change of opinion on the question of free wool, said they could not speak with authority, but nothing he had said has indicated that attitude, and they doubted the correctness of the report.

By Associated Press to the Journal. NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—In connection with the approaching visit of W. J. Bryan to New York the Evening Post says: A great effort will be made to get Bryan while here to treat imperialism and trusts as the main issue of the campaign and avoid giving undue prominence to the 16 to 1 issue. HUMAN HEARTS COMPANY

Are in Salem Again—Having a Successful Tour of the West. The "Human Hearts" company, consisting of fifteen people arrived in this city this morning to fill the return engagement at the opera house this evening. From Mr. W. F. Riley, business manager of the company, we learn that since playing here on Dec. 25, they have played at Portland, Astoria, the Sound points and up in British Columbia. They go from here to play a return engagement at Corvallis, in Polk county. This play has been on the boards in the East for four years, but has never before been presented on this coast. This season's work was intended more as an entering wedge to open up this territory for next season, but it has proved to be even a paying trip. Ten weeks have been spent west of St. Paul; next season 20 weeks will be put in on the same route, as there will be two companies put on the road with this popular play. The play is one of those homely dramas of intense human interest which grow in popularity from one season to another. Mr. Riley considers the Northwest pretty good show territory, but is surprised that Oregon's beautiful capital city does not have a better opera house.

FIGHTING AT CEBU

Filipinos Routed in Three Different Engagements

TWENTY INSURGENTS CAPTURED BY OUR MEN

More Testimony Against Senator Clark But its Character is of Less Importance -- The Montana Senator's Son is in Evidence in the Bribery Case

By Associated Press to the Journal. MANILA, Jan. 13.—The advices from Cebu report a sharp fight on January 8 between the battalion of the Nineteenth infantry and a body of insurgents occupying a strong position in the Sulong mountains. The enemy was routed. Four hundred Americans were wounded. Insurgent General Flores, having established a rendezvous with 100 men at Humangan, province of Nueva Viscaya, Captain Benson was sent to dislodge him. The insurgents were scattered, the Americans sustaining no losses. The American forces yesterday occupied Magallanes, province of Cavite, capturing 20 insurgents, including a colonel.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—In the case of Senator Clark, of Montana, the first regular witness was M. L. Hewitt, a miner, who was in Helena during the session of the legislature in 1890. He said that Charley Clark, son of Senator Clark, asked him to see Senator Myers and offer him $1,000 to vote for Clark for senator.

The witness also said he had seen Senator Whiteside's exposure, and had asked him what he proposed to do, when the senator replied: "There is only one thing to do, and that is to make the people believe the Daly gang is furnished the money, and have put up a conspiracy against us!" "I asked him," continued witness, "if he could make that stick, to which he replied, 'there is no trouble about the deal, because if we put up good an excuse the people will believe us, and we can again get the members to get out.'" On cross-examination Hewitt said he was a Republican and not especially interested in any senatorial candidates. He had "just drifted into the contest" and had "received nothing and had no promise of anything from the anti-Clark people for his part in this proceeding."

Under pressure he said that when he went before the Montana grand jury he had no desire to reveal all his transactions during the sitting of the legislature. He had only replied to the questions asked him. A Bryan Dinner. NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Oliver H. P. Belmont today issued invitations to a dinner he will give in honor of W. J.
