Closing Out My Business to Quit!

Exact Cost Our Motto.
Our first week of closing out has been a wonder not only to ourselves, but to everybody who has watched our progress. From the very beginning we have had a tremendous jam nearly all of our open hours. There have been so many "closing out" sales of every kind and description that it would have been no wonder to have seen us waiting a week to get steam up. They Believe Us.
And you may rest assured there will be no deception. We are closing out just as fast as it is possible to do it. Time is money now to me, and I don't want to drag this sale out a day longer than is necessary. The lines of goods we carry are the best grades, never had any other kinds for it don't pay. You can rest assured that what you buy of us is good, and you pay only what we paid, no more, no less, some folks try to beat us down from cost, but that won't work.

Until Further Notice We will Close at 6 pm

I Mean Strictly Business.
I am closing out for good, and am in a hurry. My whole stock is for sale, and I've no time for foolishness, merchants will do well to see me on any lines of goods that I carry, for they won't buy cheaper for many months.

Bicycles and Sundries.
This is anything but wheel weather, but I've sold 'em good wheels this week both at cost, besides lots of my sundry stock. I have new wheels coming which I will tell you about later.

Wiggin's Bazaar, 307 Com. St., Salem.

We cannot deliver any more packages. Our clerks are too busy, and, selling goods at cost, we can't afford to hire them delivered.

CAPTAIN L. P. ADAMS DEAD.

Was a Veteran Officer of the Civil War.

Captain L. P. Adams, well known in Salem and throughout the Willamette Valley died at his residence in this city at 4:30 p. m. Saturday.

Captain Adams was born in Hamilton county, Ohio, November 23, 1837. Later he moved to Shelbyville, Indiana, where he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Adams, with whom he lived until his death. Captain Adams was captain of Company C 130th Indiana Volunteers during the Civil war and remained in service for three years.

He was an active member of Sedgwick Post No. 10, Grand Army of the Republic, and held membership in the Salem McKinley club, and the Union Veteran's Association.

He leaves a wife, three sons and two daughters all of whom were at his bedside when he passed away. The children are Elmer P. Adams, of Woodburn, Chas. E. and Ivan L. Adams, of Salem, Mrs. Edna C. Tucker and Mrs. Anna A. Haslem, both of Portland.

The funeral was held this afternoon at the residence and was conducted by Rev. H. A. Ketchum, under the auspices of Sedgwick Post No. 10, G. A. R. Burial was held in Grand Army Circle in City View cemetery.

The old soldier was laid to rest in a very handsome steel casket, grained and finished in close imitation of highly polished woodwork. The sides, top and bottom are of rolled steel about 3/16 of an inch thick re-enforced around the top and handles, and the casket weighs over 300 pounds. It is one of the latest improved products of the factory of the Crane & Reed, Mfg. Co., of Cincinnati, Ohio, and was furnished by Undertaker A. M. Clough.

A Wash Out.

John Cox a native son of Marion county was in the city today from Independence, he reports a had wash out of the county road for at least thirty feet in length and seven feet deep in front of the J. R. Cooper place. The road is impassable for a wagon and ought to be repaired at the earliest possible day.

Shipping Fruit Trees to Korea.

C. F. Lansing of the Quaker Nurseries of this city has just shipped another invoice of fruit trees to Korea. Last year Mr. Lansing shipped two bills of trees there and those two brought him eleven bills this year. The trees of last year's shipment were on the way nearly three months and arrived at their destination in perfect condition.

Wanted to Clean Up.

Two young fellows having the appearance of tramps came to Chief of Police Gibson last night and asked for a night's lodging, which he gave them. This morning they preferred another request. They explained that they wanted to work, but had been on the road for some time and their clothes and person had reached such a condition that they were ashamed to apply to any one, and if they did their appearance would be too much against them.

They wanted to know if Chief Gibson thought the Judge would be kind enough to send them up for about five days and give them a chance to clean up. They seemed to be rather bright young fellows and willing to work; so their request on the woodpile and around the city hall and will be furnished with hose, buckets, soap, towels, insect powder etc, so that by the time their sentence expires they may be in a condition to obtain employment.

REGISTRATION.

Names of 1,056 Voters on Hand This Noon.

Voters are beginning to realize that if they wish to get their names on the register they will have to get around to the county clerk's office at the first opportunity, and not wait until the last week or two, when there is likely to be a line formed at the registry desk and extending out around the court house, something like the string of applicants at a Klondike land office.

With the names sent in on blanks and not yet recorded, the clerks office had received 1069 names this noon. They will have to come in livelier hereafter or some will be left over.

Wizard Oil Co., Tonight.

Hamlin's Wizard Oil Company has arrived and will commence their series of entertainments at Reels Opera House tonight, and we can assure our readers a first-class show in every respect. They carry 10 specialty artists and give a better entertainment than many of the traveling tramps charging five times the price of admission. Everything done is clean and refined, so bring the ladies and children tonight.

The admission is only 15c. for any seat in the house tonight.

Ashland Woolen Mills Burn.
ASHLAND, Or., Jan. 22.—The Ashland woolen mill, owned E. K. & G. N. Anderson, valued at $65,000, employing 30 to 35 hands, was burned Sunday morning at 2:10 o'clock. Machinery to the value of $5000 had recently been added to the plant.

About $6000 worth of blankets and blanketing in process of manufacture was also burned. The insurance on the building and its contents amounted to $13,500. The fire originated in the weaving room.

English Fight Tonight.

Associated Press to the Journal.
NEWCASTLE, England, Jan. 22.—Will Curley, the English boxer, who was defeated by George Dixon in New York and Nat Smith will fight here tonight for a $1,000 a side and a $1,250 purse. This will be the most interesting fight that has taken place in England for some time.

Street Car Strike.

TROY, N. Y., Jan. 21.—All the street cars in Troy were tied up last night as the result of the strike of 365 motormen and conductors, who demanded 20 cents an hour and a 10-hour day.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Cooper held a family reunion at The Dalles on the 18th inst., 14 children and nine grandchildren being present.

The Ordinary Sleeper--A New Feature in Western Travel.

The Pullman Company now operates two grades of sleeping cars via the Rio Grande Western Railway. The ordinary sleepers are entirely new, and the berths, both upper and lower, are fitted up complete with mattresses, blankets, sheets, pillows, curtains, etc., with stoves arranged for making tea, coffee, etc., requiring nothing to be furnished by passengers. Uniformed pullman porters are in charge of the cars, who are required to keep them in good order and attend to the wants and comforts of passengers. The cars are very handsome and commodious, and while not so elegant as our Pullman cars, are nevertheless a most comfortable and economical mode of travel. Both first and second-class passengers are permitted to occupy these cars on payment of the Pullman berth rates, which are less than half of those charged in the regular palace cars.

The ordinary sleepers are daily on trains via Rio Grande Western Railway between Denver, Colorado and Portland, Or. In each week the sleepers are through between Los Angeles, California, or Portland and Omaha, Chicago and Boston.
