M. H. DeLong,

of Schuylerville, N. Y., who served in company E, 23rd Vermont Volunteers, had other men to battle with after his return from the late war. He recently wrote:

"I have used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine for nervousness brought on by the use of tobacco and too close application to business. It gave me prompt relief without leaving any unpleasant effects. The result was beneficial and lasting. I heartily endorse it."

CHILD RAN THE ENGINE

Was Alone on Wild Locomotive

Seven Miles.

Three-Year-Old Son of Engineer Evans Rode Motor From St. Johns to Albina.

"I can run an engine like papa," said little three-year-old Fred Evans, as he was lifted down from the locomotive of the St. Johns motor line yesterday at Albina. He had mounted the engine at St. Johns pulled open the throttle and remained on the seat alone on a mad ride of seven miles. The young engineer is the son of W. B. Evans, at St. Johns, engineer on the motor line. He had often been on the engine, and his father had explained to him how the lever is pulled and the wheels started moving. The engine lies over an hour at St. Johns, just by the water tank, and during this time yesterday, while Mr. Evans was at home at lunch, little Fred walked down to the engine, mounted the seat and opened wide the throttle. The machine was full of coal and water, and was ready for the road. Several people saw the boy start, but no one was near enough to catch the engine. The news was at once told to Mr. Evans, and he reached the track just in time to see the locomotive, with his boy on board, disappear around a curve. The father was wild with grief and fear, and the boy's mother was almost prostrated. The news spread like wildfire, and the whole town turned out. Excitement was intense, women and children cried and men offered suggestions. Master Mechanic Michael F. Brady was at that end of the line and at once telephoned to stations along the line. Portsmouth and Peninsular were notified, and the men at these points tried to board the engine as it dashed by, but its speed was too great. Mr. Brady also notified the office at Albina, and a party of men ran out the line northward to meet the wild engine. In coming up the long grade toward Albina, the steam had died down a little, but the register still showed 80 pounds. John Woods, a motorman on the City & Suburban railway, was the first man to meet the engine. He caught the hand rail and swung up, but in doing so he was dragged 60 or 70 feet. He at once turned on the steam, and the engine slowed down and stopped. It was then young Fred made the remark concerning his ability as an engineer-driver.

The boy was not scared at all, but seemed rather proud of his feat. When the engine first dashed out of St. Johns he was frightened, and as he came through Portsmouth like a shot out of a gun he was yelling lustily for "mamma."

After coming several miles, however, he again became brave and held his position on the seat with composure, with his hand on the lever, like a veteran.

The engine was stopped in front of the home of Dr. Davis on Commercial street, and was quickly run back to St. Johns by Mr. Woods with the boy Fred still on board. Mr. Woods said his success in boarding the engine was a surprise to him, as well as to every one else, as its speed was still considerable. The engine had made the run from St. Johns to Albina in less than half an hour.

In the meantime the news of the rescue had been sent by telephone to the frightened parents, and for the remainder of the day there was great joy in all St. Johns.
