JOURNAL "X-RAYS"

Mother—wake up and give us your ideas about schools.
See specialties announced by a leading Salem implement house.
No more longtime expensive bond issues for this school district.
Make Salem won't be metropolitan with her new steam heating plant.
An Anglo-American alliance is all right for the purpose of raising a family.
The Probs are putting full tickets in the field and probably will in Marion county.

Father Daley, of St. Joseph's Catholic church, witnessed the graduating exercises and does not hesitate to say that the public schools of Salem are good as far as they go, but do not give the children what constitutes a good public education. He says the masses will not get any schooling beyond the common branches and they should be more fully taught.

It is probable that if Hon. J. M.
Church, of La Grande, secures the state senatorial nomination by the Republicans he will have Hon. "Bud" McAllister pitted against him by the Democrats.
"Bud" McAllister is one of the most popular men in Clatsop county, has represented the county in the legislature and ably, too.—Baker Daily.

The Methodist college has one professor who is liberal enough to say that the Catholics of England were loyal to the government and fought on the side of their country against the Spaniards under James the Sixth and all the excitement of the days of the Gunpowder Plot. That spirit is tolerant and progressive, and Prof. Baker deserves a credit mark.

If following which appeared in a Portland paper is correct, Salem's only representative of the Gordon, Highland ers, has been captured by the enemy: Angus B. Gillis, aged 43, Marion county; Anne E. Krebs, aged 26.

There are the usual charges that a little handful of lawyers, and not all of them in the highest odor either, have the call on securing jurors enough to their liking to hang or win any case they are interested in.

The Republican county central committee meets at the Willamette Saturday to name the date for county primaries and conventions. Of course a complete accounting of that campaign fund will be had.

Salem women are learning how to cook, how to get out and into chairs gracefully. In time they will learn how to vote. This is in reply to the gallant Col. Campbell of Eugene.

The author of "In His Steps," who is going to run a Topsyka paper "the way Jesus would do," has his collectors out gathering up the shokels, not as Jesus would do.

The Portland Populists are divided into factions. There are only about a dozen of them, all leaders trying to see which crowd can get nearest the enemy's sack.

Talk about the British aristocracy!
Aren't about one-third of the American people in the official salary-drawing class now, or else living without work.

The Salem W. C. T. U. is arranging a debate over woman suffrage. That is a topic people want enlightening about.

A state college professor says he is going to Paris at his own expense. That is the only respectable way to go.

The Journal will have another black-record exposure of the legislature in a few days.

The dispatches Tuesday reported the beer army "surrounded" but failed to say by what.

A mist and a mining exchange are the latest progressive steps proposed for Portland.

A man will always respect a woman when he sees that she respects herself.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is not a Common everyday rough mixture. It is a marvelous remedy for all the troublesome and dangerous complications resulting from a cold in the head, throat, chest or lungs. Sold for 25 cents.

To Cure a Cold in One Day Take Laxative Brown Gulcher Tablets. All the mucus that the coldy left falls in it.
Dr. Bull's Laxative is not such a bad thing.

For Milder Conditions take Hesperia Milds.

ABOUT THE SCHOOL ELECTION

EDITOR JOURNAL:—Will you please inform a reader of your DAILY JOURNAL:
1. Can the school board appoint judges of the coming school election who are not taxpayers, when some are allowed to vote only those who pay taxes?
2. Again, how can the board appoint a man as a judge to one ward, while he lives in another ward?
3. Or are the faithful running short?
By answering the above question you will confer a favor upon a TAXPAYER 1. The judges of an election must have the qualifications of those entitled to participate in the election.
2. Division of the school district into voting wards is only for convenience.
A voter in the district can vote in any ward or be judge in any ward.
3. "The faithful" are always short and have to be provided for. They bring pressure to bear to get those ap-

HER LITTLE BOY.
"Always a little boy, to her."
No matter how old he's grown.
Her eyes are blind to the strands of gray.
She's deal to his manly tone.
His voice is the same as the day he asked:
"Who makes the old cat purr?" Ever and ever he's just the same—A little boy, to her.

"Always a little boy, to her."
She reads not the lines of care That furrow his face—to her it is still As it was in his boyhood, fair.
His hopes and his joys are as dear to her As they were in his small boy days.
He never changes; to her he's still " My little boy," she says.

"Always a little boy, to her."
And to him she's the mother fair.
With the laughing eyes and the cheering smile.
Of the boyhood days back there.
Back there, somewhere in the mist of years—
Back there with the childish joy.
And to her he is never the man we see.
But always "her little boy."
He is always "her little boy."

Partnership in Marriage.
Mrs. Beatrice Putter Webb, an authority on social science, notes a difference between American and English women.
"English women, much more than Americans, are the colleagues of their husbands," she says. "I was surprised to see in the United States how little as a general rule, the women know of their husband's affairs. English women, however clever they may be, sit or regard themselves as their husbands' junior partner or subordinate colleague."

The general rule announced by Mrs.
Webb as to American women certainly holds when applied to a class. There are women in this country who do not care to co-operate with husbands, who manifest no particular interest in their husbands' affairs, who set up for themselves and run individualism to seed.
On the other hand the great majority of American women collaborate with them. These women are said of the earth.—Iowa Register.

For the Bride-Elect.
The bride of today is being made the recipient of many social honors. All her girl friends pay her tributes by their pretty entertainments, and the popular maid must be ready for her wedding several weeks before the event transpires, for at each of the functions she is supposed to wear one of her trousseau gowns. Most of the affairs are lunch-sons or breakfasts, each with a special feature. A "linen shower" for instance, consists of each guest bringing a piece of linen, a doily, centerpiece or bureau scarf, whatever one chooses, and as the party draws the table the pieces are thrown at the bride-to-be.

For a "book shower" each guest brings a book appropriately inscribed to her friend, with a sentiment which the giver fancies. Of course, each hostess can use her own ideas in planning her entertainment and in her invitations puts in one corner what each guest is to bring for the honored one. "Teaspoons," "cup and saucers," "plates and soda pillows" are all acceptable. Those contributions go toward furnishing the bride's new home with memories of her girlhood days and friends. The "rose shower" should be left for the last affair before the wedding, and as the bride departs an immense bag filled with rose petals is burst over her, and each maid throws a handful of the fragrant bloomsoms, signifying the hope that her future may be rose-strewn.

Table Rules for Children by a Child.
1. In making preparations for the table I have been taught to have my teeth, hair, hands and nails as clean as work, soap, water, comb and brushes can make them.
2. The proper time to be seated is when all are ready, standing behind their chairs.
3. The proper place for the napkin for grown-up people is across the lap.
Now I put mine to under my chin.
Later I will do differently.
4. The proper way to eat soup is to eat it from the side of your spoon, slowly and without noise.
5. It is not proper to leave the spoon in the cup when drinking. I never leave my spoon in my cup, but sip from the side of the spoon my favorite tea and chocolate.
6. The proper way to eat bread is to break it and then convey to the mouth.

Mrs. Loubet, wife of the president of the French republic, takes a stroll daily in the Bois. She goes there in a smart brougham. Her bodyguard is a detective on a bicycle, who rides behind.
When it rains, carriage stops, the cyclist dismounts, opens the door and receives from the woman who is with Mrs. Loubet two india rubber overalls.

They are for himself and the coachman.

Mme. Loubet, is an expert milliner and a good chess player. She has a large circle of girl friends, who are advised by her to cultivate themselves above "show talents."

A man who sits with his knees tight together looks about as awkward as a woman who doesn't.
"Nothing suits me better in stationery," says the young woman artist, "than a plain white with a black letter raised. No color; nothing but this simple letter, and it is quiet, refined, and yet your stationery is not quite the same as your neighbor's."

This delicious winter vegetable is seldom found except in large markets, but here and there throughout the country you will find some families who have always had a few roots of it in a corner of the garden and who value it so highly that it seems strange that more persons do not cultivate it. It resembles the parsnip in shape, only smaller, and is usually found in bunches of from four to eight roots. They should be scraped, cut in slices and cooked in boiling salted acidulated water until tender, then drained and served in a highly seasoned white sauce. The flavor resembles that of the oyster. MARY J. LINGCOLN.

Spaghetti Strings.
Have a long fish kettle half full of boiling salted water, and lay a half pound of unbroken spaghetti pipes in this. Boil for twenty minutes or until tender. Carefully drain the water from the kettle and slip the spaghetti gently upon a heated platter on which it may lie at full length. Set this platter in the oven to keep warm while you make a sauce by cooking together in a saucepan a teaspoonful of butter and one of flour and pouring upon them a teaspoonful of strained tomato liquor. Stir to a smooth paste, then season with onion juice, celery salt, pepper and three tablespoons of Parmesan cheese.

Hickory Nut Wafers.
One pint granulated sugar, one pint flour, one pint hickory nut meats, four eggs. Beat eggs light, add sugar, nuts and flour. Grease the bottoms of your jelly cake pans and drop the mixture from a teaspoon in small cakes, one teaspoonful to a cake. Bake in an oven just right for bread.

Carrot Cake.
Continued.
Nine eggs (the whites), four cups flour (sifted), two cups sugar, one cup butter, one of sweet milk, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder; beat eggs very light, then gradually add sugar, then butter; after it creams then milk, then flour; in the last half cup add baking powder; bake in three layers.

Filling for caramels—Two heaping cups of brown sugar, one cup of cream, one heaping tablespoonful of butter; mix together and bake 20 minutes; remove from fire, flavor with one teaspoonful of vanilla and when almost cool spread on cane.

We not only give the WEEKLY JOURNAL, the best local and all general weekly in the Willamette valley for $1 per year, but at great cost have made arrangements by which we now not only furnish the best general paper, but also the best farm Journal on the Pacific coast. Hereafter THE JOURNAL and THE Pacific Farmer can be first-class $1.25 per year, each being a first-class Dollar weekly of its kind. The Farmer has been the recognized leader in agricultural matters in the northwest for thirty years.

In these two papers you will get the latest Portland and local market reports.
Horticulture is given the prominence that the great industry deserves.
Dairymen say they get more information than they can depend on in any other source in the Northwest.

The Grange has distinguished itself as their official organ, and all farm organizations know they can depend on it to be true to their interest.
Shop Men find many valuable points and suggestions in it.
Sheep, Goat, and General Stock Men take it by the thousands for the information contained therein.
Poultrymen know it to be the only weekly in this section that makes a specialty of their business.
Bee Men have found it the only paper that treats any pretensions of looking after their interests.
Agriculture, in all of its branches is treated by practical writers.

No offer like this ever appeared before.

one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surface of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by build-
