THE SOUTH AFRICAN WAR.

The news up to Sunday morning was to the effect that the British had not captured General Cronje, the Dutch leader who with 8,000 men they had reported surrounded and all retreat or reinforcement cut off. That is the only way they can ever whip the Boer forces—surround them with superior numbers and artillery, cut of all escape or relief and annihilate them. It is not likely they will ever surrender a whole army corps.

Yet what excuse is there for this awful barbarism of war? Two races of the same origin, both standing for self-government and religious liberty, for morality, industry and civilization—is not our professed Christianity and peace talk a farce and a delusion. Here is a plea from an able Oregon writer—F. B. Irvine of Corvallis for mediation, that we endorse.

It was after the battle. The Boers had been driven from their position, and here and there dead and dying burghers were stretched upon the field. To a passing British officer a wounded burgher beckoned. The streaming gray hair was matted with blood from a wound in the head, and the ashen hue of death was already settling over the features. "Will you bring my son to me, officer," the feeble voice asked: "He lies right over there." In the direction indicated, the officer soon came upon the form of a wounded Boer lad, lying in the low bush. Though but a slender boy of thirteen, the delicate hands still grasped the rifle they had wielded in action. The bullet mark in the little coat, and the blood marks in the breast of the saturated garment and on the leaf-covered ground showed that the messenger of death was doing its work. Tenderly the officer picked up the suffering lad, whose childish face lighted up with a faint smile when he told that he was to be taken to his father. Soon the dying burgher and his son were locked in each others arms. The grim officer thought of a thirteen year-old boy in his own home, and and tears cursed down his cheeks. He left them to mingle their blood and tears in a dying embrace, and when he returned the old burgher and his son had passed to the land where there are no wars. Another Boer home among the kopjes of the Transvaal was desolate. A mother there, and a daughter were left to care for themselves while they mourn for their dead.

And, they say the Boer army is full of boys, many of whom are barely in their teens. How barbarous is war when the cradle and the nursery must be rob bed in order to furnish victims. With children dying on South African battle fields with arms in their hands, is it not atrocious for vaunted Christian nations to stand idly by and disinterestedly watch the slaughter? What harm would it be for the American president to offer the good offices of his nation to mediate a peace between the combatants? What American father or mother, all of whom are anxious to save their sons from death on battle fields, would blame McKinley for proposing a peace?

England offered to mediate between France and the United States in 1858 and preserved peace when the two seemed on the verge of war. Russia offered mediation between Britain and United States in 1812. France tendered her kind offices for mediation between the north and south during the civil war. Mr. McKinley has plenty of precedents. Even Paul says he would warmly welcome mediation and arbitration by the United States. What could more noble, what act more sublime could the American nation do than to seek to stay this struggle in which child-murders are died to death with hellish energy?

WHICH IS THE REFORM PARTY

The German paper at Mt. Angel, (Independent,) has a careful review of the political situation with a view to ascertain, if possible, which is the real reform party—the followers of McKinley or Bryan. These two men's names are taken to stand for the two great national parties.

Discussing the tendency of the trusts, the German editor shows that by advancing the price of refined oil, the Rockafeller trust has in the past year increased the profits of that insatiable monster monopoly $48,000,000. "And then they tell us: let the trusts alone. They will destroy each other. But when? When the substance is all sucked out of the people and there are only the very rich and the very poor. NO MIDDLE CLASS!" Thus reasons the good Benedictine brother who edits the Mt. Angel paper.

"These powerful agents of organized capital with their heaped-up millions are the world-magnets, growing ever more potent in drawing power, sucking ever more and ever faster. WHERE WILL IT STOP?" The good brother answers: not until the state takes hold of this social and industrial evil and throttles this trust octopus, this sucking-system, this monopoly devilfish that taxes us on oil, coal, iron, paper, coffins and schoolbooks.

We say amen, brother. Let the Benedictines and the Wesleyans and the other Christians all get their eyes open to the iniquity of the monopoly system, and help its overthrow. The party that in reality will become the party of the people will have a glorious reign before it. In the meantime we must pay and pray for deliverance from the Pharaohs.

REPUBLICAN CENTRAL

Committee Fixes Primaries March 21, Convention March 29.

The Marion county Republican central committee, which met in Salem, Saturday afternoon, fixed the dates for holding the primaries and the county convention on March 21 and March 29.

The apportionment of delegates to the convention was fixed on the basis of one delegate at large and one for each 15 votes cast for T. T. Geer at the last election, making the total number 256.

The appointment of judges and clerks was left to the precinct chairmen.

No other official action was taken and there was little discussion excepting on one point.

When the matter of fixing the qualifications of voters at the primaries came up, Walter Tooze, of Woodburn, made an impassioned plea for the shutting out of all except those who have of late years been unequivocally identified with the Republican party and who voted the straight ticket at the last election. He didn't want Democrats and Populists and Silver Republicans to come in and dictate whom he should vote for on the Republican ticket, when they had no real intention of themselves supporting the ticket. He had seen that tried in his precinct. Men of that class had stepped in and dictated the ticket and then turned in and snowed it under by a majority of fifty votes in that precinct. At the last election the lines had been drawn to exclude all but true-blue Republicans and the precinct had given a small Republican majority. He thought that only those who were unreservedly devoted to the Republican party and who could always be depended on to vote 'er straight ought to be allowed to dictate the nominations. He cited the instance of one man who had been a Silver Republican but who wanted to get back into the fold and had announced his intention of voting the straight ticket at the coming election. He would not allow such a man to take part in the primaries this year. Let him show his conversion to be genuine by voting the straight Republican ticket this year, and he might be allowed to participate in the future primaries. But this year the test should be, whether the voter had cast his ballot for the Republican party at the last election. He moved that only those qualified should be allowed to vote at the Republican primaries.

E. T. Judd moved to amend by making the test whether the voter intended to cast a Republican ballot this year. He said that he was not a Methodist and did not favor a period of probation. If any of the former brethern had seen the error of their ways, had tired of heeling on banks, were ready to come back with proper humility, he would give them a vote at the primaries.

Mr. Tooze replied in reiteration of his arguments.

Then Geo. W. Jones suggested that inasmuch as no one could be excluded who offered to vote at the primaries whether Republican, Democrat or populist, this was a profitless discussion. He moved that the matter be indefinitely postponed. This was carried with apparently but one dissenting vote, that of Mr. Tooze.

Little Pimples Turn to Cancer.

Cancer often results from an impurity in the blood, inherited from generations back. Few people are entirely free from some taint in the blood, and it is impossible to tell when it will break out in the form of dreaded Cancer. What has appeared to be a mere pimple or scratch has developed into the most malignant Cancer.

"I had a severe Cancer which was at first only a few blotches, that I thought would soon pass away. I was treated by several able physicians, but in spite of their efforts the Cancer spread until my condition became alarming. After many months of treatment and growing steadily worse, I decided to try S. S. S. which was so strongly recommended. The first bottle produced an improvement, I continued the medicine, and in four months the last little scab dropped off. Two years have elapsed and not a sign of the disease has returned."

R. F. WILLIAMS,
Gillsburg, Miss.

It is dangerous to experiment with Cancer. The disease is beyond the skill of physicians. S. S. S. is the only cure because it is the only remedy which goes deep enough to reach Cancer.

The Republican state convention will be held in Portland in April, date not yet fixed. In this congressional district Mr. Tongue will by no means have a walk over for the desired nomination. Other aspirants are G. C. Brownell, of Oregon City; Claud Gatch, of Salem; H. H. Hewitt, of Albany; J. D. Daly, of Corvallis; A. C. Woodcock, of Eugene; R. G. Smith, of Grants Pass, and E. V. Carter, of Ashland. Each has more than a local following, and it is not improbable that some of them will combine to overcome the advantages possessed by the present incumbent. That was the way Tongue got the nomination away from Hermann, and it will be a very pretty contest. Whether the astute and wily trotting horse owner, from Washington county, will prove a match for the "kid" candidates or not remains to be seen.

In other words if the clerk is satisfied that such citizens are entitled to vote he should register them even if they do no produce their papers although in the latter case a good reason must be given for not producing the papers or a copy.

Inquest over the Body of J. D. Newman.

The inquest over the body of J. D. Newman, the ex-convict who hung himself in the Marion county jail, was held Saturday night at 7:30 in the undertaking parlors of A. M. Clough on State staeet. A number of witnesses were called and testified regarding the finding of the body and the facts surrounding the suicide, which was about as given in Saturday's JOURNAL.

After hearing the testimony, and witnessing the scene of the suicide, the jury rendered the following verdict:

That the deceased was named J. D. Newman, was a native of Sweden; was about 40 years old; that he came to his death on the 24th day of February, 1900 of strangulation by hanging himself with a common suspender attached to a piece of wood placed in a ventilator of a dark cell; we hereby exonerate the sheriff from any and all blame for such action on the part of said J.D. Newman, S. A. Hughes, foreman; T. Hurd, A. W. Veatch, T. P. Welch, J. B. Benoit, J. A. McCann, jurors."

ALWAYS TO THE FRONT.

The Journal Leads the Van as in the Past.

We not only give the WEEKLY JOURNAL, the best local and general weekly in the Willamette valley for $1 per year, but at great cost have made arrangements by which we now not only furnish the best general paper, but also the best farm Journal on the Pacific coast. Hereafter THE JOURNAL and the Pacific Farmer can be furnished at $1.25 per year, each being a first-class Dollar weekly of its kind. The Farmer has been the recognized leader in agricultural matters in the northwest for thirty years.

In these two papers you will get the latest Portland and local market reports.

Horticulture is given the prominence that the great industry deserves.

Dairymen say they get more information from its columns than from any other source.

The Grange has distinguished it as their official organ, and all farm organizations know they can depend on it to be true to their interest.

Hop Men find many valuable points and suggestions in it.

Sheep, Goat, and General Stock Men take it by the thousands for the information contained therein.

Poultrymen know it to be the only weekly in this section that makes a specialty of this branch of farming.

Bee Men have found it the only paper that makes any pretentions of looking after their interests.

Agriculture in all of its branches is treated by practical writers.

No offer like this ever appeared before. The WEEKLY JOURNAL one year, (or the Daily 4 months) and the Pacific Farmer only $1.25. Address, Suffrage in Idaho.

Mr. Rice, the State Treasurer of Idaho, is quite a friend of female suffrage, and thinks the women of Idaho have purified politics to a great extent, since the amendment was adopted giving them the ballot. "Neither party," he says, "dares to put up a notoriously intemperate or immoral man for office now, as the woman vote has to be figured on. This condition has the effect of bringing out the best men on both sides. Women, however, do not take the interest in elections that they ought, and it is hard to get them to come to the polls on election day. The present State Superintendent of Schools is a woman, and she seems to give good satisfaction in her administration of the office. Women justices of the peace are quite common in the remore precincts."

Health is a priceless jewel. Everybody admits that. Yet the people who protect their gold by burglar alarms and lock their diamonds in a steel vault, make not the least effort to protect the jewel they declare to be priceless. Some day they find the jewel is gone, stolen by thief Disease, and they are willing to give everything to get it back.

The quickest and surest way to the recovery of lost health, is by the use of that radical and rational remedy, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Diseases which originate in the stomach must be cured through the stomach. A host of chronic sufferers who had "doctored" for years for a diseased heart, liver or spleen, have at last used "Golden Medical Discovery" for the blood, stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition, and found a perfect cure of the hitherto incurable ailments. The most convincing argument for a trial of the "Golden Medical Discovery" is that it has cured so many people "given up" by the doctors.

There is no alcohol, cocaine, opium or other narcotic in "Golden Medical Discovery."

"I have long felt it my duty to acknowledge to you what your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Favorite Prescription' have done for me," writes Miss Alice Hampton of 19 Kentucky St., Lexington, Ky. "I had intermittent fever (bilious fever and ague) one year before taking your medicines, and not recovered entirely. Had a very bad cough. My arms and shoulders would ache and sometimes I would feel so unamb I thought I was dying. I had also a bad case of womb trouble from which I suffered great pain. Had it not been for Dr. Pierce's medicines I know I would have been in my grave. I have taken three bottles of each of your medicines."

For stomach, bowels and liver, when disordered, use Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

Brown Writes Smith All About What Happened to Jones.

CHICAGO, Ill., 19—.

MY DEAR SMITH: Your pointer was a peach. I left for Chicago immediately after I saw you, and of course bought my ticket over the Wisconsin Central Ry. from St. Paul to Chicago. I had plenty of time to St. Paul to go up town and get my supper, as my train leaves St. Paul at 7:40 p. m.

I returned to the depot about 7:20. When passing through the gates the gateman said: "There's your train to the right." I handed my grip to the genteelmanly porter, who placed it in my berth. (You will notice I call this my train, while it really belongs to the Wisconsin Central. I could not help but feel that I owned the train, and even the road, the employes are so courteous.) I then prepared myself for the comforts in store. Well, talk about traveling! I have traveled all over the wide world, but never had a more delightful trip than this one from St. Paul to Chicago over the Wisconsin Central Ry. I retired about 10 p. m., and enjoyed a good night's rest in the Pullman Palace car; only woke up once during the night, and that was when the porter punched me and said: "Mr. Brown, don't snore so loud, you disturb the rest of the passengers." I at once fell asleep, and awoke again about 7 a. m. and prepared myself for breakfast; went into the dining car at out 8 a. m., and partook of a most sumptuous meal. All meals are served a la carte, as you know. My entire trip was a delightful one. I will never cease to praise the Wisconsin Central Ry., and I know your sentiments are the same.

Our friend Jones reached Chicago via another route and was six hours late. Consequently he missed connections for New York, and cannot make connection there with steamer for the Paris Exposition. Hence has given up his trip, and will return home via the Wisconsin Central Ry.

Your friend,
BROWN.

P. S. Since you were in Chicago, the Wisconsin Central Ry have changed their terminals, and are now running into the Central Station, at Park Row and 12th st. This depot is also used by the Michigan Central Ry., Illinois Central and C. C. C. & St. L. 2-4tf

Salt Lake City—An Important Factor in Transcontinental Travel.

No one crossing the continent can afford to cut Salt Lake City from his route. The attractions of the place, including the Mormon Temple, Tabernacle and Church institutions, the Great Salt Lake—deader and denser than the Dead Sea in the Holy Land—the picturesque environment and the Warm Sulphur and Hot Springs, are greater to the square yard than any locality on the American continent.

The RIO GRANDE WESTERN RAILWAY connecting on the East with the Denver & Rio Grande and Colorado Midland Railways and on the West with the Southern Pacific (Central Route) and Oregon Short Line, is the only transcontinental line passing directly through Salt Lake City. The route through Salt Lake City via the RIO GRANDE WESTERN RAILWAY is famous all the year round. On account of the equable climate of Utah and Colorado it is just as popular in winter as in summer. Burlington Route

You Can Get a Lower Berth.

With one exception the through trains of the Burlington Route are almost invariably well-filled. The exception is our St. Paul-Chicago Limited. On the limited there is usually room and to spare.

Don't infer that it is neither so fine, nor so fast, as ANY train of ANY other line between St Paul and Chicago. On the contrary, there is no more beautiful train in America. It has electric light, steam heat, wide vestibules the most satisfactory dining-car service on the continent—and lower berth for everybody.
