About Primarles, BROOKS, Or., March 12, 1900.

In answer to Earl Race, I would say will Mr. Race show the law for swearing any man that he will vote or afiliate with any party in order that he may be allowed to vote, I will say a man is not sworn as to who or what party he is gomasse to sing its preises. There's nothing that he is an American citizen, 21 years old, has been in this state 6 months, and that he is resident of the county and precinct. Then it would be unlawful to undertake to swear a man that he would vote for any man or party at any future time a man is not sworn as to THE SCHOOL ELECTION what man or party, but that he has a right to vote. Now at a Republican primary election wobody but Republicans can vote, as there are no Democrats to elect now all of the primation will be held all over Marion county on the same day and time and each Republican should go and vote.

105 Now the constitution of Oregon says The weather was beautiful and a fair all elections shall be free and equal, vote was polled, but not half the votes in How, free to vote the Democratic tickets or any other ticket? No, but free to vote The vote in the different precincts for who they please-Democrat, Republican or Populist, and that is free and equal. Now as to swearing men that ⁹¹ they will vote for any party or have voted with any other man or party is 108 all contrary to law. WILLIAM G. EVANS.
