Roberts' Work of Harmonizing Pleases His People

DEMONSTRATIONS AS LADY ROBERTS SAILS FOR SOUTH AFRICA

Mafeking Again Reported Free -- Dundonnald's Men Skirmish the Boers -- Commandant Olivier Evacuates Before British

By Associated Press to the Journal. LONDON, March 17.—The peaceful conquest of the Orange Free State progresses so evenly that it is believed there will be little or no fighting until Roberts reaches the Vaal river. In the meanwhile the fate of Mafeking remains unknown. The revolt of the Cape Dutch in the northeast seems to have its break broken. Girard, a young Canadian officer who rules supreme over the railroads, is putting his system to a severe test in endeavor to pour supplies from Cape Town into Bloemfontein. Dr. Leyds is believed to have come to London, but nothing is known here about his arrival.

ENCOUNTERING SOME BOERS

LADYSMITH, March 17.—Friday Lord Dundonnald's cavalry patrols the reconnoitered Free State border from Basutoland to the DeBoers Pass, where a slight skirmish occurred, in which two British were wounded. The Boers were also encountered in some strength at Van Reenan's pass and at Tintwa's pass.

THE BOERS EVACUATED

BERGENDORF, March 17.—Commandant Olivier evacuated his position in front of the British during the night. Several of his forces have surrendered.

PACIFYING THE TRANSVAALERS.

LONDON, March 16.—Lord Roberts has sent the following dispatch to the war office:

"Bloemfontein, Friday, March 16.—General Clements crossed the Orange River, Saturday. Repairs to the railway bridge, at Norval's Post, have commenced, and it will shortly be ready for traffic. General Pole-Carew telegraphs his arrival at Springfontein, so that Bloemfontein now is practically in rail communication with Cape Town.

"My proclamation is already having an excellent effect. Several hundred burghers have expressed their intention to surrender their arms and return to their occupations. The resident commissioner of Basutoland reports that 800 Boers lately arrived from Bloemfontein, and that a further contingent from Allival North was only waiting to know the terms of my proclamation to surrender. They had refused to attend a council at Kroonstad, to which President Steyn had summoned them."

ENTRENCHING AT VEREEINGING

LONDON, March 17.—The Daily Mail has the following dispatch from Lourenco-Marques, dated Friday, March 16: "Entrenching is proceeding on the Vaal River at Vereeinging. Late arrivals from Pretoria say that the Boers themselves now admit that their cause is hopeless. General Lucas Meyer refuses to fight again, and has returned to his farm. General Schalkberger has also returned, and the burghers are going home by hundreds.

IS MAFEKING STILL BESIEGED?

LONDON, March 17.—It is persistently reiterated that Mafeking has been relieved, but the war office has no confirmation of the rumor.

LORD SAILSBURY'S BRUSHING ASIDE.

LONDON, March 17.—There is no doubt that the overtures of the United States in regard to the war with South Africa have sensibly irritated Great Britain as a whole, while circles especially friendly to the United States express regret at the opportunity offered to critics who testify to the "interference" of Washington at the inopportune moment when the supreme self-sufficiency of the British empire is the predominant feeling of the day. Everywhere one hears expressions of satisfaction that the language of Lord Salisbury in "brushing aside" President McKinley's proffer was so extremely definite as to all possibilities of a repetition of offers from any source.

CECIL RHODES' CRITICISES ARMY.

NEW YORK, March 17.—A dispatch to the World from London says: Julian Ralph, in a letter from Kimberley, quotes Cecil Rhodes as saying in an interview: "A marvelous thing about England is her luck. We have made the silliest mistakes and have had some of the most incompetent generals but we are coming out all right as we always do. I am glad to have Kimberley relieved, of course, but in heaven's name why was it not done sooner? Why did they not do it at first what was so readily done at last?"

ONE SERIOUSLY INJURED.

Team Ran Away and Threw Two Occupants Out of the Hack. This afternoon about 2:30 a team belonging to John Aasen, of Haysville, became frightened on the corner of Commercial and Court street and ran away, throwing the occupants out and severely injuring Mrs. Henry Beeler and her daughter, aged about seventeen. The team was standing in front of Brown & Company grocery store and ran north on Commercial street colliding with a wagon in front of Savage & Kiehl, completely turning the hack over and throwing Mrs. Beeler a distance of about thirty feet where she signaled on her face. The cause of the runaway was a boy who breaking, that was being stretched by some of the telephone men.

She was badly cut about the head and was carried into D. J. Fry's drug store where medical aid was summoned. Although she is badly bruised the doctors think she will recover. As the Justice goes to press Mrs. Beeler is recovering consciousness. The young lady was bruised considerably but by extreme good fortune was not seriously injured. At three o'clock Mrs. Beeler and daughter were still in a semi-conscious condition and will be taken to the hospital.

The motion to reconsider the plan of organization adopted at the last meeting was carried. Prof. Jory's resolutions (the Sidney platform) were now offered as a substitute and adopted.

GEN. JO. WHEELER SAYS THE WAR'S OVER

Will Now Push His Claim for the Seat in Congress.

By Associated Press to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—When General Joseph Wheeler arrived in this city from Atlanta he went over to the war department. In the absence of Secretary Root he reported formally to Adjutant-General Corbin, thus complying with the order from the department which brought him from Manila. The general was in the uniform of a brigadier-general of the volunteer army. He looked the picture of health; better than when he left Washington for Manila.

He gave General Corbin a brief description of the conditions in Luzon. He insisted that the war is over, and that nothing more is to be done except to run down a few guerrillas and irregulars. There is difficulty in this work, he said, and there is danger, too, but its prosecution is not "war." Ambuscades were frequent and annoying, and it was not easy to tell whether the hidden foe was strong or weak. Three men had been mistaken for a company in some cases. The general said that the American

A NAVAL ORDER

Intended to Eliminate Civil Government From the Service.

By Associated Press to the Journal.

NEW YORK, March 17.—A dispatch from Washington says: "An order has been issued to the navy by Secretary Long, installing Rear Admiral Crowhiser as chief of staff and creating a "general board" for the purpose of controlling the fleet. The order is understood to be in the nature of an opening wedge in a movement to eliminate as far as possible civil government in the service.

troops are doing splendid work there. They are sound and healthy, and in quite as good shape as they would be at home, engaged in a similar service. This is owing in a measure to the excellent care for their men exhibited by officers, and to the watchful precautions of the staff of the army.

General Wheeler said that as soon as his resignation is accepted by the president he intends to make the issue as to his right to a seat in the House of Representatives as a Representative from Alabama. He says the issue will not be one for the decision of Speaker Henderson. He will present himself at the bar of the House, and ask to be sworn in. As he understands the rules, the speaker will have no option, but must submit the matter to the House. General Wheeler is confident the decision will be in his favor, though he realizes that there may be some delay, owing to a reference of his case to the committee on elections.

At the conclusion of the interview with General Corbin, General Wheeler went over to the white house, his purpose being to secure speedy action upon his resignation. It is learned that such action has been withheld by the president only to legalize General Wheeler's traveling expenses and per diem up to the moment of his arrival in Washington. General Wheeler was with the president some time. On leaving the white house he said his resignation had not yet been accepted, but he expects a decision will be reached within a few days.

More Trespasser. Two more hoboes were rounded up last night by Constable Minto in a house in New Park belonging to G. W. Johnson. They were brought before Justice H. A. Johnson and consigned to the county jail for 7 days.

It is respectfully suggested to the property owners who are interested in city taxes, that if they would make their complaints of these trespassing traps to the city recorder or police the fees resulting therefrom would go into the city treasury and lighten city taxes by that much.

If complaints are made to Justice Johnson or Constable Minto, they are simply doing their duty in prosecuting the offenders, and are entitled to their fees. At the same time it is to the selfish interest of city taxpayers to have the related city officers attend to these matters and turn the fees into the city treasury.

POPULISTS TALK

Over Methods of Organization and Decision to Call a Convention.

At the Populist meeting a speaker told how in Missouri a man had served two years for $1200 as a county officer, and had put over $7000 in the re-landed Democratic legislature enacted a law to make it a crime to offer to fill an office for less than the law allowed. There is a court decision to this effect in Oregon, if we are not mistaken.

The motion to reconsider the plan of organization adopted at the last meeting was carried. Prof. Jory's resolutions (the Sidney platform) were now offered as a substitute and adopted.

Chairman Weeks announced that there would be a state convention April 12.

Prof. Jory now moved as an expression of opinion, that fusion had been disastrous in the past and was generally unwise.

Mr. Burford seconded. John W. Jory spoke in support of the motion saying, saying that three-fourths of the Populists of Sidney were opposed to fusion.

Mr. Guiss asked if this was to go to the people; why should this committee send out its opinion in advance to influence the people.

Nathan Morris, of Marion spoke against fusion. He had been a populist for thirty years and had no use for it.

John M. Payne said he had a warm place in his heart for the last Republican legislature, that had passed the initiative and referendum.

Mr. White of Monitor was in favor of Union. In Union there was strength and salvation. He was a taxpayer and was willing to stand by other taxpayers for what was right and that was good government and cheap taxation. The rich man did not pay one tenth the taxes the poorer classes did. He favored a citizen's movement to clean out the courthouse ring just as the city of Salem had done.

Those who thought fusion was unwise numbered eight. It was not decided whether it was carried or not. M. H. Speer said there was a citizen's uprising all over this country. A few Democrats thought their party was not dead. A Democrat told him the Democratic party was killed by the proceed-

SOLDIERS UNNECESSARY

Military Defeated the Ends Of Justice at Couer d' Alene

MASTER MECHANIC GILL TESTIFIES TO THIS FACT

Says the Men Were Orderly and that the Military Prove the Guilty Ones to the Mountains

UNCLAIMED BODIES OF OREGON SOLDIERS

By Associated Press to the Journal. WASHINGTON, March 17.—At the Couer d' Alene investigation, Allen F. Gill, of Spokane, was placed on the stand. He was the master mechanic of the Tiger & Poorman mill, at Burke, Idaho. He was at Burke the day the Bancker Hill mine was blown up. All the men were at work except four.

On the 4th of May a number of them, including himself, were arrested by the military. He testified to the general harsh treatment suffered by the arrested miners. There was no necessity for soldiers he said. In his opinion the advent of the military defeated the ends of justice, as the guilty parties escaped into the mountains. Gill said the men in the Couer d' Alene district were law-abiding. They were not as a class inferior to those of any other mining community. The committee adjourned until Monday.

SERMONS BY TELEPHONE

By Associated Press to the Journal. COLUMBUS, Or., March 17.—Rev. H. H. Barbour, pastor of the First Baptist church, of this city, proposes to dispense his sermons by telephone to those who are unable to attend services at the church. The church has been wired by the Citizens' Telephone company, and as soon as their lines are in operation, Dr. Barbour will cause a big transmitter to be hung on the gallery, which will supply as many private lines as are connected with it. Dr. Barbour explained that in this way the members of the church can stay at home and hear all the service including the singing, the prayers and the sermon.
