JOHANNESBURG MINES REPORTED

UNINJURED BY WATER

All Damage to English Property Must Be Paid By the Perpetrators--England's Version of News.

By Associated Press to the Journal.

LONDON, March 21.—The only news from South Africa showing any activity on either side comes from Warrentown, north of Kimberley, where some desultory fighting occurred Sunday, resulting in the retreat of the Boers towards Christiana. Nothing comes from Col. Plumer, and Mafeking apparently still awaits relief. Pretoria account of the skirmish at Fourteen Streams March 16, says the engagement lasted half an hour with the result of one burgher slightly wounded. The same dispatch announces the arrival at the Transvaal capital of General Schalkburger from Nata.

A corps of young Boers from the farms surrounding Bloemfontein, under an imperial officer have been detailed for police work, and to prevent the further looting of abandoned farms by Kaffirs. It is said that when Kruger left Bloemfontein after his last visit there, Steyns parting remark was "mind that the British do not catch you, or you will get better quarters at St. Helena than I." The Boers at Alwal North are reported as still holding a position in the hills on the Free State side.

POSSIBLE TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

By Associated Press to the Journal.

LONDON, March 21.—The Colonial Office has telegraphed to Cape Town the text of the proclamation concerning the destruction of property. This will not be published in London until after its promulgation in South Africa, but it is known it will convey an intimation that any wanton destruction of British property during the war will be regarded as warranting a claim for compensation and as justifying a levy upon private property, should the resources of the Transvaal Republic prove inadequate. The fact that the proclamation is issued by the colonial office is regarded as a significant indication that the Republic will be administered as crown colonies. In this connection it is understood that the leaders of the opposition in parliament now admit that no other settlement is possible, since the republics insist upon their demand for absolute independence. In view of this, the efforts of the Liberals will be confined to securing in the settlement the best treatment of the Dutch population, including security against their disfranchisement.

It is becoming regarded as quite a settled matter that should the war be ended, as it now hoped, before June, the Government will dissolve Parliament and appeal to the country on the basis of a successful South African policy. Should the war drag on, dissolution will be postponed until next Spring. In any event, one of the foremost planks of the Government platform will be army reorganization.

JOHANNESBURG MINES NOT HURT.

By Associated Press to the Journal.

LONDON, March 21.—A correspondent of the Daily News at Bloemfontein, telegraphing Monday, March 19, says: "I learn from Johannesburg that it is not true that the mines have been flooded or otherwise damaged beyond the fact that the machinery is suffering from disease. My informant declares that the whole story was fabricated to court sympathy."

M'KINLEY TO MAKE CHANGES.

By Associated Press to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—There are continual rumors of cabinet changes, and assertions are made that Hay, Gage and Hitchcock, and possibly Root, will go. It is well known that a number of Republicans are very much opposed to Gage, Hitchcock and Root, because they do not grant all the spoils that they might by evading the civil service law. Some of the weak-kneed want Hay

THE SOLDIER DEAD

Passed Through on This Morning's Overland Train.

Company K. Turns Out to do the Military Honors, Funeral Sunday at Portland.

In accordance with the instructions of Asst. Adgt. Gen. Willett, Maj. Leabo took steps last evening to pay proper honors to the bodies of the dead Oregon volunteers as they passed through on the overland train this morning. When the train arrived Major Leabo was at the depot, with about 25 men of Co. K, under command of Captain Walter Lyon.

As the train drew in the company presented arms, then moved down to the car containing the bodies and stood at parade rest, again presenting arms as the train pulled out.

There were 10 bodies aboard as follows: Michael P. Crowley, Company D; Bert J. Clarke, Company A; George Eicheimer, Company G; Jones Kelly, Company H; R. A. Odell, Company L; Robert D. Hoffman, Company M; Henry Payne, Company M; Charles R. Rubart, Company L; L. V. Strawderman, Company L.

All the flags in Oregon will fly at half-mast next Sunday, the day when Oregon's dead will be buried. Plans for the general funeral have not been entirely completed, but will be this evening at a mass meeting of the Second Oregon Volunteers at the armory in Portland.

General Summers' idea is to make the ceremonies as simple and impressive as possible. All the bodies will be laid side by side at the armory, and will be under a guard of honor. Relatives, friends and the general public will be allowed to review the bodies from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m., Saturday. The services will be held at 12 o'clock Sunday in the armory. The bodies will be in the center of the main hall. Grouped immediately about them will be relatives, then a ring of state officials, and Second Oregon men, and outside of this the general public. The procession will move out of the armory at 1 o'clock, and wend its way towards the cemetery. A military escort will lead, followed by the coffins, each of which will have six pallbearers from the ranks of the Second Oregon.

ADMIRAL DEWEY IS BETTER.

SAVANNAH, March 21.—Admiral Dewey, who was taken ill yesterday, is but little improved today. He is unable to leave his rooms. He promises to review the military parade this afternoon and attend the banquet tonight for a short time.

The program for the entertainment of Admiral and Mrs. Dewey was broken last evening by the illness of the Admiral. A public reception had been arranged for the hours between 9 and 11 o'clock, and 5,000 persons gathered at the De Sota Hotel to greet the distinguished visitors. But the Admiral was too ill to appear, and thus the function had to be called off. The Admiral's attack is of indigestion.

MURDERED MEN UNDER THE ICE

VICTORIA, March 21.—A steamer from Skagway reports the bodies of Clayton and his missing companions, Relie and Olsson, found under the river ice, and enough evidence is obtained to convict O'Brien. Seven Indians have been arrested at Kinkawan for the murder of Mr. and Mrs. Horton.

WHO CAN EXCAVATE THE SEA

GOLD AT CAPE NOME?

A Compromise on the Puerto Rican Bill Reached By the Conference Committees.

By Associated Press to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—(house) Dalls presented a report for the appointment of a special committee of nine to consider all proposed legislation relative to the celebration of the hundredth anniversary of the purchase of Louisiana territory at St. Louis.

The house then resumed consideration of the Loud bill relating to second class mail matter.

There is not obtainable from the state department any statement that would throw light upon the rather peculiar declaration of the Canadian premier that the high joint commission would reassemble. As far as can be learned there have been no recent exchanges between the two governments.

WHO CAN DIG CAPE NOME GOLD

WASHINGTON, March 21.—(Senate) Turner offered a resolution directing the secretary of war to inform the senate whether any concession to excavate the gold-bearing bed of the sea in the vicinity of Cape Nome or other Alaskan waters had been made to any individual, corporation or association by the secretary of war.

The resolution was agreed to. Hale called up the measure making appropriations to supply the additional urgent deficiencies. The bill passed. The bill to authorize judges of district courts to appoint stenographic reporters passed. The bill to provide a civil code for the district of Alaska was then taken up.

PUERTO RICAN COMPROMISE

By Associated Press to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The conferees on the Puerto Rican appropriation bill have agreed upon a compromise measure. The senate conferees receded from the senate amendment limiting the appropriation to the revenue collected on Puerto Rican importations until January 1 last, and restored the clause in the house bill applying to future revenues, reading as follows: "Together with any future customs revenues collected on importations from Puerto Rico since January 1, 1900, or that shall hereafter be collected under existing laws."

The provision in the Senate amendment specifying the purpose for which the money shall be used is retained, but an addition is made declaring specifically that it shall be for the aid and relief of the Puerto Ricans. The bill, as agreed upon, reads as follows:

"That the sum of $2,000,000, being the amount of customs revenue received importations by the United States from Puerto Rico since the evacuation of Puerto Rico by the Spanish forces on the 18th of October, 1898, to the 1st of January, 1900, together with any further customs revenue collected on importations from Puerto Rico since the 1st of January, 1900, or that shall hereafter be collected under existing laws, shall be placed at the disposal of the president to be used for the government now existing, and which may hereafter be established in Puerto Rico, and for the aid and relief of the people thereof and for the public education, public works and other governmental and public purposes therein until otherwise provided by law, and the revenues herein referred to, already collected and to be collected under existing law, are hereby appropriated for the purpose herein specified out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated."

COEUR D'ALENE MILITARY RIOT

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The examination of Gill was continued before the Coeur d'Alene investigation committee today. The witness told of his visit to the "bull pen." At that time the prisoner chanced to put his fingers through a hole inside the prison, thereupon a colored soldier on guard outside showed his bayonet in to the protruding finger, inflicting a bloody wound. A copy of the permit required of those seeking work in the district was introduced. It recited facts concerning the holder, that he was not a member of a union, that he took an oath to obey the law.
