ONE-SIDED PRIMARIES.

Nothing But Anti-McBride Tickets in the Field.

Mayor Bishop and Tilmon Ford Head the slates in the Big Republican Wards.

After a great deal of fuss and flurry the McBride faction has entirely failed to show up at the Republican primaries in this city. Not a ticket is out but those known as anti-McBride. The only question asked by voters, when approached, is whether it is an anti-McBride ticket. None others are wanted.

Some of the most pronounced anti-McBride Republicans are at the head of the big delegations. While a few McBride workers are on the slates, they will cut such a small figure in the convention so far as this city is concerned, that it will be practically unanimous.

Some Salem Delegations. SALEM NO. 1. Wm. Waldo, Geo. Dunsford, W. D. Claggett, C. L. McNary, S. Farrar, L. L. Pearce, H. C. Tarpley, A. M. Southwick, F. C. Perrine, F. W. Waters.

SALEM NO. 2. C. P. Bishop, G. H. Robertson, F. A. Turner, Floyd Dayton, J. J. Murphy, John H. McNary, R. A. Crossan, E. M. Lafore, T. K. Ford, J. N. Smith, C. A. Bort, R. J. Fleming, R. E. Moore, W. M. Cherrington, M. W. Hunt, J. Purvine, Thos. Kay, H. D. Patton.

SALEM NO. 3. Tilmon Ford, A. A. Jessup, Ira E. Allen, John Kaiser, E. M. Crossan, Emma C. Hunter, W. H. Odell, Geo. B. Gray, E. W. Carey, John W. Reynolds, Alonzo Gesner, Geo. G. Brown.

SALEM NO. 4. J. S. Graham, W. A. Moore, F. Coffey, P. D. Prunty, C. J. Atwood, Frank Hughes, A. W. Prescott, M. Montgomery, B. B. Herrick, Walter Lowe, A. A. Lee, D. B. Stevens, H. Smith, H. H. Vandervert, F. A. Legg, R. C. Shelton, F. A. Wiggins.

This slate is headed Gatch for congress. SOUTH SALEM. John Scott, A. Dune, Fred Hurst, M. Dorman, W. P. Babcock, J. J. Hall, Geo. W. Armstrong, Road Supervisor, Jesse Macey.

NORTH SALEM. T. J. Cronin, J. H. McCormick, M. M. High, H. C. Eppley, Geo. C. Will, Frank Lynch, Geo. W. Jones, John Knight, E. T. Hall, H. Cleveland.

NEW PARK SLATES. Two candidates for congress are contesting this precinct: TONGUE SLATE. GATCH SLATE. P. G. Norgren, D. M. Crouse, A. W. Drager, Watson Townsend, G. W. Davis, W. J. Irwin, R. D. Teter, C. H. Cannon, Hamlin Smith, L. W. Archison, Benj. Irving, Hamlin F. Smith.

The following delegations are reported elected: GERMAIN. J. E. Zaigler, M. Mitchell, E. Dupins, S. W. Jones, W. S. Taylor, C. C. Sizemund, David Morien.

ST. PAUL. J. L. Cook, Theo. Boutin, Julien Prevost, Jno. A. Picard. At Woodburn there is a spirited contest, as usual, but both slates are for anti-McBride delegations.

COMPROMISE SLATES. Result in Very Light Attendance at Republican Primaries. W. A. Prescott, the Oregonian reporter, who is an active Republican worker, sends this:

There is evidence in Salem that compromises have been affected in all four of the Salem precincts and that the fight which was expected in the primaries will come off in the convention. It is reported that only one slate of delegates to the county convention will be presented to each precinct. This means that those who have contended for unpledged delegations have won, and that McBride must take his chances with others when the convention shall come to name a Legislative ticket. It probably means also, that there will be no McBride slate in the convention. The delay in the contest does not promise to make it any the less warm however, and the questions not determined in the primaries will be left for settlement in the convention.

Unless there should be some misunderstanding or difference not now apparent, the primary election will be very quiet. A leader in one of the precincts said that one reason for the compromise on delegates was that by avoiding a contest both sides would save the expense that necessarily follows an effort to get out a full vote of the precinct. In this concession, it is remarked that a Salem cigar dealer says that this is the cheapest political campaign he ever saw. He says that neither the candidates nor the political leaders are spending as much money as usual for cigars.

DON. M. DICKINSON MAKES A KICK. Associated Press to the Journalist. Washington, March 21.--Ex Postmaster General Don M. Dickinson said of the Nebraska Democratic platform: "I hoped the Democratic party would be allowed to write its own platform this year. When the Lincoln party begins by re-adopting the Chicago platform entire and reasserts it in particulars, and we are given to understand that this platform is to be offered to the Democrats later on perhaps we will be disappointed."

Dr. D. A. Paine of Eugene has let the contract for the erection of a new residence.

Next Tuesday will be a great day for the ladies of Salem. Three millinery openings.

Judge Stephen A. Lowell joins Gov. Geer in declaring he will not be a candidate for senator.

Ed. Croisan says there is not much in politics; yet he is the father of a five ten months' old boy.

Register: If you have a German neighbor show him the call printed in German in THE JOURNAL.

Albany people get most of their fun and excitement out at the depot. Salem people get theirs out of THE JOURNAL.

The paper on "The Truth About Intoxicants," that caused so much discussion at the Marion County Institute will appear in the Truth for April.

The Journal must decline to correct errors and misrepresentations made by other newspapers. It will cheerfully correct its own mistakes. Let others do the same.

It is understood that several of the ladies who engaged passage with Editor Fletcher to Cape Nome have gone back on him, on the ground that he has engaged too many.

The farmer's meeting at Woodburn, next Friday afternoon, will do quite as much good in politics as the various county conventions called at Salem are apt to accomplish.

At the Farmer's Congress at Woodburn Friday afternoon of this week there will be presented a complete showing of county finances for the past eight years. It will be done to throw light on the situation, not to blacken any man's reputation or for, or against any party.

In speaking of alcohol in patent medicines largely consumed by Christian people who denounce the liquor traffic, Mrs. Laura Faxon Additon is reported to have said Jamaica ginger contained 95 per cent alcohol. This is a little strong for one so generally fair and truthful as Mrs. Additon.

Three state conventions will be held to see if the politicians cannot put new and untried men into two state offices now filled by competent gentlemen against whom not a word can be said, and to send inexperienced men to congress to learn to find their way about the departments. Such is machine politics.

SEWER CONNECTION ORDINANCE.

Passed By the City Council and is Now in Force.

Lighting and Heating Franchises Laid Over Until Next Regular Meeting.

The Salem city council met last evening in regular session. In the absence of Mayor Bishop owing to illness Recorder Judah presided. All members of the council were present, except A. B. Boren.

The ordinance committee reported the ordinance granting F. R. Anson a franchise for lighting and heating, and recommended that it do pass with amendments adding sections six and seven. Mr. Geeser moved the adoption of the report.

Mr. Barrows moved to amend by ordering the ordinance and committee report laid over two weeks. Carried.

The ordinance committee reported favorably upon the sewer connection ordinance, with amendments placing the execution of the ordinance in the hands of the council instead of the street commissioner. Adopted.

FAMILY PAINTS

These two words just about tell the paint story today, and just at the season when you want to brighten up some little thing around the house, the paint story is interesting. Family paint means paint put up in cans ready for use--so that anyone can use it. It comes in twenty-four colors--in several size cans of 25, 35, 50, 75, $1.50 and $1.75, so you can get as little or as much as you want. The kind we keep is made by the Sherwin-Williams Co., the highest class paint makers today. We've all the other kinds of paint this firm makes. Come in and let us talk paint to you--we can't put all our paint knowledge in print. We've painted brushes too--any kind--any price.
