

A Novelty That Will Take

Nothing in the line of fabrics has become more popular than satinet, treated by the new secret process which gives them a luster equal to satin or silk and one which will not wash or wear off. Some houses call it "Mercedized", some call it "Amalisk" and others call it "Lustral". It's all the same and it's satisfactory for almost any use, skirts, waists, linings, etc. We have just received a big lot of

LOCAL POLITICS.

Demand Growing Stronger for a Business County Administration.
As the matter now stands, there is only an incomplete ticket in the field in opposition to the Republicans. The Populist and Democratic central committees meet Saturday to finish the Citizens' ticket.

Prominent Democrats frankly acknowledge that a mistake was made in putting up the ticket the way they did. If the convention had completed the legislative ticket and adjourned, as the Populists did, it would have paved the way to a more complete union of the real reform forces of the county. It must not be forgotten that there is a large Republican element in the county that wants reduced taxes and real reforms just as sincerely as the reform elements of any party. This element is strong in the county and in the city. The Democratic convention missed its hold on this element by not endorsing Republicans who have made a clean record. This mistake can still be corrected by asking the men thus nominated to withdraw and endorsing the Republican county officials who have given the people a faithful non-partisan administration. A prominent Republican said today: "A public official who does his duty fearlessly and works no graft on the people, as Hall and Durbin have done, are as much entitled to credit for courage in standing at their post of duty as the heroes of the Philippine war."

There is a strong feeling among county people in Marion County that they do not want a Citizen's movement dominated by any party or faction. It must be rid of that feeling entirely and those who go before the people on a Citizen's ticket must be able to advocate reform for reform's sake and not for personal or party reasons.

The people can be trusted to do what is right. The people want to put an end to ring rule in Marion county, from the biggest bosses to Constable Minto's little tramp graft. They are going to do it if they have a fair chance. Political managers do not take the same view as the people or they would not be so busy in forming a ticket as they have been. A prominent Republican in the past, who expects to support a non-partisan business administration of this county writes to THE JOURNAL: "The start in the right direction was made. But we must keep faith with all elements, or we will not deserve success, and will cut but a poor figure as reformers. I am of the candid opinion that to stand as reformers for the sake of reform we should have endorsed those on the Republican ticket, who, along that line are objectionable. This would have placed us on solid and defensive ground. Without this is done all our efforts will be futile and we will have to endure a continuance of the abuses that now grind us down."

DEATH OF F. S. DEARBORN.

Passed Away at Six This Morning After Five Months' Illness.
Frank S. Dearborn died at 6 o'clock this morning at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, of typhoid fever.

He had been making a brave fight against the disease for five months, being confined to his bed nearly all of that time. On Wednesday, the 4th of this month, he was removed from his mother's home in South Salem to the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, but the change was without avail, and he steadily sank until death ended the struggle.

Frank S. Dearborn was born in Eugene, Oregon, Feb. 12, 1862, and had lived nearly all his life in Salem. He obtained his education in the public schools of this city and at the Willamette University.

He was for some time in the employ of J. K. Gill & Co., in Portland, and then returned to Salem and worked in the bookstore of T. McF. Patton. About 12 years ago he bought out the book and stationery business of J. Benson Starr on State street where Barr's jewelry store is now located. He removed to the location on Commercial street where he has successfully conducted this business ever since.

He was a quiet and unassuming young man, of strict business integrity, and had a large circle of warm friends. He was an exemplary son, and his aged mother, with whom he made his home, will sorely miss him.

Besides his mother, he leaves three sisters—Mrs. Scott Booth, of this city, Mrs. A. McCully and Mrs. Shelley Morgan, of Portland; and one brother, Rick Dearborn, who is attending an Eastern college. At the last he was surrounded by those he loved best, his mother, his aunt, Mrs. E. S. Kearney, two sisters who reside in Portland, and Miss Lou Hirsch.

He was a member of the order of Elks and of Oregon Cedar Camp, No. 5244, M. W. of A., in which he carried $1000 insurance.

The remains will be brought up from Portland on this evening's train and taken direct to the home in South Salem. The funeral will probably take place Thursday, but arrangements have not yet been completed.

D. J. Fry Druggist.

Fry's Sarsaparilla is good for that Spring Feeling--75c--try it.

U. S. DEPT. OF AGRICULTURE.
Climate and Crop Bulletin of the Weather Bureau.
(Oregon section for the week ending April 16.)

GENERAL SUMMARY.
During the middle portion of the week frequent showers occurred in all sections, while the opening and closing days were sunshiny and pleasant. In the northern portion of the State the temperatures have been about normal, while in the southern portion it has been cooler than usual.

Light frosts occurred over the northwestern portion of the State on Sunday morning and over the eastern portion on both Sunday and Monday mornings. These frosts were too light to do any material damage, but the frosts that occurred a week ago have seriously injured fruit in some sections of Southern Oregon.

The peach, plum, cherry and pear trees in the Rogue River valley have suffered the most, while here and there in other sections some little damage has been done but not enough to in any way affect the total yields. Strawberries have been hit back a couple of weeks through the frosts nipping the the blooms that were out at the time of their occurrence, and a good crop of this fruit will soon be in market. Fruit trees in the Willamette valley apparently escaped unharmed, but some sections report Italian and French prunes to be dropping badly, which may be after effect of the late frosts.

Winter wheat, oats and barley are doing exceptionally well, although some few complaints are heard in portions of the Willamette valley of winter wheat turning yellow on account of the lack of sufficient dry, sunshiny weather. Spring wheat is now about all sown and is coming up nicely. Small grain has suffered no harm whatever from the frosts. The boys are up from two to three feet or more and no complaint is heard about missing hills. Garden truck continues in fine condition and many potatoes are being planted in Southern Oregon. The grass on the ranges and in the fields is growing nicely and there is plenty of feed for stock. The wool clip is very heavy this year.

WILLAMETTE VALLEY.
Zena.—The frost appears to have done favorably to the growth of all vegetation. Light frost on the 10th and 11th did no damage. Early gardens are doing fine. Farm work is progressing slowly, as the land is too wet to work. Fruit of all kinds are in a splendid condition. All vegetation is from two to four weeks earlier than last year.

CRABTREE.—There was some farm work done on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, but it has been almost entirely suspended on account of rain. There has been but little spraying done in this vicinity, notwithstanding the fact that fruit trees are showing signs of injury. Irrigation.—Continued rains during the week have suspended all farm operations. Fall grain needs sunshine; the lower blades are turning yellow. Spring-sown grain is looking excellent. Cherries are setting well on the trees, and the indications are that the fruit crop was not injured by the late frost.

Douglas county.—The three sharp frosts at the beginning of the week seem to have done serious damage to fruit. The week has been quite rainy and very little farming has been done. Fruit buds fair to be a full crop.

Josephine county.—The hard frosts of the 8th, 9th and 10th did immense damage to the fruit interests.

Morrow county.—The last seven days have been favorable for growing crops. Rain fell Wednesday and Thursday. Grain is in excellent condition. Grass is growing fine on the ranges and stock is in good condition. Frosts occurred on Saturday and Sunday. The fruit crop is damaged in some localities. Summer fallow soil is in good condition for plowing.

Umatilla county.—The week has been unfavorable for farming on account of

Order of Pendo.
The local members of the Order of Pendo are in pleasant expectation over the announcement that the Supreme Counciler Tugwell, of Tacoma, is to be here and make them a visit on next Friday evening. This is Mr. Tugwell's first visit in an official way and he will find an energetic, prosperous organization waiting for him.
