BOBS CONDEMNS HIS GENERALS

By Associated Press to the Journal. LONDON, April 18.—Lord Roberts' criticism of Buller, Warren and Thornycroft is the continued topic of interest.

The Globe declares: "A more pitiable record of indecision in plan and confusion in execution we have seldom read."

In a long editorial the Daily News speaks of the "somewhat appalling language" of the dispatch, and goes on to say: "Upon the whole, these despatches are disquieting and disheartening in no ordinary degree."

The Standard, which is supposed to be in the confidence of the government, says: "It is scarcely likely that the publication of Lord Roberts' dispatch is without a purpose."

stake, to wound private susceptibilities." The Daily Chronicle confesses to "a feeling of some indignation when reading the extraordinary passages" of the dispatch.

The Times says: "Lord Roberts' severe condemnation is justified only too clearly by the official narrative of what took place. The story is painful, but it is well for the nation and for the army that it should be told clearly and simply, without concealment or exaggeration."

Whether the government has any special purpose or not in publishing the dispatch, the way in which it has been received will make it most difficult to retain the censured commanders in active service.
