In the Spring

When we would like to feel strong, vigorous and ambitious, we are weak, tired and dull; appetite

Take
is poor, food is not relished, sleep does not seem to refresh, we go to bed tired and get up tired. This

America's condition is because of thin, impure, sluggish blood which is unequal to the demands of the body

Greatest
for more life, vigor, energy, strength. Nature cries for help, and it is to be found in Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier, blood enricher, blood vitalizer.

seats for the excellent concert in the May Festival, beginning Wednesday night. You should, in justice to yourself, attend the Artists concert the first night, the Grand Oratorio Thursday

Annual Meeting.
The annual meeting of the Lallah drainage district was held at Chemawa Monday afternoon. The principal business before the meeting was the election of trustees to succeed those retiring, and A. Bush, W. M. Kaiser and John Knight were elected to succeed H.
W. Cottle, J. H. Albert and Walter Morley. Among those attending the meeting from Salem were: J. H. Albert, Walter Morley and Tilmor Ford.

THE HIGHEST STANDARD.
No one need have the slightest doubt about the excellence of the May Festival concert to be given in the Methodist church of this city during the present week. Fine soloists and orchestra players have been engaged at enormous cost, in order to make this Festival a distinct musical success. The chorus of Salem, Albany, Eugene, Corvallis and Dallas have been working faithfully for months on the oratorios, and will sing them magnificently.

SCIENTIFIC PALMISTRY

Readings of the Hands of Salem
Business Men.

As Presented by Prof. Sterling—To Be Followed by More Forecasts of Business Men.

The following readings in the science of palmistry are of the hands of business men at Salem. They are made by Prof. Sterling, one of the most renowned scientists in the world in his line.

M. BREIDEMER, TEA MERCHANT.
You have inventive faculty constantly contriving improvements in mechanical matters, a close application to this would benefit yourself. You will secure some distinction in the future, your life line is fully developed.

DAVID V. BARRETT.
Readily adapts to existing conditions; liberal and charitable, outspoken. The life line indicates an active life of long duration.

J. H. LENS, DRUGGIST.
Your hand is marked with a decided cross on each mount. Your type is of an astute species. You are industrious in acquiring, take good care of what you get, value property for its uses, are saving but not avaricious or close, ready to help your friends, are not likely to spend as fast as you earn. You have a grand future, and will never have any serious trouble in any of your ventures.

G. ROTH.
You desire the best in life, and are unhappy unless in an atmosphere of wealth, luxury and magnificence; cultivate cheerfulness.

R. FRIEDMAN, MERCHANT.
You are inclined to pursue an open and direct course; to express your sentiments fully on all occasions; possess little reserve, and are liable in unguarded moments to imprudent speech. You are sincere and frank, and generally express your thoughts and emotions in a clear and unequivocal manner. Your friends all like you, and they both see your virtues and your faults. You will some day be very popular, and a grand help to mankind. You will live to good old age. You will change your abode in a few months. You will see a sick lady friend in three weeks.

THOMAS HORGAN.
There is a happy-go-lucky nature in this hand. You are down today and up tomorrow. You must always act upon the first impulse of the moment in order to make a success.

G. W. STUART.
Reverent, thoughtful, persevering, not easily discouraged, though you do worry. Success is very plainly marked in your hand, and you have a very long life.

L. A. VIERMAN.
You would make a good salesman, and you will always be a successful business man.

M. T. HINEMAN, GROCERY MERCHANT.
You think quite highly enough of your own abilities, are very self-reliant, are proud and dignified, seldom ask advice, and never follow it when given. Will not stoop even to conquer. Are not satisfied with moderate success or a small business, desire to surpass all others. You are too impulsive, you have had a fall on your head when young.
You must be very careful in the future or else you will have brain trouble. You will hear of a death of a friend in a few days.

SAM HELL, CHINESE GARDENER.
You will have a decided change in your home and business soon, but it will not be of a prosperous kind.

J. W. HARRITT, GROCERY MERCHANT.
You are of a cheerful nature, generous, kind and good. Your life line indicates excellent health and a long, successful life.

W. F. GRAYSTONING.
You must try and develop your in-tellectuality. You seem to have no management. You are a deep lover of music.

T. M. ZOOMMAN.
You are a very good person and capable of taking care of your own business.
Some one near you is trying to do you harm in a business way.

R. R. RYAN, REAL ESTATE AGENT.
You are a lucky person and your mind is broad and admits the opinions and controversies of others not only without malice but with genuine regard, you are capable of dealing with large and small affairs with equal readiness. You are shrewd and silent. Your future promises to be a service to the community in which you live. You hold your own views with determination but concede the same right to your fellow-man and beings. Your future is a bright one but you must not worry as much as you do.

CHUNG LEE, MERCHANT.
You are inclined to be very rambling and incoherent, ever ready to begin, but have little perseverance to finish. You must not trust lady near you named Louise. She is deceiving you.
