OREGON REPUBLICAN

Tongues' Majority Reduced and Moody's Increased.

MULTNOMAH COUNTY GOES AGAINST THE REPUBLICAN TICKET

Republican Majority in Legislature Reduced to About a Dozen--Chamberlin Defeats Sewell.

By Associated Press in the Journal.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 5.—Incomplete returns from the state at noon indicate the election of Wolyarton (R.) supreme judge, and Bailey (R.) food and dairy commissioner by from 8,000 to 10,000 majority. In the First district, Tongue, for congress, will have from 1,500 to 2,000 majority. In the Second district, Moody, for congress, is elected by about 8,000 majority.

The Democrats claim the entire fusion legislative ticket in Multnomah county is elected. If this holds good, the Republican majority in the legislature will probably be 10 or 11.

In Portland the majority contest is very close, with Rowe, (R.) leading Chamberlin in elected prosecuting attorney.

Special to Journal.

ECCLER, June 5.—Twenty-three of fifty precincts give Tongue 1518, Daly 1163. In the county, the Citizens elect the sheriff, treasurer and commissioner. Republican legislative ticket, assessor, clerk, school superintendent, surveyor and judge doubtful—favoring Republicans. Both, for joint senator, and Brown, for district attorney, carry Lane by large majorities.

Special to Journal.

ALBANY, Ore., June 5.—Daly's majority is estimated at 450. The entire legislative ticket elected. Complete returns from all but six precincts, show Tongue behind in Lane county by 214. Missing precincts estimated. Vote will be close on supreme judge. Jeffreys, Dem., will be about 350 ahead. Entire Union ticket elected, by from 100 to 600.

M. M. Miller and daughter, Miss Edith, have returned from a visit in San Francisco.

W. H. Byars, and son Rex J., left for Tacoma today, on a government surveying expedition.

Mrs. Ed. Hirsch and her son, Meyer, came up from Portland on the Albany local last evening.

Miss Estelle Sherman returned to Portland this morning, after a few days' visit in the city.

Mrs. Don Zan, of Portland, who was here on a visit with relatives for a week or so, returned home this morning.

Dr. and Mrs. Willis Morse and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Boat were a party for Yaquina Bay today to enjoy fish diet a few days.

Dr. L. M. Jones, a former Salem boy, but now a physician, of Lebanon, Lin county, is in this city visiting at the home of Judge and Mrs. Johnson.

Miss Mollie Gorman, of Yaquina Bay, and Mrs. Alice Peak, who were here on a visit with Miss Carrie Bradshaw for a few days, went to Seattle this morning.

T. B. Kay started for Southern Oregon and will probably extend his trip to Northern California, as he goes in the interest of buying wool. He left last night.

Among the state and county officials who scattered over the face of the country to vote yesterday were Supt. J. H. Ackerman, Justice R. S. Bean, Recorder Rowland.

G. A. Rockwell came down yesterday from Springfield, where he is bookkeeper and commissary for Archie Mason, who is grading the Southern Pacific branch to the Booth-Kelly mills at Wendling, 16 miles southeast from that point.

Some Bright Periodicals.
The Wasp, of San Francisco, is the handsomest illustrated publication on the Pacific coast.

The Philippine magazine of this month is to East Aurora, N. Y., what The Truth is to Salem, Or. The only slightly noticeable difference is that The Philippine is altogether devoted to its publisher's personality, and the Salem publication hopes entirely to eliminate personality and enunciate principle.

New York Truth for June has a delicate title page in colors and many beautiful colored illustrations. The large plate also in colors is "A Narrow Escape" by Karl Winowski. A little boy has clapped his hat over a butterfly and with a little girl he is peering underneath to capture the treasure. But the pretty butterfly has slipped out from the other side and is fitting away. Letters, contents and all, this is the most artistic of all American publications for the ordinary reader. Sold at all news stands. Each number has a large art picture in colors.

The Memorial Day number of Leslie's Weekly surpasses all similar efforts to chronicle this great annual event in the life of the nation. On this day the cemeteries North and South, East and West, are visited and the dead are remembered with flowers, speech, prayer and song. About twenty pages are devoted to timely illustrations and articles, and all lovers of this beautiful national holiday ought to have a copy of this number. Sold at news stands, or send 10 cents to the Judge Company, No. 110 Fifth Ave., New York.

New York Life for May 31st, has the most trenchant satire of the year in double-page cartoon by Wm. H. Walker, "The International cakewalk." Uncle Sam leads with a Filipino woman, John Bull comes next with a bawling African beauty. Germany is leading a dusky wench from Madagascar, and there is one representative of the colored race who has not yet found a partner. The world is topsy-turvy in its madness to govern other people's and force modern civilization where it does not belong.

The Bookman for June is one of the strongest numbers of this ever-remembered strong magazine. Chronicle and comment has all the timely information about literature and literature makers. There are able critical articles on the latest books, on Tolstoi, on the South African war, and an illustrated paper on the American Humorists of the cartoon. All the departments are full and the foreign letters are up to the standard.

The Pacific Monthly for May enters this plucky little venture on its fourth year. The index for the third volume shows that it is singularly and completely devoted to Oregon, and so distinctively devoted to Oregon, that no family in our state able to take a monthly, should fail to have this pride and treasure of Webfoot on its reading list. Send for a free sample and subscribe. Price, $1.00 a year.

"Our Nursery Tales, Today and Yesterday," is the opening article in the June Table Talk. The article cannot fail to interest mothers who have the educational welfare of their children at heart. It gives the titles and description of proper books for them to read.

The Table Talk's Bills of Fare is in truth a cooking school for the inexperienced housewife.

The article on "Books for Summer Reading" comes just in time to help you select good books for the hot months. Our readers can obtain sample copies of back numbers of this excellent magazine free, or the June number for ten cents by sending to Table Talk Publishing Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

A PLAIN TALK

We are as honest in what we say, as in what we sell. We do not misrepresent in statements—we do not substitute in prescriptions. We believe that genuine "honesty is the best policy" and that no permanent success in business can be attained without confidence, hence in all our dealings with physician and patient, and general public, it has been our first aim to merit confidence. Therefore, when we tell you an article is "good," we believe it to be so, and our quarter century experience with drugs ought to qualify us to judge intelligently along this line. If you wish the best medicines put in your prescriptions, bring them to us—if you like substitution take them elsewhere.

We never learned but one kind of Pharmacy—the honest kind. Another truth, our prices are right for right goods.

Gen. Von Viesko's Funeral.

The funeral of George Von Viesko, for 18 years a resident of Silverton, was held Monday June 4, 1900, from his late home with his son, Julius Viesko near Silverton. He received the burial honors of the Grand Army post of which he was a member, and also the Relief corps.

The body was interred at Silverton cemetery, and attended by a large throng of old friends and neighbors, the last earthly remains were laid to rest. Deceased was a native of Germany, but of French descent. He enlisted as a volunteer and was color sergeant of the Fifth Minnesota, was wounded and received a pension.

He left no property, but has three children in Oregon, his son at Silverton, Mrs. Wm. Gunn at Portland, and Martin Viesko at Salem. The family all unite in extending thanks to the many veterans and their ladies and the old kind friends at Silverton who united in paying all possible respect to the departed.

DIED.

SMITH.—At her home in Aumsville, Or., Tuesday, June 5, 1900, at 4:10 a. m. Anna Smith, wife of J. A. Smith, and daughter of J. O. and N. A. Wimer, of Salem, Or., aged 33 years, 3 months and 15 days.

Decedent has gone to meet two infants, one daughter and one son, who have gone before her. She leaves a husband and one son, father and mother, and three brothers and three sisters to mourn her loss. They are: R. L., W. O. and R. H. Wimer, of Portland; Mrs. H. S. Stillwell, of Winters, Cal.; Mrs. Mollie Bigham, of Corvallis, Or.; and Mrs. Nettie E. Nearhoff, of Salem, Or., and a host of friends to mourn her sudden death.

The burial will be in the Aumsville cemetery on Wednesday at 2 p. m. Other papers please copy.

Weekly Crop Bulletin.

PORTLAND, Ore., Monday June 4, 1900

GENERAL SUMMARY.
There has been an abundance of sunshine, and the week has averaged about 9 degrees warmer than the previous one. This increase in warmth was mostly due to higher day temperatures rather than to warmer nights, as the latter continue unseasonably cool, and in the Plateau district were even cool enough to cause rather hard frosts last Tuesday morning. The maximum, or day, temperatures in western Oregon ranged between 59 and 77 degrees, and the minimum, or night, temperatures between 42 and 53 degrees. East of the Cascade mountains these variations were for day temperatures between 50 and 80 degrees and for night temperatures between 36 and 60 degrees.

Very little rain has fallen, and some sections in Southern Oregon are beginning to feel the need of it for grain and gardens, although grass and pasture in that, as well as in all other sections, continue in excellent condition. The frosts in the Plateau district did no material harm, and the week has been a most favorable one for advancing growth and for permitting farm work to proceed without interruption.

But little, if any, improvement has taken place in the condition of fall wheat in the Willamette Valley. Many fields are yellow and badly rusted, and some were so poor that they have been plowed up. It is now mostly headed, but the heads are small, and the yield cannot be otherwise than light.

In Southern Oregon and in the Columbia River valley both fall wheat and rye are heading and filling nicely, and the crop in these sections is generally in fine condition.

Spring wheat, barley, oats, potatoes and gardens are doing fairly well, although there is some complaint in the Willamette valley of spring wheat dying of root affecting the oats.

Corn needs warmer weather, and its growth has so far been very slow.

There has been considerable improvement in the condition of hops, which have grown very rapidly during the week, although hop lice have now made their appearance in many of the yards.

Hay is progressing under very favorable weather conditions and the outlook for an extra heavy crop is assured. Pasture continues ample, and stock is in fine condition.

A fair crop of cherries is being marketed. Strawberry continues abundant. French prunes, apples, pears and small fruit are making good advancement, and the Italian prunes are doing the same, except where injured by frosts and cold weather last fall.

WILLAMETTE VALLEY.
Aurora (Miramonte Farm), Clackamas county, G. Muecke.—The weather this week has been all that we could wish for. Hops are now making a better growth. Cherries ripening; also berries. Late-sown grain coming up nicely.

Noble, Marion county, L. O. Roberts.—Weather continues fine. Crops of all kinds looking well. Berries and small fruit will be plentiful. A fair crop of Italian prunes and large crop of Petite. Grass is plentiful.

Liberty, Marion county, T. C. Davidson.—This week has been warmer and more favorable for grain and gardens. Fall wheat has gone backward in some places, but in others it seems to be all right. Spring grain looking fairly well. Sheep shearing almost done; clip very heavy and quality good. Strawberry crop good. Wild blackberries will be plentiful.

Scio, Lin county, N. Crabtree.—The first part of the week was cool and cloudy, but it ended with clearer and warmer weather, which will greatly benefit all crops. Grain is looking well, but gardens have been making slow growth. Warm weather and sunshine are now very much needed.

About Millinery.
The Paris Millinery store has moved into Greenbaum's dry goods store, next door to the postoffice, at which place Mrs. Chase will continue to give bargains in fine millinery until the goods are disposed of.
