THE CORNER STONE

Of the Odd Fellows Temple Laid Wednesday at 2 O'clock.

Salem Odd Fellows will meet at their hall, on State street, at 2 o'clock on Wednesday to proceed to the laying of the corner stone at the new Odd Fellows' Temple building at Salem. The ladies of the Rebekah degree will meet at the library room at the same time, and under Marshal F. T. Wrightman W. T. Rigdon will form a line of march to the site of the Temple, on the corner of Court and High streets.

The committee in charge of the exercises of the day are J. W. Young, Tilmon Ford and A. N. Moores. The Salem band will make music and Hon. J. K. Weatherford, of Albany, will deliver the address. There are also to be addresses by Hon. Claud Gatch and Hon. W. T. Williamson.

A cavity has been left in the corner stone, in which articles of historical value will be placed. The cavity is 12x12 by 3 inches, and will hold quite a number of souvenirs suitable for such a hallowed spot.

Hon. Til Ford when ground was broken, furnished a silk hat in which was put the first shovelful of earth and an Oregon fir tree was planted in the hat to be kept green until the building shall be dedicated. That mystic emblem of immortality of the order of the Three Links will no doubt again be in evidence on this occasion and will be kept growing until the temple is furnished.

In the evening the crack teams of the Salem I. O. O. F. lodges will confer first and second degree works at the lodge rooms, as a large increase of new members is being received. The day's labors will conclude with a banquet. Salem Odd Fellows are a prosperous order and extend a cordial invitation to all their friends to be present and participate in the corner stone laying and to all visiting Odd Fellows to attend the lodge in the evening.

The Methodist choir under Prof. Seeley will sing three numbers at the laying of the corner stone. Twelve ladies and twelve gentlemen will participate and some noble anthems will be rendered.

SALEM CANNERY.

Prizes Paid for Fruit-Work on Peas Begins Next Week.

Manager Allen is putting up some superior samples of Oregon strawberries, on which he will take orders and sell a large pack next year.

About fifty people are working at the cannery. More will be employed next week when work on peas begins.

Prizes paid for cherries runs from 13c. to 3c—the best Royal Anne being bringing the latter figure for good light cherries. Raspberries bring 3c. a pound. Strawberries are 3c. for choice canning fruit.

This dry hot weather is shrinking the berry crop, and especially second pickings of Wilson berries are apt to be small.

Work on peas will begin next week. The cannery will take all it can get besides what are contracted at $20 a ton.

Frank Smith who lives east of town, says spring grain is doing well. Fall grain is not doing very well.

Al Jorman of Howell says crops in his section are doing well. Hop crop has good prospect.

J. L. Hallinger Salem Prairie, says crops in our section are about an average. Hay crop will be large. Potatoes doing well.

James Finney of Brooks, says grain crop in our part of the country not up to the average. Hops look well.

SIMMONS VS. WRIGHTMAN.

Case Against a Former Sheriff Being Tried Before Judge Barrett.

The case of Simmons vs. F. G. Wrightman was put on trial in Dept. No. 1, of the circuit court this morning.

This case arises out of the attachment of certain hops, by defendant in 1890, when he was sheriff of Marion county, in a suit against Phil. Neis & Co. The hops were claimed by Simmons & Son.

It seems that Neis & Co. had contracted to deliver to Simmons & Son a certain lot of hops, had bought and paid for the hops, and the same were awaiting shipment, when they were attached by the sheriff. Neis & Co. gave bonds, took the hops and disposed of them.

The suit hinges on whether the hops belonged to Neis or Simmons. It has been over the route to the supreme court and is now being tried on a mandate from that body.

A SALEM SOILED DOVE.

Smashes Plate Glass Windows and is Sent to the Asylum.

The large plate show window in the store occupied by the Misses Goode as a millinery room was broken to pieces this morning. One of the girls from the tenderloin district known as Pauline Phillips became crazy drunk over night and going up Commercial street she came to the above named place. Stepping to the street she picked up a stone about the size of a hen egg and threw it against the glass, breaking a small sized hole. Not being satisfied she struck the window a blow with her fist and completely destroyed it. Officer Smith arrived upon the scene and finding that she was badly cut about the wrist and was becoming weak from loss of blood, took her to the Salem Hospital, where Dr. Shaw was called in and the wound sewed up. The window which was a large one "5 1/2 by 8 feet" can not be replaced for less than $50. From the amount of blood spilled upon the sidewalk and stairway one would think a good sized battle had taken place in that part of the city.

Later Pauline Phillips was committed to the asylum for insane at about 9:30 this forenoon by County Judge Terrell. She is an inveterate drunkard and has been making her home with Mrs. McGinison Ferry street.

Admitted to Practice.

The following persons, who were last week examined by the supreme court upon their knowledge of law, have been admitted to the bar.

Evening Party.

One of the most pleasant parties of the season took place last evening, at the home of Mrs. A. L. Buckingham, on South Commercial street, her daughter, Miss Bessie, entertained a number of young friends in honor of Miss Clio Hutchison, of Seattle.

The evening passed all too quickly, the young people indulging in games, music, and the usual social pleasures. Refreshments were served at a seasonable hour.

Those present were: Misses Clio Hutchison, Blanche Brown, Florence Bigger, Mildred Rizer, Ruth Parly, Emily Jeffries, Messrs. Herbert Junk, John Albert, Henry Bigger, James Albert, Guy Hunt, Elin Albert, and Delyle Green.

Bob White Gulls.

A few years ago Bob White gulls were not known in this county, but now they are becoming plentiful. Martin S. Durbin, of Howell, says that in that part of the country Bob White gulls are numerous. A few days ago a gentleman living in South Salem discovered one of them in his yard. Sportmen should not kill any of these birds for a few years and give them a good chance to increase.

DAN'L J. FRY

JOURNAL X-RAYS.

"Next week," announces a Missouri editor, who has the Sheldon episode still fresh in his mind, "we will be running this as Jesse James would have run it. Delinquent subscribers may expect a call from us with their accounts stuck in the muzzle of a six shooter. Otherwise this paper will have to be run as the sheriff would run it."

An exchange says that nine-tenths of the Republican representatives elected to the legislature are avowed Mitchell men, and that it means that John H. Mitchell will be in the senatorial fight in a very emphatic manner.—Albany Democrat.

And why not; the silver question is settled. Mitchell represents all Republicans equally well.

STREET SPRINKLING MOVEMENT.

City Council Will Join in the Co-Operative Movement.

The Salem City council last night considered the question of sprinkling the main driving streets from the Southern Pacific depot to High street. The council will act with the state and county court, and will ask citizens to co-operate.

The interview with a Salem businessman in Monday evening's JOURNAL attracted wide attention. It hit the bullseye in saying that the authorities should quit hauling rocks onto the roads. The roads must first be made smooth before it will pay to sprinkle them. The two movements of smoothing our roads and then laying the dust should go together.

With the state willing to assist, with the city and county co-operating in a small way even, with a correct system of making smooth roads, it is only a question of intelligence and enterprise on the part of officials, whether we have improved driving streets or not. Let it not be said of Salem under such favorable auspices that we can not have at least one good driveway.

Probate Matters.

The final account of O. T. Storassli, executor of the last will and testament of Knud O. Storassli, deceased has been allowed and the executor discharged.

The final account of L. W. Guerin, administrator of the estate of Geo. C. Guerin, deceased, has been approved and an order made for the distribution of $150, share and share alike among the heirs.

P. D. McCarty, the Gates saloon keeper accused of selling liquor to a minor made a plea of "not guilty," this morning. The case was continued to the October term on motion of defense.

In the criminal cases against W. D. Rodgers, held for rape, and Matt Craft, held for larceny of George Downing's goats, motions for dismissal have been filed, but have not yet been acted upon.

Ladies Live in Hopes.

The way the official returns are coming in from Eastern Oregon there is a possibility that the Woman Suffrage amendment has carried. At least the ladies live in hope. They have a majority in Grant county of 9; in Wheeler county of 178; in Morrow 69. The strong Populist counties were carried for equal suffrage for women. They lost Yamhill by one vote. Coos, Douglas and Columbia counties gave the ladies majorities.

Divorce Case.

D. R. Campbell has commenced proceedings for a divorce from his wife Ellen Campbell. The parties formerly lived at Ellensburg, Washington, where the defendant still lives. Desertion is alleged by the plaintiff who asserts that Mrs. Campbell left him two years ago. Bonham & Martin are attorneys for plaintiff.

Another Bicycle Party.

This evening at about 6:30 forty young people of this city expect to go a-wheel over into Polk county, and return later by moonlight. A delightful time is anticipated by all.

DIED.

BOWERSOX.—At Salem, June 11th, Arthur O. Bowersox, aged 35 years.

This is the young man whose case has attracted considerable attention. At his home in Philomath, Benton county, last February, he received a severe kick in the head from a vicious horse. He apparently recovered, but about two weeks ago was attacked with severe pain in the head. He was brought to Salem for treatment, but grew worse until death ensued. Deceased was a man of fine character and highly respected in his community. He leaves a widow and six children, besides his father, Rev. J. Bowersox, of Dayton, three brothers, F. G. Bowersox, of Salem; Dr. F. R. Bowersox, of Stayton, and A. W. Bowersox, of Albany, and one sister, Mrs. I. E. Allen, of Salem.

He was a member in good standing in the Home Forum, and the Odd Fellows, at Philomath.

The funeral will be held Wednesday at 9:30 a. m., under the auspices of the two Salem lodges of Odd Fellows, Che-mukota No. 1, and Olive No. 18, at the home of I. E. Allen, on East State street. Interment will be had in Rural cemetery.

A post mortem examination was held this morning, and the physicians thought all conditions pointed to meningitis as the cause of death.

BARNES.—At the family home, No. 304 Liberty street, Salem, Oregon. Tuesday, June 12, 1900, at 1:30 a. m., the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barnes, aged 4 days and 10 hours.

The funeral took place from the home at 2 p. m., Rev. John Parsons officiating and burial was in City View cemetery.

RENNIE.—At the home in Riverside addition, at 9 p. m. June 11, Mabel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rennie, aged 3 years and 11 months, of membranous croup.
