Alumni Reunion.

The thirty-fourth annual Alumni exercises last evening, were somewhat different from those of other years, taking the form of a memorial to the late Sam Simpson, the "poet-laureate," of Oregon.

Nearly fifty of the members of the Alumni were seated upon the platform; Prof. J. L. Carter presided. The opening number was a piano solo, by Prof. Edward Tillson, which was executed in his usual pleasing style, and received a storm of applause.

The invocation was given by Rev. T. L. Jones, of Forest Grove.

The class of 1900 was ushered in, and presented by Judge H. H. Hewitt, in a few well chosen and appropriate words. The class consisted of Misses Ethel Fletcher and Mattie Shepherd, Messrs. Wm. Manning and Walter Leavitt. In addition to these there will be two young men from Portland University, graduated this evening, Seth Leavens and Ferdinand Buche.

The audience was disappointed at the unavoidable omission of the vocal duet, by Mrs. Holland and Mrs. Purvine, but later on the vacancy was ably filled by a solo by Miss Ellen J. Chamberlin, who sang by request—Sam Simpson's "Ad Willametum."

The oration of the evening was by Judge Robt. Eakin, '73, of Eastern Oregon, and was able and interesting.

The solo—"Spring Is Coming," by Mrs. E. S. Miller, of Portland, was exceedingly fine, and she responded to a hearty encore, with a sweet and pathetic song, which carried the audience away and no one stirred till the last sweet note had died away.

Mrs. Miller has a rarely beautiful voice, and her appearance before Salem people will always be a pleasure.

Sen N. L. Butler gave a glowing tribute to his departed friend, Sam Simpson. They were close friends and classmates. Mr. Butler being valedictorian of the class of '66. His address was very eloquent and touching.

Gems from the Pen of Sam Simpson were read in a most pleasing manner, by Mrs. Ida Hotton Vaughn, '77.

The "Parting Song," written by Sam Simpson for the graduating class of '77, at the request of Miss Ellen Chamberlin, was sung by Mrs. E. S. Miller, and was one of the features of the evening.

While the words of this song were being quoted by some one at the alumni reunion in Salem on June 14, 1899, the soul of the poet took its flight to God, who gave it, in Portland.

Following the rendering of the above program the alumni and invited guests, to the number of about 80, partook of a banquet in the lower room at the M. E. church. Professor Carter presided and Hon. F. H. D'Arcy was toastmaster.

Officers Elected.

At the business meeting of the alumni association the officers were re-elected and are: President, J. L. Carter, '68; first vice president, E. E. McKinney, '70; second vice-president, Rev. F. L. Belknap, '80; third vice-president, Rev. Harold Oberg, '88; fourth vice-president, Miss Myrtle Marsh, '96; secretary, C. J. Atwood, '97; treasurer, L. T. Reynolds, '95.

Other Business.

An executive committee, consisting of Mrs. J. D. Lee and Miss Mary Reynolds, was appointed.

Resolution adopted for the appointment of a committee to secure the photographs of all the alumni, and place them in the society hall, and the president named John W. Reynolds, Miss Carrie Bradshaw and P. H. D'Arcy.

Motion adopted for the appointment of a committee of five to take steps looking toward securing a memorial fund, to be used in the erection of a building for the University, by the Alumi Association.

Hon. C. B. Moores was named as a committee of one to draft a suitable memorial address on the demise of Jos. P. Jones, '62, whose death occurred in California during the past year. T. H. Crawford and F. C. Grubbs were appointed a committee on resolutions on the death of Mrs. Angie Robb Drake, and Hon. H. H. Hewitt, a memorial on the death of Mary Case Feit.

After a discussion of the plans of the Association regarding the contemplated work of aiding the University by erecting a building, an adjournment was had.

Recital Postponed.

The recital of the Colleges of Oratory and Music, which was to have taken place at 2 p. m. today, is postponed on account of the illness of Prof. Mabel Carter and two of her pupils, and will be announced later.

AT MT. ANGEL COLLEGE.

The Thirteenth Annual Commencement Was a Great Success.

A large crowd attended the annual commencement at Mt. Angel college. The grounds and buildings were beautifully decorated and from the college itself flew the stars and stripes.

The program opened with the Christie march, in honor of the Archbishop, who was present to grace the occasion, composed by Rev. Dominick. Then followed a salutatory address by Xav. P. De Donato. It recognized the presence of the distinguished visitor, the friends and relatives of the students who packed the hall.

Wm. B. Cronin recited "The Polish Boy," a dramatic recitation of great pathos.

Then followed a bulesque comic operetta, "Tryphosa." The tramp two-part song by McElroy and Daniels brought down the house. The whole operetta was a broad farce, and a great relief from the usual heavy oration and essays given on such occasions.

Following was the cast of characters and this time they had their uniforms: King Rudolph, a believer in social equality.....Mr. Frederick Fontain
Theodore, his brother..Raleigh Coleman
Tryphosa, a clairvoyant..Geo. O'Farrell
Tony Redpath, a traveling minstrel
.....Master Martin Deragisch
Bill { gentlemen { Joseph McElroy
Jim { of leisure { Thurston Daniels
Adam.....Frederick Ecklund
Thomas.....Thomas Fox
Poto, page to Rudolph.....
.....Master Herbert Ganahl
Peasants, Villagers, etc.
Scene, Anywhere. Period, Anytime.

The operatta was writing for the occasion by Prof. Edwin A. Leman, and music by Rev. Dominick, O. S. B. A violin solo by R. Coleman was followed by the athletic exercises under Prof. E. E. Lavier, the well-known French Prairie gymnast. Then followed conferring of degrees by the Archbishop as follows:

J. P. Kavanaugh, '92, and A. Schmidt '92, professor at Stanford University, received the degrees of Master of Arts; S. P. DeDonato G. W. O'Farrell, L. F. Daly, Bachelor of Arts, and Messrs. Dowel, Daniels, Reynolds, Hunt and Thompson were awarded the diplomas of Master of Accounts.

A number of gold and silver medals were conferred on students as class honors, and rich and beautiful bouqets were in evidence by the dozens.

A trip afoot to the top of Mt. Angel gives a glorious view of all the country spread at the base of this noble elevation. From the top of the new six-story college building there is to be caught a glimpse of the Capital City sixteen miles away. In the other direction across the valley lie the foothills and grand snowcapped Cascade range. Fifteen hundred acres of field and Forest is their domain and a veritable Eden has been hewn out of the wilderness by the industry of this educational order.

The exercises in the chapel hall concluded with an address by the archbishop, Alexander Christie, of Portland. On behalf of all present, he declared they had all appreciated every effort made by the students, and he expressed the hope in beautiful language that they would carry into life action and enduring citizenship the instruction here received. This was only the beginning of the battle of life. Success awaited these young men if they followed their highest ideals. The world was already too rife with corruption and immorality. It was the sacred duty of a modern college student to be a Christian gentleman as well as a professor or business man. He closed with a stirring appeal that they become men of morality, of integrity, of virtue, of temperance, children of God, noble representatives of God's church, and an honor to their country. His words were delivered with great force and eloquence and won a hearty round of applause.

The valedictory by G. W. O'Farrell, was a fitting close to the program and was a powerful appeal for temperance. The visitors were many of them handsomely entertained by the Brothers in charge of the refertory. The train was held for all who wanted to go north or south from Woodburn. A carload of trunks showed how many students were departing for their homes. The attendance has increased in a few years from thirty or forty to nearly 100 young men in the college department. The success of this educational institution, built up by hard work and with great sacrifices and under much discouragement and even misfortunes speaks in the highest praise of the zeal, industry and progressive spirit of enterprise of the Benedictine Brothers.

EIGHTH GRADE FINISHED.

Diplomas Issued By the County Superintendent of Marion County.

County Superintendent Jones issued diplomas to those pupils of the public schools of this county who successfully stood the recent examinations for graduation from the common school course. This was the first uniform examination based upon questions compiled under direction of the state department, and that the fact will account, in a measure, for a large number failing to pass. With each succeeding examination the pupils will learn what to expect and be able to prepare more particularly for the examinations.

In this county 116 pupils entered for the examination and 70 will receive diplomas. The rules provide that a diploma will not be granted to a pupil who falls below 70 in any one branch. They will however, be given credit for grades secured above 70, and at a succeeding examination will be permitted to take the test in those branches in which they failed at this time. Those who will received diplomas are as follows:

Marion—Emily Morgan, Alma Barber, Belle Cooke.
Woodburn—Fred C. Soules, Letta S. Young, Mamie L. Briere, Clara J. May, Eleanor Wright, Belle K. Bonney, Floyd R. Moore, Bessie C. Moore, Dell M. Bradley, Mabel Kenady, Inez M. Hopkins, Bertha S. Waterbury, Carrie B. Richards, Claude May.

FORTY GRADUATES.

Salem Public School Commencment At Armory Hall Friday Evening.

The graduating exercises of the Salem Public schools will be held Friday evening at the city hall, in the armory hall which has just been fitted up with a stage and curtain and over 500 seats.

An admission fee of 10 cents will be collected at the door.

The graduating class consists of 21 girls and 19 boys, and of these Lena Miller, Maude Griswold, Lois Ohmart, T. L. Davidson, Jr. Nellie Parsons, Jame Y. Colvin, Frank Churchill, Ruth Rulifson, Edward William Cherrington, and others will take part in the program, which will also contain an address by Hon. Claud Gatch.

It is hoped that the size of the hall will prove adequate for the accomodation of the crowd which will be sure to turn out.

A Salem-Silverton Wedding.

M'CORKLE—BROPHY—At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McCorkle, Silverton, Miss Nina McCorkle to J. E. Brophy of Salem, Wednesday evening, June 20, 1900, at 7 p. m., Rev. Ronald McKillop of Salem officiating.

The groom is an employe of the Salem Light & Traction Co., an only son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brophy. The bride is the older daughter of a well-known Silverton family.

The brief but impressive ceremony was preformed in the presence of the family and immediate friends and relatives. Following guests were present from Salem: Mr. and Mrs. Brophy, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Misses Remo Holland, Emily Thacher and Estella Welch, and Messrs J. McVaughn and Ralph Glover.

A fine wedding dinner was served after the wedding which took place at 9 o'clock. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion, no expense having been spared to make it attractive.

Mr. and Mrs. Brophy received some costly and beautiful presents, and after a short wedding trip, will live at Salem in a cottage on Winter street. They will be at home after July 9, to their friends.

Wedding at Woodburn.

HARDCASTLE — M'FARLAND. — At the home of the bride's parents, Wednesday, June 20, at 12:30, Miss Mamie Etta Hardcastle, of Woodburn, to Mr. John Mc Farland, of The Dalles. Rev. Fero, of Portland, officiating.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hardcastle. There was a wedding dinner and a score or more more of guests. Miss Hardcastle is a graduate nurse of the Portland Sanitarium.

Our veteran friend at Woodburn lost his only son a few months since, carried off by the same dreaded disseminator of families, and the old veteran and his wife will fight the battles of life alone, unless some young recruits come to the rescue.
