THE LAST DAY.

THE O. N. G. ENCAMPMENT WILL BREAK UP TOMORROW.

General Summers Meets Some of His Old Command.—Review This Evening.

Thursday evening at the O. N. G. encampment the usual parade was held and the troops were reviewed by Gen. O. Summers, under whom the second Oregon served in the Philippines. There are many Philippine veterans among the troops now at Camp Geer, and after the review, General Summers went around the camp and held a sort of informal reunion with the boys. Those who had been in the Philippines gathered at the end of the company streets to receive their former commander and gave him a reception which proved his popularity. The boys gathered around him, and after telling them to "get up closer, boys," the general gave them a short talk. He referred to the splendid record made by the Second Oregon, to the fact that not one of the boys was court-martialed; that they were all honorably discharged. The state and the nation was proud of them; and, personally, wherever he went he would always have a warm spot in his heart for the boys of the Second Oregon.

"He's all right," said some one, and this was repeated with cheers from all the boys. Captain Dunbar and Captain Chas. McDonald, formerly captain of Co. H, Second Or., each gave the boys a short talk and it was a very pleasant reunion. Three cheers were given for each of the above officers and also Lieut. Chas. Murphy and Lieut. Ed Finzer, of the 2d Oregon. The city was represented by Mayor Bishop, Recorder Judah and all the councilmen except Boren, as well as a delegation from the chamber of commerce, headed by President Gray and Secretary Thielsen. After the parade these gentlemen were very pleasantly entertained by Brig. Gen. Beebe at his headquarters, listened to a fine band concert, and returned highly pleased with the hospitality of the officers.

The last day of the full encampment, as Saturday will witness the breaking up of the camp. The cavalry will leave in the morning and the troops will all be gone by night. The last dress parade and review of the brigade will be held this evening at the usual time, commencing 30 minutes before sunset, when Colonel Jas. Jackson, inspector-general, will review the troops.

As Old Veterans. A Beach, one of the members of Company D, of Woodburn, is now past the age of fifty-eight years, but is as young a soldier as the company has when it comes down to the drills. Mr. Beach served thirty-four months in the Civil War and was in thirty-five engagements. He was a member of Company K 6th, Michigan Cavalry, and was under General Geo. A. Custer. He witnessed many of the principal battles and knows the real life of a soldier. He says he is enjoying this encampment. The boys will be paid off tonight or tomorrow morning.

WORKING FOR A FOUNTAIN

Salem Floricultural Society Takes Steps Toward Its Erected.

At a meeting of the Salem Floricultural Society held at the residence of Mrs. Wm. Brown yesterday afternoon the following named committee was appointed to confer with a like committee of the Decorative Union: Mrs. Wm. Brown, Mrs. M. N. Chapman, Judge R. S. Bean.

The purpose of the committee is to look up the advisability of consolidating the respective funds of the Decorative Union and the Floricultural Society for the purpose of securing a suitable fountain for man, horse and dog on the court house grounds. The county court has agreed to maintain such a fountain provided it is found feasible to secure the same as indicated above.

The following resolution was also adopted: Resolved, That the Salem Floricultural Society extends a vote of thanks to the city council, bicycle dealers, bicyclists, the various lodges and others for their kindness and generosity in assisting the late rose show and street parade.

The meeting adjourned to next Wednesday at 2 p. m.

Special Police.

Six special policemen will be sworn in at the city hall at 7 o'clock this evening. These will be put on the force temporarily, as the city officials wish to be prepared for possible disorder tonight and tomorrow. The new policemen are named, as follows: W. L. Skipton, Al Disque, Thos. Eckhart, Elmer White, Wm. Albright and Jack West.

Pay Your Dog Tax.

A few dog licenses are being issued within the last few days, but the owners of city canines do not seem over anxious to part with their money. On August 1st a dog catcher will be appointed, and all untaxed dogs will be liable to impoundment.

New Notaries.

Notaries public have been appointed by Gov. Geer, as follows: A. Nelson, of Newberg, J. H. Middleton, of Portland; John W. Robinson, of Ashwood, and J. R. Benson, of Myrtle Point.

Special Reserves.

Sold exclusively in Salem and Marion County by J. P. Rose.

RATIFY TOMORROW

BRYAN AND STEVENSON CAMPAIGN TO BE STARTED WITH BIG RALLY.

Marion Square the Scene of Tomorrow's Mass Meeting. Barkley and Copeland Speak.

The committee appointed to arrange the Bryan ratification meeting in Marion Square met this afternoon and completed the preliminary work of what is expected to be an enthusiastic endorsement of the work done at the recent Kansas City convention.

The time set is 2 p. m. Saturday afternoon and all who endorse the nomination of Bryan and Stevenson should be on hand at Marion square at that hour.

Prominent speakers will deliver stirring addresses, and Gesner's orchestra will furnish music.

The list of speakers includes H. L. Barkley, John A. Jeffrey, W. E. Copeland, J. K. Weatherford, Judge Bonham, Judge Boise, H. W. Cottle and others, and there is ample assurance of some good lively speaking.

While many will find difficulty in leaving their work in the daytime, it was deemed best to hold the meeting in afternoon, so that the farmers might attend.

Let all turn out and give the candidates a good send-off.

TAKEN IN CHARGE.

A Man Who Has Been Frightening Polk County People.

A man giving the name of Horace Pinkney, was taken in charge last evening by Officer Smith and consigned to the city jail, on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. He came into the city yesterday, from Polk county, where he has been leading a nomadic life for some time, and has frightened women and children on several occasions.

His antecedents are unknown, but he says he came from California. He has been carrying a short gun and a revolver, but does not seem to have actually attacked any one.

He is mentally somewhat unbalanced and when County Judge Scott returns tomorrow he will be examined for insanity and will probably be committed to the asylum.

McDonald Burial.

The funeral of Fred McDonald, who died on Wednesday of consumption, was held from the residence at 308 Water street, at 10 o'clock this fore noon. Rev. Ronald McKillop officiating, and burial took place in Rural cemetery.

The family is in poor circumstances but kind neighbors brought flowers and the helping hand. Deceased had worked in the livery stables of the city, and Henry Brown of the Postoffice stables and Mr. Miller of the Club stables each furnished a carriage without charge.

DIED.

HEPBURN.—At the Cartwright Sanitarium in Salem, at 6:30 p. m. July 12, Nancy M., wife of W. W. Hepburn, aged 48 years.

Deceased had been in very poor health for a number of years, and a surgical operation was decided to be necessary as the only possibility of giving permanent relief, or hope of prolonged life. An operation was therefore performed Thursday morning but the patient's vitality was too low to recover from the shock. Deceased was born in Columbia county, Pa., Feb. 22, 1852. With her family she had resided in Salem for about 11 years, and had been prominently identified, so long as her health permitted, with the work of the First M. E. church, of which she was a member. She was also a member of the orders of United Artisans and Women of Woodcraft.

Besides the husband, W. W. Hepburn, deceased leaves five sons and daughters: Mrs. G. P. Card, Miss Maude Hepburn, Miss Ethel Hepburn, and Arthur Hepburn, all of Salem, and Will Hepburn, located in Pennsylvania.

The funeral services will be conducted at the First M. E. church at 2 p. m. tomorrow (Saturday), Rev. John Parsons, officiating. Burial will take place in the Odd Fellows cemetery.

RICE.—At the family home, near Pratum, Or., Thursday, July 12, 1900, at 10:30 a. m., F. M. Rice, aged 71 years, of heart disease.

Deceased was an old settler in Marion county, and at one time resided in Salem, owning a piece of property near the Lincoln school. His illness was short.

He leaves a family of grown sons and daughters. The funeral took place at the home this afternoon and burial was in the Macleay cemetery.

GRISWOLD.—At the Oregon Hospital for the insane, Thursday, July 12, 1900, Wm. C. Griswold, aged 79 years, Mr. A. Griswold was received at the asylum, February 19, 1899, from Portland, at which place his remains will probably be shipped for burial.

BORN.

SCOTT.—At the family home, Salem, Or., Wednesday, July 11, 1900, to Mr. and Mrs. James Scott, a son.
