Russian Czar Gets News of the Catastrophe.

MINISTER DEGIERS COOKED TO DEATH

His Wife Suffered Worse than Death at the Hands of the Boxer Mob--Governor of Honan Favors the Insurgents.

By Associated Press to the Journal. ST. PETERSBURG, July 14.--A dispatch from Khabarovsk, July 12, says the international council of war held at Tien Tsin has decided for the present to confine the efforts of the allied forces to fortifying Tien Tsin and establishing communications with forts and arsenals.

CHICAGO, July 14.--A dispatch to the Record from St. Petersburg says: The Czar has received the dreadful details of the catastrophe at Peking. A cablegram from Admiral Alexieff, at Port Arthur, declares that M. Degiers, the Russian envoy, was dragged through the streets by the Boxers, beaten, tortured and then thrown into a great kettle and boiled to death.

General Miles Calls Upon Wu. WASHINGTON, July 14.--General Miles was a caller at the Chinese legation today, and had a conference with Minister Wu, presumably concerning the military situation in China.

Honors Awarded to the Boxers. Secretary Hay has received a dispatch from Consul General Goodnow, at Shanghai, stating that the governor of Honan Fahlani has issued a proclamation favorable to the Boxers.

The Honan Fahlani is two provinces of vast extent and might present an impassable barrier to the armies of Li Hung Chang and other Southern viceroys.

Li Hung Chang Wanted at Peking. HONG KONG, July 14.--Li Hung Chang has received an urgent summons to go to Peking.

No Official News. WASHINGTON, July 14.--The Russian embassy here has received no information of the killing of the Russian minister at Peking. They think if this proves true, it will very seriously alter the whole situation.

Optimists Losing Hope. LONDON, July 14.--Hope still struggles against the conclusion that the silence at Peking is the silence of the grave. Official admissions in the United States and Europe that the diplomats have adopted the pessimistic view held by the consuls at Shanghai have almost silenced those attempting to reason against the circumstantial evidence which is becoming so cogent.

The Chinese assurances and edicts appear to be merely part of a plan to cautiously break the news of the tragedy, and delude the foreigners with a tale imperial guilelessness. The situation at Tien Tsin appears to be slowly growing worse.

The allied forces are experiencing the greatest difficulty in sending reinforcements, as the Chinese have rendered the navigation of the river most difficult by diverting the waters therefrom.

Tortured With Horror. Consul-General Goodnow's short dispatch goes to confirm the general belief that the situation in China is steadily growing worse instead of better. The dispatch from St. Petersburg, of the torture of the Russian minister and his wife at Peking, sent a thrill of horror through the foreign establishment here.

Official Confirmation. New York, July 14.--A Shanghai dispatch says: Prince Sheng, Director of Telegraphs has communicated a message to the consuls announcing the murder of foreigners in Peking and laying the blame on the anti-foreign general, Tung Fuh Siang.

FOR NEW TRIAL. Justice Court Juries Must be Drawn from Box if Requested.

In Dept. No. 2 of the circuit court Friday Judge Boise granted a writ of review in the case of Mary A. Ramp vs. W. G. Dava. This was a suit to eject defendant from a farm belonging to plaintiff and was tried in the Salem justice court. In getting a jury, Justice Johnson had the constable go out and pick one up presumably at random, though Carey Martin for plaintiff, requested that the jury be drawn from the box. On this Judge Boise grants a writ of review and remands the case to the lower court for a new trial.

Motions in the case of the State Land Board vs. Werner Breyman and of Ada Strong vs. Geo. H. Jones were argued and submitted.

HOP GROWERS MEET. Small Attendance Answers the Call. No Drift-Action Taken. A meeting of hop growers was held this afternoon at Forster's Hall in the Turner block, to consider the proposition recently made by Lienthal Bros. to pay 15c a pound for this season's crop, on condition that the output be cut down 25 per cent. The call was issued by M. L. Jones, president of the O. H. G. A., and bore the names of other prominent hop growers.

The attendance at today's meeting was small, however, and no conclusive action was taken. The growers seem inclined to answer toward the 15 cent proposition the attitude that it is "too good to be true." There is also too much disposition to lie back and let some one else do the work necessary to accomplish anything.

As we go to press they had just organized electing H. B. Thielen chairman and John Winstanley secretary. After reading the proposition a general discussion followed it being made among the members. Mr. Cooper of Independence says the hop crop in his section is a little short while the growers from this county claim a very large crop.

Funeral of W. C. Griswold. The funeral of W. C. Griswold, an old pioneer merchant of Salem, will be held at Unity church at 3 p. m. Sunday. The Chinese have no use for bathrooms or bathing paraphernalia. Their toilet is quickly made and is not begun until nearly all the garments to be worn have been put on.

CAMP GEER DESERTED.

THE CITY OF TENTS DISAPPEARS AS IF BY MAGIC.

Encampment Was a Great Success. Pay Day Calls for $15,378. Some Left in Salem.

The Annual Encampment of the Oregon National Guard is over, the city of canvas has disappeared and the young militia men have scattered to their homes. The encampment has been a success; of that there can be no question. From the point of view of the warrior, it has paid its way in the added efficiency and knowledge of military which has come to the boys in the week they have spent at Camp Geer. They need the experience there is little doubt. Without any desire to be over critical it may be said that there is one point upon which many of the boys fall very much short of what might be expected of them. Reference is made to the way they carry themselves, even on parade. A soldier is supposed to stand erect, but not all of the boys seemed to have had any training on this point, and the figure cut by some of them on parade or on sentry duty was really a sight to behold. This will probably be remedied as the training proceeds.

Friday Evening. A great many people were at the camp Friday evening to see the last review. They were somewhat disappointed, as the infantry alone appeared on the parade ground. After the usual evolutions the troops went back to their tents and there was a continuous roar of cheering from all over camp for some time afterward. The boys seemed to be glad that their work was about over, and the hilarity of the occasion was greatly heightened by the fact that the boys all had a jingle in their trousers pockets. They were paid off by companies during the evening at brigade headquarters, by Art. Gen. Gantenberg.

The amount paid the troops aggregated $15,378. The rate paid each man per day is fixed by law as follows: Non-commissioned officers, $1.50; Musicians, $1.50; Privates, $1.50; Lieutenants, $2; Captains, $3; Staff officers, $3; Field officers, $3; General officers, $4.

Many of the soldiers came down town after the review and for a few hours the city seemed to be full of them. Anticipations of disorder, however, were not fully realized. When the boys first came in they were inclined to be pretty boisterous, but Chief of Police Gibson and his assistants went among them and gave them a friendly warning not to be too noisy, and the warning was fairly well heeded.

Toward midnight officers came in from the encampment and commenced to round up their men and send them home. A lot of horses were brought along and some of the boys whose powers of locomotion were inclined to go back on them were sent to camp mounted behind others who were in better condition.

Five arrests were made during the evening. Three of the men were turned over to their officers who called for them about midnight, and the other two were released early this morning.

Battery A was ordered to march to Portland. This involved crossing the river either on a bridge or a boat. The boys evidently concluded to take a boat so they went aboard the Ruth at Salem this morning and she will land them in Portland this evening.

The Lebanon troop of Cavalry rode out this morning about 8:30 on their way home. The other companies have been starting on their journeys by train, and the last will leave by the 10:35 train south this evening.

Canine Gladiators. S. Wood of Sellwood, who has a band of bird dogs at the Postoffice stable, had his hands full for a few minutes this morning. A couple of the older dogs who have had it in for each other for several days seized a favorable opening to settle their difference, and it took Mr. Wood and all the attendants of the lively stable to restore the peace, which was only done after the belligerent canines had been well soaked with water. They are mostly from Portland being taken up the valley to be trained.

An Indirect Index. County Clerk W. W. Hall has begun an indirect index register of the circuit court, which he expects to complete in two weeks. The register is to give the name of all the actions and suits commenced in the court in both departments since 1853, placing the names of the defendants in the action first upon the register. This register, when completed, will greatly facilitate the work of the clerk and be of much accommodation to those desiring to look up cases in which only the name of one of the defendants is known. Ed. S. Edes is employed on the work.

During the years 1898, 52,691 vessels of 34,233,880 tons, entered and cleared Chinese ports. Of these vessels 743 of 239,052 tons, were American.

RETURNS FROM NOME.

F. TROMBLY, OF SIDNEY, CAME DOWN TODAY.

He Reports Conditions As Anything But Flat. Sailing--Says None of the Salem Colony Are Doing Well--Some Sick.

F. Trombly, of Sidney, who went to Cape Nome on the steamer, Nome City, in company with George Brothers, Frank Kaiser and Gus Kaiser, Billy Wright, Fred Lockley, Ben Taylor and others, of this city, returned to Salem this forenoon having come down on the Nome City, which arrived at Seattle last evening. The Nome lost two blades of her propeller and drifted for several days when she set sails, and after a time was picked up by a government transport and brought in to Port Townsend. From there she worked her way to Seattle. Mr. Trombly was fortunate enough to be engaged as a sailor on the return trip at $50 a month and passage, and is home safe and sound, very little out for his trip except his time.

When asked why he had returned so soon, he said: "Better soon than never."

Ben Taylor and Fred Lockley are carrying mail at Nome City.

Gov. Fletcher was suffering with a bad cold and a little fever when he left.

Billy Wright came back to Seattle with the Nome City and will be at Salem in a few days.

Charley Wolf and Mr. Morelock were prospecting when he left, but not making anything. Gus Kaiser was not in good health, having a bad dry cough.

Mrs. Flester bought a lot, put up a big tent and was about to start a lunch counter.

When asked if any of the Salem people had struck anything worth having Mr. Trombly said with regret that not one of them had been able to even earn anything except himself and the two mail carriers. Many of them are talking of building boats to either go up or down the beach, Lyman Reeves among the rest.

Mr. Trombly attended the funeral of Frank Kaiser, and says they had a most impressive service. About a thousand people were present. Many good people assisted him in every way during his sickness, but there seemed to be no hope from the time he landed. His remains were buried in the cemetery at the head of an island formed by the Nome river. Mr. Trombly regrets to be the bearer of bad news, but he says there is nothing else to tell in truth. He says people are selling "rockers" for 50 cents that cost from $5 to $30.

Train Delayed. The wreck of a freight train near Dunsmuir, Cal., delayed the overland train which should have arrived here at 4:33 Friday, making it about 12 hours behind time.

BRYAN RATIFIED

ALL THAT NOW REMAINS IS TO ELECT HIM

An Enthusiastic Crowd in Marion Square Addressed by Local Spellbinders, Preachers and Lawyers.

With the music of an orchestra and a number of silver tongues, the nomination of William Jennings Bryan and Adlai Stevenson as the people's standard bearers in the coming campaign is being ratified at Marion square this afternoon.

The notice has been short and the country people are busy these days, but a large and enthusiastic crowd gathered in the square and listened to stirring speeches by a number of eloquent followers of Mr. Bryan.

The speakers stand in the square had been elaborately and tastefully decorated with flags and hunting by a committee of ladies, and a large number of plank seats had been put down.

The meeting was held too late for Trz Jockas, to use a full report, in this issue, as it was not called to order until just before time to go to press, by Uncle Tommas Davidson, who presented Judge Boise as the first speaker.
