HOW TO BUILD THE CITY BEAUTIFUL An Oregon newspaper tells the people of its city how to make it beautiful:

First: Sprinkling of the streets, in residence parts as well as in the business districts.
Second: Beautifying of the streets

by extensive tree planting.

Third: Procuring of ground for a public park, and its embellishment in an attractive manner. 3. The eanyon through which South Mill creek flows from Commercial street to Twelfth street should be converted into a park and all sewerage kept out of

4. Salem has a sewerage system, but the city, county and state have not proper sewer connections,

5. Salem has a city hall large enough for a city of 50,000.

Only by the co-operation of our pullic corporations, like the city, county, school district and state governments can this be made a beautifuf city, and then property would become valuable. This can be made the most beautiful city on the Pacific coast. But in order for an individual or a community to publican fusion everywhere. Of course, grow in any direction we need to aspire, that's all right. There's no disgrace

If this legislature were not Republican it should elect a Bryan Democrat to succeed McBride. As it is Republiis honest let it quit straddling.

A Republican paper says:

"For a quarter of a century there has been an unruly faction of the Republican party in this state, known as the Mitchell faction, whose sole aim has been to hold Mr. Mi' hell in a large been to hold Mr. Mit hell in a large office that he might distribute small offices to the ever-hungery members of that faction. Republican principles have been a secondary consideration with them; they unite with Democrats and Populists and embrace and further their pernicious doctrines at any time to gain a point for their boss. A gold plank plated with silver or a silver plank plated with gold is all the same to them

"This Mitchell rilver-plated faction nearly defeated McKinlev in Oregon in 1800, defeated McKinlev in Oregon in 1800, defeated Senator Dolph and elected gold-plated McBride by the aid of democrats and populists. The faction then became the gold-and-silver-plated Mitchell-McBride metrion, which, by the Bavid E. Stitt, editor of the Bandon Mitchell-McBride naction, which, by the aid of democrats and populists (as ever) disrupted the republican party in the recent June election and succeeded in electing a hybrid ticket in Multnomah and some other counties to the end that McBride might be elected to the United about $30,000,000 extra out of the Am-
