CRUSHED BY HER CROWN

The great "Book of Martyrs" has never been written. Fox's famous work deals only with the martyrdom of the body. When the real book of martyrs is written it will deal with the mental martyrdom of the woman who suffered in silence because modesty would not let her put into speech the questions that burned in her heart.

Modesty is the Crown of Maidenhood and Motherhood, and yet there have been literally millions of women crushed to death by that crown, that shining symbol of woman's sovereignty in the home.

A YOUNG GIRL

"Standing with reluctant feet
Where womanhood and girlhood meet."

In the first critical period of her life she begins to experience suffering which she necessarily connects with the organs of sex. What it is she does not know. Why it is she does not understand. She needs medical advice. But she shrinks from it. Her modesty is up in arms at the thought of questions to be asked, of examinations to be submitted to, both alike repugnant to delicacy. So she suffers in silence. The strain on the delicate machinery of her organism becomes more severe. Painful irregularities become more painful. And so, silently, she treats the painful path to confirmed invalidism. Her crown of modesty becomes a crown of thorns. She sees the glowing light of cheerful home life. She hears the cooing of the happy babe, the prattle of joyous children, and she fears that all that life of home and love is not for her.

Or take the other typical case of the woman who has entered on the cares and duties of wifehood.

She has always been healthy and happy. But now a change comes. Her eye loses its brightness. Her step loses its spring. The color fades from her cheek. Frequently she is compelled to lie down and rest. She is in constant pain. She looks dreadfully down the calendar toward the hour when the burden of motherhood will fall upon her. She, too, needs help. But she too suffers silently, because she cannot speak and open the door to such questions of such examinations as her modesty revolts at. And yet all this suffering is, as has been said, unnecessary, because to match modesty of speech there is modesty of hearing.

There is one physician who has fully met the needs of modest women by offering absolute confidence in his treatment—absolute confidence in consultation—combined with absolute confidence in treatment. His remarkable discovery and the way in which he has met woman's peculiar needs has made Dr. R. V. Pierce (chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y.), the friend and confidant of tens of thousands of modest women. In over thirty years experience, treating them to the number of hundreds of thousands, Dr. Pierce has been brought into relation with every form of female weakness, feminine peculiarity, and feminine disease. Where a local practitioner has experimented and failed with ten cases Dr. Pierce's discovery and advice have gone straight to the root and cured ten thousand. Every variation of symptomatology is known to this life-long specialist. The presence of complications that confuse and baffle the ordinary practitioner are every day experiences and every day successes to him. His medical discoveries and his confidential, fatherly advice, are to-day the only tonic women can rely on for help and get it ninety-seven times out of every hundred. Those who turn to him experience at once, instead of a skinning with symptoms, a banishing of suffering. His "Favorite Prescription" not only removes all painful female irregularities but acts directly on the delicate organs that suffer in the strain and stress connected with motherhood. It supplies vital force and energy. Dr. Pierce is at all times ready to give advice, free of charge, to those who employ his remedies. Address him from date of this notice.

"Good Counsel" Has No Price.

Wise advice is the result of experience. The hundreds of thousands who have used Hood's Sarsaparilla, America's Greatest Medicine, counsel those who would purify and enrich the blood to avail themselves of its virtues. He is wise who profits by this good advice.

NOT A RAVING MANIAC.

Charles W. Parrish Not in as Bad Condition as Was Reported.

The many friends of C. W. Parrish, of Canyon City, will be pleased to learn that that gentleman, is not in as bad a condition as was supposed. The following letter which refers to statements that appeared in THE JOURNAL, is self-explanatory:

JOHN DAY, Or., Aug. 13, 1900.

To The Salem Journal.

GENTLEMEN:—Enclosed find a clipping from the "Prairie City Miner," issued August 11, which I would like to have you correct.

Chas. W. Parrish went through the May term of circuit court, in Grant county, where he defended two murderers with great credit to himself and fellow attorney M. Dustin.

Every one thought the men would hang, but they only got second degree and were sentenced to life at Salem.

Mr. Parrish then came to John Day and was treated for the liquor habit successfully, but after not having had any liquor for five weeks his mind gave way.

S. B. Parrish and I then took him to Portland for treatment, and he is now under treatment with Dr. Coe, at Mt. Taber, where we expect him to remain for some time.

There is no restraint upon his appetite, as it was he himself who quit the liquor of his own free will and accord. He is not a raving maniac, nor has he at any time been such.

Please correct and oblige his son,
J. L. PARRISH.

CLEANLY WOMAN.

Erroneously Thinks by Scouring Her Scalp That She Cures Dandruff.

Cleanly woman has an erroneous idea that by scouring the scalp, which removes the dandruff scales, she is curing the dandruff. She may wash her scalp every day, and yet have dandruff her life long, accompanied by falling hair, too. The only way in the world to cure dandruff is to kill the dandruff germ, and there is no hair preparation that will do that. Newbro's Herpicide, Herpicide killing the dandruff germ, leaves the hair free to grow as healthy Nature intended. Destroy the cause, you remove the effect. Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide.

Where To Find It.

Willson's Shaving Parlor carry a stock of Newbro's Herpicide, the new and infallible cure for dandruff and falling hair, advertised in another column of this paper.

Fine Pups.

Henry Meyers has on exhibition in their show window his thorough bred Irish setter pups. The strain is one of the best to be found in the state out of Henry's, bitch Joe the 2nd, sired by Dr. Griffith's Rex. The mother and seven pups can be seen in the window and are a beautiful sight.

To-Night and To-Morrow Night.

And each day and night during this week you can get at any drugist's Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs, acknowledged to be the most successful remedy ever sold for Coughs, Croup, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption. Get a bottle to-day and keep it always in the house so you can check your cold at once. Price 25¢ and 50¢. Sample bottle free, eod&w

The bridge was built in 1896 and is 440 feet in length, 172 feet high and 12 feet wide. The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
