The Ringling's Bluff Portland.

It is now said that Ringling's circus will play at Milwaukie, a suburb of Portland, and escape with only a nominal license, and they will give free car fare to that place and will also parade in Portland. This is the result of the Portland City Council putting a license of $12,000 a day on their show to protect the Elks' Carnival. Many Portland people express disgust at the action of their city, and declare that the fair will be a fake, simply dissatisfying the city and charging people to see their own stuff and getting the outside people to come in there and spend their money.

New Rector Coming.

The good people of the Salem Episcopal society have received word from Rev. Otto J. Scovell, accepting their call to the rectorate of their church. Mr. Scovell has for some time been located at Independence, Iowa, and comes to Salem highly recommended. He will be here in time to hold services the first Sunday in September

DEAD DRUGS

If you stop to think about it you'll understand that drugs, like all things else, grow old, and in the process of doing so, lose their vitality—their life. You don't want dead drugs in your prescriptions—if you did you could not get them from us. We don't deal in that kind. Ours are the kind physicians like put in their prescriptions—the live kind. All the physician's skill and druggist's accuracy may be brought to naught by dead drugs. Dead drugs are really dead stock. Dead stock means dull trade. Our trade wouldn't let us accumulate dead stock if we tried—and we are not trying. If you want live drugs come to the live store.

Daniel J. Fry.

We buy direct from manufacturers, thus insuring purity, and having a large and constantly increasing trade, both retail and jobbing, enables us to keep our stock moving, thus insuring freshness.

AGATES AND CURIOS.

Mayor Bishop Returns From the Coast With a Fine Collection.

Mayor Bishop has been to the coast and returned looking well and hearty. While over at the beach he spent considerable time in looking for curios. He visited the famous band of "Kopje" Indians and obtained many pointers as to where the most beautiful agates could be found, and he spent many hours on the beach looking for curios.

Among his collection is an ancient Battle Ax used by the famous band of "Kopje" Indians, it is used for testing the quality of water, moss and ribbon agates. This weapon was a very valuable one and Mr. Bishop can be congratulated upon obtaining it from the famous Chief Glass on Face. He has also an assorted lot of agates more or less rare. He has a number of cloud agates which were selected with great care. Bracelets made of this variety are very beautiful and they are an invariable cure for rheumatism and corns. He brought over the largest water agate found on Nye Creek this season, the cavity contains less than a pint of water. The balance of the collection contains eye agates, moss agates etc., and are on exhibition at the store for a few days.

This collection with the aggregation of wild animals that Finley Perrine will capture, will make a good start for a city museum.

The Ringlings Coming.

W. K. Peck and W. D. Coxey, agents of Ringling Bros. circus, are in the city today making arrangements for the coming of this famous big show to Salem. The date has been fixed for Saturday, September 8. It has been known since last fall that this great show was coming to Salem, as the arrangements with the Southern Pacific Railroad were made at that time. Now that the date has been definitely announced, local interest will undoubtedly be aroused to an unusual degree. It is generally conceded that Ringling Bros. circus is the largest and finest exhibition of its kind that ever came to the Pacific coast. It operates 65 railroad cars, employs nearly a thousand people, has 300 performers, 25 elephants and 500 horses, and presents an almost limitless array of novel features. The Oregonian credited it last year with being the best show ever seen in Portland.

In Probate Court.

In the matter of the estate of Emma McCracken, deceased, the sale of certain real estate in Smith's addition to Salem has been confirmed.

MARRIED.

COOK—WALKER—At the residence of Mrs. Clark on Front street Thursday, Aug. 16th 1900 at 12:30 p. m. Mrs. Mary A. Cook to Chas. H. Walker, both of Salem, Rev. J. J. Evans officiating.

The ceremony took place in the presence of a small company of personal friends, and was by them accounted one of the pleasantest little wedding parties of the season. Immediately after the ceremony and contratulations the newly-married couple departed on the afternoon train for Portland, whence they go to the seaside at Astoria and other points, to be gone indefinitely.

Mr. Walker has been in Salem for thirty years, and is recognized as one of our most thrifty business men, conducting a large shop for carriage trimming, painting and the sale of sundries in that line. His good wife has resided in Salem for three years, and is well-known as manager of the Salem Dye Works, which business she has built up to a profitable point. Upon their return to Salem Mr. and Mrs. Walker will each continue their businesses as in the past for some time at least. Their many friends, who hold them in the highest esteem, will welcome this goodly couple upon their return, and wish them all the prosperity attainable.

STONE—HULL.—At the residence of the bride's parents, Salem, Or., August 15, 1900, Miss Ada Stone to Orville J. Hull, Rev. J. J. Evans officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Stone, and is one of Salem's most estimable young ladies. The groom is an attendant at the insane asylum. He was a member of the Second Oregon and served in the Philippines, and is highly spoken of by all his acquaintances.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few of the nearer relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Hull will reside in the Jackson cottage on Center street.

BORN.

SIMPSON.—In this city, August 13, 1900, to Mr. and Mrs. John A. Simpson, a 14-pound boy.

Mother and son doing well, and John is the biggest man in town.

DIED.

GAY.—At Brooks, Or., Wednesday evening, August 15, 1900, Minerva, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. — Gay, aged 5 weeks.

The funeral took place at Brooks today.

The editor did not discover the swindle until he went to collect for the advertising. As he secured $1 each he is just even and run the advertisements for nothing.
