It isn't the material that goes into your repaired watch that results in a perfect job.

It is the know how that does the business. Any bungler can buy the fine kind of material that I use in repairing; but skill is the most valuable material that can be used in watch repairing and the bunglers can't buy it. I sell my skill for what it is worth, and it will cost you less than buying at a lower price.

A HARD LUCK STORY.

Party of Returning Whithiers Meet With Unpleasant Experience.

A party consisting of Mrs. H. B. Holland, Miss Constance and Leon Holland and Misses Cora and Neva Griswold, who have been enjoying an outing at Wilhoit, arrived in this city about 8 o'clock, Saturday evening after a trip of decided liveliness.

The first occurrence of a really startling nature was when one of the hind wheels of the back slid into a rut and the end of the back seat broke away, letting Miss Constance Holland and Miss Neva Griswold slide overboard. Miss Holland escaped with a sprained wrist, but the hind wheel passed over Miss Neva's limb below the knee, bruising it painfully, but fortunately not breaking any bones. Miss Cora Griswold, who was driving, was also thrown out upon the wheel, but clung to the lines and stopped the team.

Shortly afterward Leon Holland left the back and took his seat with the driver of the wagon which contained the camping outfit of the party, and then it became apparent who was the hoodlum. He had no sooner taken his seat with the driver than the horses commenced to kick. They kicked up and down and sideways, demolishing the dashboard and bruising both Leon and the driver, and for about 15 minutes the air "was full of horses."

A stop of several hours was made at a farm house where Miss Neva's injury received attention, and the party reached Salem in an advanced stage of dilapidation, a heavy rain having added to the discomforts of the trip.

JOURNAL X-RAYS

How all parties love the constitution at times!

A good road to the state fair is the demand of the hour.

In the language of our great soldiers, "let us have peace."

Twelve cents is the highest offer for hops so far reported this year.

Our ministers, our missionaries and our meddlers are safe, bring home those soldiers.

The prune crop is proving a happy disappointment, after all. There is more of it than expected, and good prices, too.

The new Odd Fellows' Temple and opera house is being rapidly pushed to completion, and presents a fine appearance.

A lot of Boers are going to settle in Montana. That will be a good place to exercise their marksmanship, if they can't make crops grow.

People make a fair as much or more than the exhibits, and the efforts to get cheap excursion rates to our state fair ought to be rewarded.

Tom Watson, of Georgia will support Bryan & Stevenson, and it begins to look as though the Democratic ticket might win in that state!

In quarters where the Spanish treaty is favored Mark Hanna says "We did it." In other quarters "Bryan is to blame, for he secured the necessary votes in the senate to pass it."

The Hop Movement and Market.

At New York—Anticipating a considerable shortage in the present crop, brewers are active in buying the '09 crop as well as old hops and prices are somewhat higher. There have been inquiries from London, which is unusual at this season, but no orders have so far resulted. The rains throughout the state last week were much needed and have been helpful to the crop which is in prime condition. There are no reports of rust, mild or lice. Reports from California indicate considerable decrease in the crop under last year.

Quotations at New York are as follows: N. Y. state and Pacific coast crop of '09 choice, 13¢ 1/2 c lb, prime 11 1/2¢ @ 13 1/2¢ medium 8 1/2¢, crop of '08 5 1/2¢ @ 8 1/2¢, German crop of '08 3 1/2¢ @ 4 1/2¢.

NEWSMEN, Germany, Aug. 4.—In general the hop plant is rather weaker than last year and the crop of '09 will not be reached in any country. Plantations are in a health condition. The red spider may increase and reduce the crop. This is the situation in Germany and Austria Hungary, but it is much worse in France and Belgium, and some look for only half the crop of last year in these countries. The crop of '09 is in brewers' hands and the trade is very insignificant. Brewers and merchants do not expect high prices, believing that the crop will be sufficient, but it is too early to prophesy. The U. S. will hold the key to future prices.

Cobleskill Scholar Co., N. Y.—Growers are going out of the business. In '85 this county produced 35,000 bales, against 5,000 last year. Growers are inclined to hold their crop until Oct.—C. F.

Berryett, Madison, Co., N. Y.—There is a great decrease in the acreage over last year, and many growers are going out of business.—D. F. M.

Salem buyers were never so active at this season, and it is no uncommon thing for a grower to have half a dozen buyers visit his yard and try to buy his crop in the same day. The general offers are 10 cents and 11 cents, and it is reported that one grower near Salem has been offered 12 cents for his crop.

New Hello Girl.

Miss Cora Griswold has accepted a position in the central office of the Or. Tel. & Co., to succeed Miss Leona Ryan who gives up her place at the end of the month and will join her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Ryan, at Marshfield. Miss Griswold was in the office for some time about a year ago and learned the duties of a hello girl, and she took her place in the office this morning to brush up a little before Miss Ryan goes away.

Improving Nicely.

Wm. Hogg, one of Jefferson's well known young men who has been ill for some time and who was brought to this city from Jefferson some weeks ago, is improving at the home of his sister Mrs. F. E. Shafer. Mr. Hogg, has many friends in this county who are glad to see him gaining.

Another Holdup.

Last night between 10 and 11 o'clock J. P. Ward, who claims his residence at Sunnyside, a suburb of Salem, says he was robbed of a gold watch and about $50, in money near the Capitol Lumber Company office on Front street. One lone highwayman did the job and suspicion points toward a questionable character who has been around the city for the past few months.

Good Prune Crop.

The prune growers of Shaw station, Aunsville and the north end of Howell Prairie are making preparations to handle a good crop of that fruit and quite a number of new dryers have been erected. Griswold & Chase have been put up six of the Larsen dryers in that vicinity in the last few weeks.

DIED.

BLOUNT.—At the Oregon Insane asylum, Sunday, Aug. 26th Mrs. Elizabeth Blount, aged 85 years, of senile exhaustion.

The remains were shipped by Rigdon & Clough, this morning to Canby for interment.

BORN.

COOPER.—In South Salem Sunday August 26, 1900 to Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Cooper a ten pound girl.

When You're Sick and Need Medicine

The BEST is none too good, so we THINK and if you THINK at all you must THINK likewise. Thinking as we do we handle only the BEST of everything that enters prescriptions compounded by us. That's our point. We buy only the freshest medicines—that's another point. No substituting at this store—that's a vital point. We "know how"—that's the main point.

Those "points" should influence you to bring your prescriptions to us. We know that if you come once you'll come again. We have found that the BEST, in either skill or medicine, is always cheapest—so may you, but beware that this knowledge does not come to you too late—after a fresh mound has been made in the cemetery, for instance.

Furthermore, you'll always find at Badly Shaken Up.

Mr. W. F. R. Smith, the South Commercial street blacksmith who received severe injuries one day last week from a fall while coming down from his home has nearly recovered. He is again able to work but a deep long cut in his leg is yet quite painful. Mr. Smith has handled all kinds of wild horses during his shoeing career, but he never received such a shaking up in his life. He claims to have run up against the "real thing" the first time in his life. He says "Please excuse Mr. Smith."

It is said that he broke the record for wingless and unaided flight. He flew 28 feet 7 inches without a flutter, alighting with remarkable grace on his left ear.

To Cleanse the System.

Another Requisition.

OSTEOPATHY

Definition.

Osteopathy is the science of treatment of all parts and organs of their natural position with each other, thus removing the irritations resulting from their normal relations, and removing obstruction to the vital forces and fluids of the body; and by stimulating mechanism all organs to their proper function inhibiting abnormally active processes or movements of portions of the body organism. It, therefore, must have as its foundation a thorough and comprehensive knowledge of human anatomy and physiology, and of the normal and abnormal action and metabolism of all parts of the bodily mechanism.

Illustration.

Osteopathy recognizes in man a perfect and intricate, and to a certain extent, self-recovering machine, which with every part or organ in its position and relation with every other part will run smoothly and perfectly and that after replacement of parts replaced by accident, or any of the various forces incident to its surroundings movements, a restoration of function is health will supervene. All recognize these conditions in the infinitely less complex time-piece, driven by a spring of human make; why do we not see them also in the mechanical body, different only in that it is driven by the God-given spring of force, called life?

Diseases.

Treated successfully by Osteopathy. Nervous, resulting in headache, insomnia, Loss of Appetite, Loss of Flesh, Constipation in its worst forms, stomach and liver troubles, many kidney disorders, consumption in its first stages, Asthma, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Tonillitis, Female diseases, painful, suppressed, and increased Meneses. The results in these troubles alone are sufficient to recommend the treatment to all suffering women. Rheumatism in all its forms, eye troubles, give excellent results, lumbago, curvatures of spine, etc.

Consultation Free.

My previous practice has given me a wide experience in the many forms of disease and I will give an honest opinion of cases coming to me for consultation or treatment.
