Hawaii's Ex-Queen Sued.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Aug. 29.—According to mail advices from Honolulu, Liliuokalani, the deposed Queen of the Hawaiian Islands, has troubles of her own. Dr. Charles H. English, of Cincinnati, O., has brought an action for $5000 for medical services against the ex-Queen under the name of Lrdia Dominis.

The complaint further alleges that he entered the services of the Queen May 16, 1900, and accompanied her from Washington, D. C., to Honolulu, but July 10 he was dismissed. For violation of contract he asks $5000 damages. The case will be heard during the present session of court.

Strike in Bohemia.

COFFAGE GROVE, Or., Aug. 29.—Another rich strike has been made on the Barlow & Stocks group of mines in the Bohemia district. After the big strike was made a month ago, Harlow & Stocks drifted on the ledge for 90 feet, 49 feet of which has a six-inch streak that glitters with gold.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—The Daily Mail this morning claims to have the highest authority for the assertion that Lord Roberts has already succeeded Lord Worsley as Commander-in-Chief of the British Army.

Veterans Hold Meeting.

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 29.—The general business meetings of the thirty-fourth national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic are being held today. The veterans were welcomed by Mayor Harrison in a short speech, to which a response was made by Commander-in-Chief Shaw. The Department of Illinois, through its commander, J. M. Longenecker, then formally welcomed the visiting posts, and the business of the meeting was opened.

One of the features of the encampment was a veterans' bicycle road race, in which 29 old soldiers started. The distance was five miles. The winner was J. Patterson, 61 years old, of Greenfield, Indiana.

Croker Controls

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—Returns from the primary elections held in the various counties of the state indicate that Richard Croker will control the Democratic State Convention, to be held at Saratoga September 11.

The Croker forces won the first round in the battle against the friends of Controller Bird S. Coler, led by ex-Senator Hill. Mr. Hill and Mr. Coler, however, do not regard the result of the primaries as conclusive, and the battle will be fought out in the convention. Mr. Croker, however, said the result is final and that no candidate for Governor from Greater New York can be nominated.

Base for Timber Land Frauds.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—The general land office has withdrawn four townships in the Soshone Falls, Blue Lakes and Snake River region in Southern Idaho for a national park. The townships are townships 9 and 16 south and range 17 and 18 east, and are in Lincoln and Cassia counties. The withdrawal of 25 townships was requested by the Idaho delegation in congress, but the forest superintendent for Idaho requested that only four be withdrawn.

Bankruptcy Decision.

WINONA, Minn., Aug. 29.—An important bankruptcy decision was filed here by Judge Lochner, in the case of W. S. Trowbridge, insolvent. The decision in effect is that under the bankruptcy law, no creditor can have his claims allowed until he surrenders to the trustee any money or property he may have received from the bankrupt within four months prior to bankruptcy, without regard to the creditor's knowledge or ignorance of the fact that his debtor is in danger of bankruptcy.

Members of the Bar in Conclave.

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Aug. 29.—The twenty-third annual convention of the American Bar Association opened here today. This association is composed of the leading judiciary and lawyers of the various cities, and their meetings are of great interest to the legal world, as they pass upon all weighty subjects from year to year. Ex-Senator Manderson, of Nebraska, president of the association, is in the chair. In convention a conference of the members of the State Board of Law Examiners from several States will be held.

Pingree's Attitude.

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—G. J. Dikeman, chairman of the State Republican Committee of Michigan, stated at Republican headquarters that he did not believe the published statements with regard to ex-Governor Pingree's defection from the Republican party. He stated that Pingree would not support Bryan, and he believed he was loyal still to the Republican ticket, in spite of published reports to the contrary.

Railway Commissioners discuss Laws.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Aug. 29.—The southern railway commissioners opened their meeting at the Lookout Inn here today. Commissioners from Louisiana, Georgia, Florida, North Carolina, Mississippi, and other states are in attendance.

ROGERS HOLDS

The Key to the Political Situation.

HIS FRIENDS ARE IN CONTROL

The Ticket Nominated in Washington Will Be Known as Democratic When Fusion Takes Place.

GOVERNOR ROGERS HAS NOT QUIT

By Associated Press to the Journal. SEATTLE, Wd., Aug. 29.—Harmony was evident everywhere around the three conventions this morning. Everybody has agreed to the two-thirds rule. The Populists have surrendered and the fusion ticket will be known as the Democratic ticket.

The Rogers men are much more confident today. They have a majority in the convention, but the chances are against securing two-thirds. At a conference of the combined delegations it was decided to stand out for Rogers to the end.

Robert Bridges has been agreed to as chairman of the joint convention.

NEW YORK MACHINES CAPTURE IT ALL

By Associated Press to the Journal. NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—Returns from Tuesday's primaries in Greater New York show the New York county Republican organization successful in all except the 21 assembly district. Tammany hall was successful in holding control of the Democratic organization in all districts. John C. Sheehan failed to recapture the leadership in the Ninth district.

Aunt Nancy Eoff Dead.

Mrs. Nancy C. Eoff, widow of the late George Eoff of Macleay, died at her home this morning at 6:20 o'clock, at the age of nearly eighty years, her next birthday falling on Sept. 20th. Deceased has been in declining health for some time but enjoyed the use of her faculties and remained in full consciousness to the last hours of her life.

Aunt Nancy is the last of the older people of her family with whom she crossed the plains in 1847, settling in the neighborhood where she has resided for 53 years. She was a niece of the late Capt. L. N. English who was prominent in this section for many years. Born in Kentucky, she was also a second cousin of the late Wm. H. English who ran for vice-president with Hancock, and was a great-uncle by marriage of the present Governor, T. T. Geer. Her husband died in 1880 and she leaves no children.

Mrs. Eoff was a life-long member of the Christian church, and her funeral will be conducted from the old home Thursday at 2 o'clock by Rev. J. W. Short, burial at the family burying ground.

Mrs. Eoff was a woman of fine social qualities, keeping alive many of the old customs and traditions of her youth. Even in her old age there were few young people who took much more interest in the affairs of the community or were gayer at any gathering than Aunt Nancy, and her death will leave a vacant place no one can fill. She was universally beloved and respected by all who knew her.

Hop Pickers Emigrating.

Many teams are now engaged in gathering up the hop pickers and moving them out to the various yards, and picking in general will begin here Monday.

The Delicious Fragrance

from a hot Royal Baking Powder biscuit whets the appetite. The taste of such a biscuit—sweet, creamy, delicate and crispy—is a joy to the most fastidious.

ROYAL Baking Powder improves the flavor and adds to the healthfulness of all risen flour-foods. It renders the biscuit, bread and cake more digestible and nutritious.

Royal Baking Powder makes hot breads wholesome. Food raised with Royal will not distress persons of delicate or enfeebled digestion, though eaten warm and fresh.

Imitation baking powders almost invariably contain alum. Alum makes the food unwholesome.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Hop pickers are arriving daily from Portland and other points and in a few days the villages will be deserted and the country population increased to the utmost limit. Hop picking in Oregon is looked to as the time of year when all can make a few dollars. Many hop pickers can earn from $1.50 to $2.50 per day while others who are experts can earn more.

First Prunes.

The first load of dried prunes of this year's crop was received at the Willamette Valley Prune Association's warehouse yesterday. This load confirms the report heretofore made that the prunes are running to small sizes. It is said that this must not be taken as a criterion of the crop, for the prunes thus far dried, are the first drops and are not a fair sample. The first gathering of prunes will be kept separate from the rest, and will not be put on the market as first-class fruit.

Some Crop Figures.

It is reported that Tuesday four cents more was paid at the Enger mills than at Salem for wheat.

The large lot of W. H. H. Darby oats were sold for 37 cents. At Salem 35 cents is paid.

Bishop Off for China.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 29.—Bishop David H. Moore, of Chicago, and of the Methodist Episcopal Church, sailed from here today on the Japanese steamship Hongkong Maru for Shanghai, China, where he will take charge of the American missionary interests in China.

The first work of the bishop there will be to reorganize the force of missionaries now in the field. He anticipates a quick ending to the Chinese uprising.

Relief Corps Convenes.

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 29.—The annual convention of the Woman's Relief Corps was formally opened this morning. The day will be taken up for the most part with business meetings. It is expected that officers for the coming year will be elected late today. There is a hot competition for president, five States putting forward their claims for recognition.

MARRIED.

CHURCHILL—SMITH—At the home of the bride's mother, corner of Mill and 5th streets, Miss Estella Churchill to Prof. Walter M. Smith, Rev. J. J. Evans officiating.

Both the young people are well known in Salem and have a host of warm friends to wish them joy.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. M. B. Churchill, and has spent a good part of her life in this city.

The groom is a graduate of the State Normal school at Monmouth and has been employed as principal teacher in the East Salem school.

The wedding was a quiet home affair, with the immediate relatives and about thirty invited guests. The residence was nicely decorated, and the wedding march was played by Miss Bertha Hubbard as the bride and groom entered. The former tastefully dressed in cream-colored silk and the latter in conventional black.

After the ceremony refreshments were served, and the happy occasion was greatly enjoyed by all.

Professor Smith has accepted a position as principal of the public schools at Mitchell, Wheeler county, and will remove there about Sept. 17th.

Mutes in Convention.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 29.—The sixteenth annual convention of the Pennsylvania Society for the Advancement of the Deaf opened in this city this morning. Over 200 delegates are present out of a membership of 300, all of whom are deaf.
