New Salem Manager Arrives and Board of Directors Meet.

Mr. John Fechter Jr., who was recently elected to fill the office of general secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association has arrived and will assume active duties Sept. 1. Mr. Fechter is a graduate of the Y. M. C. A. Secretarial Institute and Training school at Chicago where he spent two years in study to prepare for a life work in the Young Men's Christian Association. He comes with good recommendations from Secretary John Hannel of the Central Department of the Chicago Association, as being among the brightest and best qualified men who have graduated from school. The board of directors will hold a meeting in the association parlors at 2:30 p. m. tonight to perfect plans and arrangements for active work. The current expense during the summer has been made as light as possible in order that more funds might be at hand for the needs this fall and winter. The Ladies Auxiliary will hold a meeting Tuesday, Sept. 4, at 2:30 p. m. in the parlors to complete arrangements to assist in the work of the association.

They will combine the necessary interest in body building, which is the object of the physical work. In the Junior Department two classes will be organized where such games and exercises will be given which the boys will call fun, but will cause them to grow into strong, young men.

If a sufficient number can be induced to come, a separate business men's class will be organized to which members of the regular classes will not be eligible. There are enough men who work in offices and stores in Salem to make a strong class. The class work would be mostly recreative and suited to the needs of business men. They need exercise and it will be worth dollars to all who embrace this embrace this opportunity.

The Sunday afternoon meeting will be opened soon, and this part of the work will receive more attention than in the past and will move along new lines. With the help of the ladies, a few socials will be planned for the work this season, the necessary good things that make such occasions enjoyable will be present.

Active work in the different departments will commence about October 1.

Death of Frank Savage.
 Geo. Griswald of this city received a telegram Wednesday afternoon bringing the sad news of the death at Casopolis, Mich., of Frank Savage, at 3:45 a. m. Deceased was a brother of John Savage, Jr. of this city, and Mrs. C. Patrick of Polk county, and an uncle of Mrs. Geo. Griswald.

Mr. Savage has been in Salem several times in the last few years, his last visit being last winter when he stayed here about a month. He had business interests in Salem and Polk county and was quite well known here.

He was 52 years of age and leaves a family of a wife and three daughters and two sons, the youngest 16 years of age. Deceased leaves an estate of probably $25,000. He was a successful farmer and a shrewd business man of the strictest integrity, and held the high esteem of all who knew him.

Replevin Suit.
 Thos. A. Dittmars has commenced a replevin suit against Sheriff F. W. Durbin in Department No. 1 of the circuit court, to recover possession of certain property seized by the sheriff, August 25, under an execution out of the circuit court in the case of Hofer & Zorn vs. J. M. Keene et al. Plaintiff asks the restoration of the property or $180, its value, and $50 damages. A. O. Condit is attorney for plaintiff.

Case Dismissed.
 Geo. Baker, of the Liberty street meat market was arrested last night by Constable Lewis on complaint of A. Lehman, who lives near Baker's slaughterhouse, and who charged that Baker had left a dead sheep where it was offensive to the public.

The case was set for 10 o'clock a. m. today, in Justice O'Donnell's court, but the prosecuting witness failed to appear, and the case was dismissed.

They will go in a few weeks to Puget Sound, where they will make their future home.

Would You Enjoy Your Breakfast?

"Certainly," answer some. "How?" ask others. To all we say "impossible" if you arise with a bad taste in your mouth and carry it to the breakfast table with you. But you need not do this if you will but spend a quarter today and a few minutes every morning. First buy a bottle of Dentina, put a few drops on your tooth brush or in a glass of water—you know the rest, or will after the operation, for you will experience a delightfully wholesome, refreshing taste in your mouth and your breath will be pure and sweet. Try it today and you will use it tomorrow. It cleans and preserves the teeth and purifies the breath. If there is a better tooth wash on the market we would like to know it, but we are decidedly of the opinion that there is not, and so will you be after once using Dentina—25c will settle the question.

ENGLISH HOPS HURT.
 Reports of Growths on Plantations for Week Ending August 5.

H. L. Bents of the Oregon Hopgrower's Ass'n has our thanks for following advance news:
 Ashford.—The hops have made very satisfactory progress in this locality during the past week. The rain has been insufficient to effect any very great amount of good, it is true, but it has freshened up the bine, and the district escaped the hail storm which did some damage in other parts on Friday. The well cultivated and diligently washed grounds are now beginning to show the advantage they possess over those which have been comparatively neglected. The latter are weakly, short of bine and tending towards blight. There is a little mould in places.

Boughton and Neighborhood.—The plant continues vigorous, and the burr promising. Unwashed grounds are in a hopeless condition.

Lower Hardies.—There is not much fresh to relate about the hops in this parish. The growth of bine is very variable, in some grounds there is plenty, others not half enough. A good soaking rain would do good. Apparently the crop will be a very light one.

Thane.—Where washing has been properly done some nice hops will be grown, but those gardens that have been neglected can produce but the smallest crop (if any at all); and it is especially noticeable this year that where the winter and early spring cultivation was neglected the grounds are sadly suffering, and have no bine. The fly and lice still adhere, and must shortly injure the burr, which is now coming out. Altogether, I should say the growth of Thane will not produce more than one-third of last year's quantity.

Woodnesborough.—The extreme heat, and repeated washing, have about killed the lice. The burr does not develop quite satisfactorily, and it is certain now that the crop cannot be more than about half of what we grew last year. There is a little mould to be found, but not sufficient to cause any anxiety yet.

Hanta.—Hop prospects in this county are bad. The continued attacks of aphids have destroyed any prospect of even a small crop in the unwashed grounds. Not since 1892 has there been such a bad out-look as at present. Only the larger growers who have washed continuously have a chance of anything like a crop and that must be a moderate one. Taking the condition all round at the present time there does not seem any possibility of a production of more than 40 per cent. of last year's crop, and this even may not be secured as there are now, in thoroughly washed grounds, fly to be found and mould has appeared in places. Cultivation is bad in many instances through the want of labour, which is scarce and inferior.

Biddenden.—The heavy winds have blown the hops very much and injured the burr considerably. It is doubtful whether a good deal of it will come into hop at all. I have no hesitation in saying there has been blown away and injured five cent. per acre on all the best pieces which will now bring the average down very small. I shall be better able to estimate the damage next week, at present the outlook is very bad.

Canterbury.—The gales of Friday and Monday nights have wrought immense damage in the exposed grounds, and owing to the great fall in the temperature, with an excess of moisture from the rains, mould is spreading very seriously. Prospects all round are much worse: the crop will be small and, it is feared, of inferior quality.

Sussex.—Reports from all districts in this county are much less satisfactory than last week, great damage has been caused by the gales of Friday and Monday, and mould generally on the increase. The best farmed and strongest bine holds its own fairly well, and the forward sorts are developing into very healthy looking hops, but in many instances the burr seems to be at a standstill. Unless a great change for the better comes immediately will not only be very short but of inferior quality.

Worcester.—The rains of the past week have done good to the bine, and though the colder weather has somewhat checked development Branchings are now in burr. The gale of Friday has caused much damage to the laterals where grounds were open to its full force.

THE HAIR BRUSH
 Breeds Dandruff, Which Causes Falling Hair and Finally Baldness.

Prof. Unna, Hamburg, Germany, European authority on skin diseases says that dandruff is as contagious as any other malevolent disease, and that one common source of the spread of dandruff is the use of the same hair brush by different persons. The way to avoid catching dandruff or any other disease from another's brush is to insist on the use of Newbro's Herpicide. It not only kills the dandruff germ, but it is also an antiseptic that will prevent the catching of any disease whatever through contagion of another's brush.

Where To Find It.
 Willson's Shaving Parlors carry a stock of Newbro's Herpicide, the new and infallible cure for dandruff and falling hair, advertised in another column of this paper. 8-21m
